DRAFT ORDINANCES

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance for the Establishment of Houses of Detention for Vagrants.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to establish houses of detention for vagrants: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Vagrancy Ordinance, 1907."

Definition.

2 In this Ordinance the word "vagrant" means—

- (1) Any person found asking for alms;
- (2) Any person not being physically able to earn, or being unwilling to work for, his own livelihood and having no visible means of subsistence.

Power of Governor to establish houses of detention.

3 (1) It shall be lawful for the Governor to provide houses of detention at such places as he shall think proper within the colony for the reception of vagrants.

(2) The Governor may from time to time appoint such superintendents and medical and other officers for the management of such houses of detention as he may think fit, and may from time to time at his pleasure dismiss or remove any such superintendent or officer.

(3) Every such superintendent and officer shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Ceylon Penal Code.

Detention of vagrants on order of police court.

4 (1) When any person has been convicted of any offence by a police court under its summary jurisdiction, if after due inquiry the police magistrate is of opinion that the person so convicted is a vagrant within the meaning of this Ordinance, he may, in addition to or in substitution for any punishment which he has power to inflict, order such person to be detained in a house of detention. Any such order shall declare that the person against whom it is made is a vagrant, and shall also, if practicable, state any prior date from which, in the opinion of the police magistrate, such person has been in the colony a vagrant as defined by this Ordinance. Such order shall be a sufficient authority to the police for keeping in custody such person on the way to the house of detention and to the superintendent for receiving and detaining him there.

(2) Every person detained in a house of detention under this section shall be detained until work has been found for him, or until he is removed or discharged as hereinafter mentioned.

(3) Every person so detained shall be put to any labour of which the medical officer shall certify him to be capable.

Persons detained may be sent to hospital.

5 Any person detained in a house of detention may, if the medical officer considers it necessary, be sent to a hospital for treatment; but shall be deemed while in hospital to be still an inmate of the house of detention.

Regulations for management of houses of detention.

6 It shall be lawful for the Governor in Council from time to time to make regulations for the management of houses of detention. Such regulations may include among other things rules for—

- (a) The search of the person and clothing of any person admitted to the house;
- (b) The custody or destruction of the clothing and effects;
- (c) The diet, dress, and accommodation of the inmates;
- (d) Personal cleanliness, hours, meals, labour, and general conduct—and may prescribe punishments for disobedience to such rules to be inflicted by the superintendent not exceeding one week's confinement, or one week's reduced diet (the nature of such confinement and of such reduced diet to be prescribed by the rules), or both such punishments.

Superintendent to endeavour to find employment for vagrants.

7 (1) The superintendent of any house of detention shall use his best endeavours to obtain suitable employment outside the house for the vagrants admitted thereto.

Penalty for refusing employment.

(2) When any such employment is obtained, any vagrant who refuses or neglects to avail himself thereof shall be liable to imprisonment of either description for any term not exceeding one month.

Agreements to leave the colony.

8 (1) Any vagrant detained in a house of detention may enter into an agreement in writing with the Colonial Secretary, binding himself to embark on such ship and at such time as the superintendent of the house of detention may direct, for the purpose of being removed from Ceylon at the expense (if any) of the Government of Ceylon, and not to return to Ceylon within five years.

(2) Every such agreement shall be exempt from stamp duty, and shall be in the form in the schedule to this Ordinance or to a like effect.

Enforcement of agreement.

(3) When a vagrant has entered into such agreement, unless in the opinion of the superintendent of the house of detention suitable employment is likely to be speedily found for such vagrant, the superintendent may enforce such agreement and cause such vagrant to be removed from Ceylon, and if he deems it desirable may call in the assistance of the police to place such vagrant on board ship, and such vagrant may be detained on board and shall be deemed in lawful custody while the ship is within the jurisdiction of the colony.

Removal of vagrants from colony.

9 (1) If within a reasonable time not exceeding one year from the date when he was committed to such house no suitable employment is obtainable for a vagrant detained in the house of detention, and such vagrant, not being a British subject born in Ceylon, has not entered into such agreement as herein-before mentioned, the Governor in Council may order him to be repatriated, and he shall be repatriated accordingly; and any person returning to Ceylon after having been repatriated under this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction thereof to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding six months.

Discharge of vagrants.

(2) The Governor may at any time order any person detained in a house of detention to be discharged.

Arrest without warrant of vagrant refusing to appear before police court.

10 Any person who, being apparently a vagrant, refuses or fails to accompany a police officer, or to appear before a police court when required to do so, for the purposes of this Ordinance, may be arrested without warrant, and shall on conviction before a police court be liable to imprisonment of either description for any term not exceeding three months.

Penalty on vagrant for escape.

11 Any vagrant who escapes from the police while committed to their charge under this Ordinance, or who leaves a house of detention without permission of the superintendent, or who, having with such permission left a house of detention for a limited time or a specified purpose, fails to return at the expiration of such time or when such purpose has been accomplished or proves to be impracticable, shall on conviction before a police court be liable to imprisonment of either description for any term not exceeding three months.

Saving of prosecutions under Ordinance No. 4 of 1841.

12 Nothing contained in this Ordinance shall be construed to prevent the prosecution of any person for any offence punishable under Ordinance No. 4 of 1841, intituled "An Ordinance to amend the Laws relating to Vagrants."

SCHEDULE.

Form of Agreement to leave the Colony.

Exempt from stamp duty.

Articles of agreement made this _____ day of _____, 190—, between the Colonial Secretary of Ceylon of the one part and A. B. of _____ (the vagrant) of the other part. Each of the parties hereto (so far as relates to the acts on his own part to be performed) hereby agrees with the other of them as follows:—

*Here insert name of port to which A. B. agrees to go.

1. The said A. B. shall embark on board such ship and at such time as the superintendent of the house of detention shall direct.

2. The said A. B. shall remain on board such ship until such ship shall have arrived at the port of _____.*

3. The said A. B. shall not return to Ceylon until five years shall have elapsed from the date of such embarkation, unless he shall be specially permitted to return by the Government of Ceylon.

4. The said Colonial Secretary of Ceylon shall contract with the owner of such ship or his agent for the passage of the said

A. B. on board such ship and for his subsistence during the voyage for which he shall embark as aforesaid.

In witness whereof the said Colonial Secretary of Ceylon and the said A. B. have hereunto set their hands the day and year first above written.

Colonial Secretary.

A. B.

By His Excellency's command,

G. M. FOWLER,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 7, 1907.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of the Draft Ordinance is to provide for the detention, in institutions established for the purpose, of persons who have no means of subsistence and are unable or unwilling to work for their own livelihood.

2. The Ordinance makes provision for the establishment of "houses of detention;" for the appointment of the necessary officers; and for the detention of vagrants, on the order of a magistrate, until they are removed under the Ordinance or discharged by order of the Governor.

3. Superintendents of Houses of Detention are charged with the duty of endeavouring to find employment for the vagrants in their charge; and punishment is provided for vagrants who refuse to take advantage of employment when found for them.

4. The Ordinance contains provisions for the removal of vagrants from the Island under agreement; for the repatriation, in certain cases, of foreign vagrants; and for making regulations for the management and discipline of houses of detention.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to provide for the Employment of duly qualified Tindals and Engineers on Launches.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the employment of duly qualified tindals and engineers on launches: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be for all purposes cited as "The Launches Ordinance, 1907."

Definition.

2 In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—

- (1) The term "launch" includes any boat of less than fifty tons burden propelled by steam, electric, or other motor power which ordinarily plies in any port in Ceylon, or in any canal, river, lake, or other inland water in Ceylon.
- (2) The word "tindal" means any person (except a pilot or harbour master) having for the time being charge or control of a launch.
- (3) The word "voyage" includes also the plying of a launch at or about any port or place.
- (4) The word "prescribed" means prescribed by rule made under this Ordinance by the Master Attendant with the approval of the Governor in Executive Council.

The term "Master Attendant" means the Master Attendant of the port of Colombo.

- Appointment of examiners.      3 The Master Attendant may from time to time appoint persons for the purpose of examining the qualifications of persons desirous of obtaining certificates of competency as tindals or as engineers of launches.
- Grant of tindals' or engineers' certificates of competency.      4 (1) The Master Attendant shall grant to every person who is reported by the examiners to possess the necessary qualifications a certificate of competency to the effect that he is competent to act as the tindal or as the engineer, as the case may be, of a launch.
(2) Every such certificate shall be in the prescribed form.
- Power of Master Attendant to require re-examination or further inquiry.      5 Before granting a certificate under the last foregoing section the Master Attendant may, if he has reason to believe that the report of the examiners regarding any applicant has been improperly made, require a re-examination of the applicant or a further inquiry into his testimonials and character.
- Grant of certificate of service.      6 (1) The Master Attendant may in his discretion grant without examination to any person who has served as a tindal or as an engineer of any launch before the First day of January, 1907, a certificate of service to the effect that he may act as a tindal or as an engineer of a launch.
(2) A certificate of service so granted shall have the same effect as a certificate of competency granted under this Ordinance after examination.
- Certificate to be made in duplicate.      7 Every certificate of competency or service granted under this Ordinance shall be made in duplicate, and one copy shall be delivered to the person entitled to a certificate and the other shall be kept and recorded in the prescribed form.
- Grant of copy of certificate in certain cases.      8 Whenever a tindal or engineer proves to the satisfaction of the Master Attendant that he has without fault on his part lost or been deprived of his original certificate, he shall be entitled, on payment of a fee of two rupees and fifty cents to be paid to the Master Attendant, to a copy of such certificate in lieu of such original.
- Nature of certificates necessary for tindals and engineers of steam launches.      9 (1) A launch shall not proceed on any voyage unless she has—
(a) As her tindal, a person possessing a tindal's certificate granted under this Ordinance, or a master's certificate granted under Ordinance No. 7 of 1863, or a certificate granted by the Board of Trade that he is competent to act as master, or as first, second, or only mate of a foreign-going ship, or as master of a home-trade passenger ship, or a colonial certificate of competency as master or mate to which the provisions of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1904," relative to certificates have been made applicable by an order of His Majesty in Council under section 102 of the said Act.
(b) As her engineer, a person possessing an engineer's certificate granted under this Ordinance, or an engineer's certificate granted by the Board of Trade, or a colonial certificate of competency as an engineer to which the provisions of the said Act have been made applicable as aforesaid.
- Provided that a launch shall be deemed to have complied with this section if she has as her tindal and engineer a person possessing both a tindal's certificate and an engineer's certificate in accordance with this Ordinance.
- (2) If any launch proceeds on a voyage in contravention of this section the owner and the tindal of the launch shall each be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine, which may extend to one thousand rupees.

Power of Master Attendant to make rules.

10 The Master Attendant may make rules to regulate the granting of certificates of competency under this Ordinance, and may by such rules—

- (a) Provide for the conduct of the examination of persons desirous of obtaining certificates of competency as tindals or as engineers under this Ordinance.
  - (b) Prescribe the qualification to be respectively required of persons desirous of obtaining such certificate.
  - (c) Fix the fees to be paid by applicants for examination.
  - (d) Prescribe the form in which certificates shall be given—
- and such rules when approved of by the Governor in Executive Council shall be published in the Government Gazette.

By His Excellency's command,

G. M. FOWLER,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 24, 1907.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of the Draft Ordinance is to make provision for the employment of duly qualified tindals and engineers on launches, the term "launch" including boats of less than fifty tons burden, propelled by steam, electric, or other motive power, ordinarily plying in any port or inland water in Ceylon.

2. The power of appointing examiners and of issuing certificates of competency is vested in the Master Attendant of the Port of Colombo, who is also empowered to make rules, subject to the approval of the Governor in Executive Council, for the purposes of the Ordinance.

3. The qualifications which the Draft Ordinance requires are, in the case of tindals, a tindal's certificate under the Draft Ordinance, or a master's certificate under Ordinance No. 7 of 1863, or a Board of Trade certificate of competency as master or as first mate, second, or only mate of a foreign-going ship, or as master of a home trade passenger ship, or a colonial certificate of competency as master or mate. In the case of engineers, the qualifications are a certificate under the Draft Ordinance, an engineer's certificate granted by the Board of Trade, or a colonial certificate of competency as an engineer.

4. The owner and tindal of any launch proceeding on a voyage without a duly qualified tindal and engineer is liable to fine.
