It is hereby notified that His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to approve of the rules stated below, relating to the grant of Pensions to Officers of the Local Board of Negombo.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, August 6, 1902.

By His Excellency's command,
R. W. LEVERS,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Rules relating to Pensions to Officers of the Local Board of Negombo.

1. No pension will be granted to any officer of the Local Board of Negombo without the authority of the Governor, in order to obtain which certificates of service, age, good conduct, and of the ground of retirement must be submitted to the Colonial Secretary.

2. Subject to the provisions of rule 1, all officers of the Local Board of Negombo on the fixed establishment drawing a salary of Rs. 250 per annum and upwards shall be entitled to pension as follows :—

Any officer who shall have served ten years and upwards and under eleven years shall receive an annual allowance of ten-sixtieths of the annual salary of his office, eleven years and under twelve years an annual allowance of eleven-sixtieths of such salary, and in like manner a further addition to the annual allowance of one-sixtieth in respect of each additional year of such service, until the completion of a period of service of thirty-five years, when the annual allowance of thirty-five-sixtieths may be granted, and no addition shall be made in respect of any service beyond thirty-five years. Provided that officers in office at the date of the passing of these rules, who do not receive promotion or new appointments, shall be entitled to pension at three-fourths of the rates prescribed in this section.

3. No officer of the Local Board will be held to have an absolute right to compensation for past services or to any pension under these rules; and the Local Board will retain power and authority to dismiss any such officer without compensation.

4. No pension shall be granted to any officer of the Local Board who shall be under fifty-five years of age, unless upon certificate from the Chairman of the Local Board and from two medical practitioners that he is incapable, from infirmity of mind or body, to discharge the duties of his situation, nor unless he shall have discharged those duties with diligence and fidelity to the satisfaction of the Chairman.

5. It will be competent to the Local Board, with the authority of the Governor, in cases of peculiar and extraordinary merit in respect of duties outside of those for which the officer has received a salary, to grant special and higher rates of pension than those laid down in these rules.

6. The above-mentioned rates are only to be granted in cases of decidedly faithful and meritorious service, but when the testimony as to fidelity, diligence, and merit is in any respect defective, a deduction will be made from the apportioned rates. Where there has been obvious negligence, irregularity, or misconduct, the grant of allowance will be altogether withheld.

7. The claim of an officer of the Local Board to pension will be considered to have commenced from the date of his first permanent appointment to the fixed establishment of the Local Board.

8. Every officer on the provisional and temporary establishment will, in the event of transfer to the fixed establishment, be entitled to reckon his provisional and temporary service, when it has been continuous, with his subsequent permanent service.

9. The services in respect of which superannuation allowances are granted ought in all cases to have been continuous, unless interrupted by reduction of office or other temporary suspension of employment not arising from misconduct or voluntary resignation of the party.

10. The pension shall be computed upon the salary of the permanent office held by an officer of the Local Board at the time of his retirement, provided he shall have held such appointment for at least three years, otherwise the pension shall be calculated upon the average of the salaries attached to the permanent offices held by such person during the three years next preceding the commencement of such pension.

11. In case of suspension or reduction or abolition of office, temporary allowances may be assigned, agreeably to the specified rates, on condition, however, that the parties receiving the same will be liable to be recalled into service, and with the understanding that they are to be re-employed, as opportunity may offer, in preference to new applicants for office.

12. In the case of officers to whom temporary allowance may be assigned in accordance with rule 11 on the abolition or re-organization of their offices, and who may be afterwards re-employed, one half of the period during which they have been in the receipt of such allowance will be allowed to count towards pension on their final retirement.

13. In case of abolition of office to persons who shall have served twenty years and upwards a period of ten years shall be added to their actual service in computing their retiring allowance. To persons who shall have served under twenty years and not less than fifteen years, a period of seven years shall be added.

To persons who shall have served under fifteen years and not less than ten years, a period of five years shall be added. To persons who shall have served under ten years and not less than five years, a gratuity shall be granted calculated at the rate of one month's pay for each year's service, with an additional allowance of three months' pay.

To persons who shall have served less than five years, a gratuity shall be awarded calculated at the rate of one month's pay for each year's service, with one month's pay added.

The number of years to be added to actual service on abolition of service should not be more than that which, if added to the age of the retiring officer, would make that age up to sixty, except that one year would be added in the case of an officer of sixty or more, unless the officer was quite disqualified for further service.

14. In the case of persons who, if they served the time granted by rule 13 for compensation, would be over fifty-five years, and who may retire through abolition of office, the provisions in rule 13 will not be binding on the Local Board, but each particular case will be decided according to the view that may be taken after a full consideration of all the circumstances attending it.

15. Should the term of service not warrant the assignment of an annual allowance, a gratuity may be granted at the rate of one month's salary for each year of service. For a fractional part of a year's service exceeding six months, half a month's salary will be added to the gratuity.

16. If any person, being in the receipt of any pension or superannuation allowance from the Local Board, shall be convicted of any offence in any court of justice in this Island, for which he shall be sentenced to death or to any term of imprisonment with hard labour exceeding twelve months, such pension or superannuation allowance shall forthwith determine and cease to be payable, unless such person shall, within three months after his conviction, receive free pardon, or unless the Local Board shall otherwise order.

17. Every person hereafter appointed to any office under the Local Board in which a pension is granted on retirement may be required to retire from the service of the Local Board on or after attaining the age of fifty-five, upon the receipt of twelve months' notice to that effect.

18. As a contribution to the Pension Fund a deduction of 2 per cent. shall be made from the salary of each officer entitled to pension.

19. All sums so deducted shall be deposited monthly in the Government Savings Bank pending permanent investment or other disposal by the Board.

20. Officers receiving promotion or taking up a new appointment shall receive a salary less by 20 per cent. than the maximum salary payable to their predecessors. This initial salary shall be raised annually by 2 per cent. of the maximum salary until the maximum salary shall be attained.

21. An officer who resigns his appointment under the Board for employment elsewhere shall forfeit his right to pension from the Board, unless he shall have served for a period of not less than ten years, when half the ordinary pension rates may be awarded him at the discretion of the Board; such pension to be calculated upon the average of the salaries attaching to his permanent office during the three years preceding his resignation.
