Registrar General's Office,
Colombo, July 10, 1902.

P. ARUNACHALAM,
Registrar-General.

THE following Order of His Majesty the King in Council applying the Colonial Solicitors Act, 1900, to Ceylon, in respect of the three parts of the United Kingdom, is published for general information.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, July 11, 1902.

R. W. LEVERS,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Order in Council.

At the Court at St. James's, the 4th day of November, 1901.

Present:

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President
Lord George Hamilton
Lord James of Hereford

Sir Henry de Villiers
Lord Justice Mathew
Lord Justice Cozens-Hardy.

WHEREAS by the Colonial Solicitors Act, 1900, it is enacted that where, as respects a Superior Court in a British Possession, His Majesty the King in Council is satisfied on the report of a Secretary of State—

- (a) That the regulations respecting the admission of persons to be solicitors of that Superior Court are such as to secure that those solicitors possess proper qualifications and competency; and—
- (b) That by the law of the British Possession the solicitors of the Supreme Court will be admitted to be solicitors of the Superior Court in the Possession on terms as favourable as those on which it is proposed to admit solicitors of that Superior Court in pursuance of the said Act to be solicitors of Supreme Court;

His Majesty in Council may order that the said Act shall apply, and the same shall accordingly apply, to the said Superior Court and British Possession, subject to any exceptions, conditions, and modifications specified in the Order:

And whereas by the said Act it is further provided that His Majesty in Council by the same or any subsequent Order may, as respects the Court and British Possession named in the Order, provide for all matters authorized by the said Act to be prescribed, and for all matters appearing to His Majesty to be necessary or proper for giving effect to the Order and to the said Act, and that an Order in Council applying the Act to a Court in a British Possession may provide that solicitors of that Court may be admitted by virtue of the said Act to be solicitors in any part of the United Kingdom, namely, England, Scotland, or Ireland, or in two or one of those parts only:

And whereas application has been made by the Governor of the Island of Ceylon that the said Act may be applied to that Island:

And whereas His Majesty in Council on the report of the Secretary of State for the Colonies is satisfied that the regulations respecting the admission of persons to be proctors of the Supreme Court of the Island of Ceylon are such as to secure that those proctors possess proper qualifications and competency, and that by the law of the Island of Ceylon the solicitors of the Supreme Court in England and Ireland and Law Agents in Scotland will be admitted to be proctors of the Supreme Court of the Island of Ceylon on terms as favourable as those on which it is proposed to admit proctors of that Court in pursuance of the said Act to be solicitors of the Supreme Court:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the said recited Act and in execution of the powers thereby in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Colonial Solicitors Act, 1900, shall apply to the Supreme Court of the Island of Ceylon and to the Island of Ceylon, and that proctors of the Supreme Court of the Island of Ceylon may be admitted by virtue of the said Act to be solicitors in England and in Ireland and Law Agents in Scotland subject to the conditions hereinafter specified:—

1. A proctor of the said Supreme Court of the Island of Ceylon (hereinafter called the applicant) who, having been in practice before such Court for not less than three years, is desirous of being admitted to be a solicitor of the Supreme Court in England or Ireland or a Law Agent in Scotland, shall be a male British subject.

2. The applicant shall, four calendar months at least before the first day of the month in which he proposes to be admitted, leave with the Registrar of Solicitors, or in the case of Scotland with the Registrar of Law Agents, his original certificate of admission in the said Supreme Court of the said Island, together with—

- (a) A certificate from the authority of the said Island in whose custody the roll of the proctors of the said Court is kept, stating that his name is still upon the roll and has never been removed therefrom and that no order has ever been made directing him to be suspended from practising his profession ;
- (b) One or more certificates of fitness and character signed by two resident practising proctors of at least five years' standing in the said Court, and by at least one of the Judges or officers next in rank of such Court ;
- (c) A statutory declaration in terms of or to the effect of that set out in the Schedule A hereunto-annexed.

3. The leaving of the before-mentioned documents shall be equivalent to notice of intention to apply for admission within the meaning of the Acts regulating the admission of solicitors in England and Ireland respectively.

4. A certificate under the hand of the Registrar of Solicitors that the applicant has complied with the provisions of the Colonial Solicitors Act, 1900, and of this Order, shall be equivalent to the certificate of his having passed the Final Examination required in England and Ireland respectively.

5. The application for admission to be a solicitor in England shall be made to the Master of the Rolls, and for the like admission in Ireland to the Lord Chancellor of Ireland.

6. The applicant in England or Ireland shall not be required to pass any examination, either before or after making such application.
