The General Manager may also close, after due notice to the public, any Goods Office on any other day in case he considers it expedient to do so.”;

- (b) Under the heading “Passengers”—

“27. Sleeping Cars.—(a) On trains provided with first or second class sleeping berths, the charge for each first class berth with bedding is Rs. 5 and for each second class berth without bedding is Rs. 2.50, in addition to the ordinary first or second class fare (as the case may be) to the station to which the passenger is booked. No passenger is allowed to enter a sleeping car without a berth ticket which must, on his entraining, be delivered to the sleeping car attendant.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in paragraph (a) of this rule, in the Indo-Ceylon mail trains, first or second class sleeping berths without bedding are provided for through passengers, if so desired, without any extra charge, but berths are not guaranteed unless they have first been reserved, for which a registration fee of Rs. 2.50 for each berth is charged and a reservation ticket issued. Any first class passenger requiring bedding on these trains will be charged Rs. 5 for each berth, and in such a case, no registration fee will be charged. Second class passengers should carry their own bedding. Local passengers requiring berths on the Indo-Ceylon trains will not be allowed berths, until the demands of through passengers have been met, and in the event of berths being reserved for them, the usual charges of Rs. 5 and Rs. 2.50 for each first or second class berth, as the case may be, will be made.

(c) A child under twelve years of age travelling with a half ticket and occupying a sleeping berth must pay the full cost of a berth ticket, but two such children may occupy the same berth with one berth ticket.

(d) Ladies travelling alone will be allotted berths in a compartment reserved for ladies only. No boy over six years of age will be permitted to travel in a ladies' compartment unaccompanied by a female passenger and without the consent of the other ladies occupying the compartment.

(e) Only such small boxes and bags as will go under the lower berths are permitted in sleeping cars, and passengers should note this specially, and make timely arrangements for any other luggage which should be conveyed in the Guard's van.

(f) An application for an upper or a lower berth, or berths in any particular part of a sleeping car will be attended to as far as possible, but allocation will be made strictly in the order in which applications are received, preference being given to applicants travelling the longest distance. The number of sleeping berths on any train is limited, and reservation cannot be guaranteed. No berths will be booked from or to any station at which the train is not booked to call.

(g) If a sleeping berth allotted in response to an application is not occupied, the berth charge of Rs. 5 or Rs. 2.50, as the case may be, must be paid by the applicant, unless notice is given cancelling the berth, to reach the office at which the application was made, not later than 10 a.m. on the day previous to the date for which the berth was booked.';

In the Indo-Ceylon mail trains, however, the charge for reservation of a compartment for through passengers only, is a full fare for each berth the compartment contains, plus Rs. 2.50 for each berth, whether occupied or not. If bedding is required, Rs. 5 will be charged for each first class berth made up as a bed.'; and

Class I—Compressed or Liquefied Gases—(a) Identification Colours—

(1) Every person filling any cylinder with compressed or liquefied gas shall, before it is stored or despatched, paint or cause it to be painted with the appropriate identification colours specified in Tables I and II.

(2) No person shall in any way interfere with or change the colour painted on a gas cylinder:

Provided that nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to prohibit the repainting of a cylinder with the identification colour painted on it when it is required for the purpose of maintaining the cylinder in good condition.

(b) Marking and Labelling of Cylinders—

(1) Every cylinder shall be legibly marked or labelled with the name of the gas and the name and address of the person by whom the cylinder was filled with gas.

(2) A warning in the following terms shall be attached to every cylinder containing gas.—

“ WARNING ”

1. Do not change the colour of this cylinder.

2. This cylinder may not be filled with any gas other than the one it now contains.

3. This cylinder should be kept cool. It should not be placed near a stove or other source of heat, nor be exposed to the sun.

4. No inflammable material should be stored in the immediate vicinity of this cylinder or in the same room in which it is kept.

5. No oil or similar lubricant should be used on the valves or other fittings of this cylinder.

(3) No person shall possess or transport any cylinder which does not comply with the above requirements.

(c) General Precautions—

(1) Cylinders together with their valves and other fittings and the identification colours prescribed under “ Identification Colours ” must always be maintained in good condition.

(2) Every cylinder containing compressed or liquefied gas must have its valve securely closed so as to prevent leakage.

(d) Protection of valves during Transport—

(1) Every cylinder containing compressed or liquefied gas must, if it is being transported, have its valve protected against damage in the manner provided in paragraph (2) and (3), unless it is securely packed in a box or crate.

(2) Where the design of a cylinder does not provide for the valve lying wholly below the level of the body of the cylinder, a stout metal cap or metal cover securely attached to the cylinder body must be provided, the design being such that the cap or cover is nowhere in close proximity to any part of the valve or valve body.

(3) Every valve cap or cover on a cylinder which does not contain hydrocyanic acid must be provided with a vent of such size as to prevent any gas pressure inside cap or cover.

- (4) Nothing in paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) applies to cylinders containing oxygen for medical purposes or nitrous oxide, and having a water capacity not exceeding ten pounds (10 lbs.).

(e) Ground Colour—

Gas cylinders must be entirely covered with a coat of paint of the colour specified in Tables I and II.

(f) Distinguishing Colour Band—

- (i) A distinguishing colour band shall be applied to the gas cylinders in accordance with Tables I and II and Figure 1. Unless otherwise specified this distinguishing colour band must be painted round the neck of each cylinder adjacent to the valve fitting and must be wide enough to occupy half the portion of the cylinder between the junction of the hemispherical and cylindrical portions and the neck.
- (ii) When the valve of a cylinder is wholly protected by an extension of the cylinder body, the identification colour band adjacent to the valve must be painted on the extension both internally and externally and when two identifying bands are required, in such cases, the second band must be painted immediately below the first band on the external surface of the cylinder. (See Figure 1.)
- (iii) For cylinders for medical purposes, the name or chemical symbol of the gas must be stamped, stencilled or painted on or near the shoulder of the cylinder. In the case of coir covered cylinders the name or chemical symbol of the gas must also be stamped on a metal tag attached to the covering.

(d) Goods belonging to Group III, which are accepted in wagon loads to one destination station, may be loaded and despatched on any working day direct to destination. Single compartment explosive wagons or steel covered goods wagons may be used for the loading of such goods, the packages being properly and securely stacked so as to avoid any of them falling from the stack and coming into violent contact with the others in the course of the movements or shunting operations of such wagons.

(e) In addition to the above arrangements, every endeavour will be made to meet special and urgent requirements when consignors give 48 hours' notice, and are prepared to pay for special accommodation as laid down in Rule 44.

(f) For the day and hour of arrival of wagons containing explosive and dangerous goods at outstations see Working Arrangements of Gunpowder Vans as shown in the Working Time Table.

(g) Special advice notes, of which a specimen form is shown below, will be despatched to consignees by the quickest means:—

Specimen Form

Sir, I beg to inform you that the explosives herein referred to will arrive at ..... (time) on ..... (day and date), and you are requested to have some one present to take delivery

Explosives cannot be unloaded to await delivery, so that unless you arrange to meet the train, your consignment will be retained in the "explosive" wagon until its return to this station at ..... on..... (when your Agent should be present to remove it), and you will be liable to a charge of Rs. 5 for the over-carriage and extra services performed.

(h) Consignees are advised to ascertain from the Station Masters, the dates on which the Explosive Vans are worked back to Colombo and arrange for any empty return receptacles to be tendered in time for despatch by the return Explosive Vans. ", and

(3) Under the heading "Alphabetical Classification of Goods"—by the substitution, for the explanatory notes and classification shown thereunder, of the following new explanatory notes and classification:—

" 1. The symbols used in this classification have the following indications:—

- (a) " O.R. " indicates that the rate applies at owner's risk;
- (b) " N.O.C. " indicates "not otherwise classified";
- (c) " W / " followed by a figure or figures indicates the minimum weight in tons per four-wheeled wagon to which the rate applies, e.g. W/4 means that the rate applies to a minimum wagon load of 4 tons per ordinary four-wheeled wagon;
- (d) " C / " followed by a figure indicates the minimum weight in tons per consignment to which the rate applies, e.g. C/2 means that the rate applies to a minimum consignment of 2 tons;
- (e) " D " against a commodity indicates dangerous goods conveyed under rules 43 to 54 under the heading "Explosives and other Dangerous Goods", in the part relating to the Conveyance of Goods Traffic;

- (f) " L " against a commodity indicates that the loading, unloading and transferring must be performed by consignors and consignees, or that, where the Railway finds it necessary to do so, these services may be performed by the Railway, at the sole risk and expense of the consignors and consignees,
- (g) ' e ' indicates that the commodity is an expected article in respect of which, the liability of the Railway is limited under rule 2 of the Goods Traffic Rules, unless it is insured for a higher value.
2. Where a lower class is quoted for a minimum weight per wagon, the lower class rate per ton will apply to the full quantity loaded in each wagon, any remnant of the consignment being chargeable on actual weight at the higher class rate or as for the minimum weight per wagon at the lower class rate whichever is less. This method of charging does not, however, apply where a lower class is quoted for a minimum weight per consignment the whole of which is chargeable at such lower class rate.
3. The minimum weight applicable per wagon or per consignment may be made up of different commodities in respect of which the class, rate, and conditions of carriage are the same, and provided they are booked together as one consignment from one consignor to one consignee and to the same destination, but fully described on the consignment note tendered at the forwarding station.
4. In the case of (a) Curry and foodstuffs, and (b) Shop goods grouped under Class 3 for minimum consignments of 4 tons and Class 2 for minimum consignments of 8 tons, the relative rates will be charged for such minimum consignments irrespective of whether they are made up of commodities appearing under " Curry and Foodstuffs " or " Shop goods " or both.
5. In cases where the same commodity is classified under different classes, according to minimum weight conditions, the charge for the lesser weight shall not exceed the charge for the greater weight.
6. Wherever any commodities are arranged into groups and attached to a main head under the words " Includes " or " As under ", it should be understood that the word " Includes " does not necessarily mean that they are exhaustive, but any items grouped in a main head under the words " As under " must be considered as a complete list of such commodities. Station Masters are, however, not authorised to include under the former, for the purpose of freight charges, any commodities not specifically provided for therein, without the prior authority of the General Manager.
