DECREE.

By His Highness SEYYID ALI BIN HAMOUD, Sultan of Zanzibar.

Restriction of Immigration.

PART I.

1. This Decree shall be known as the "Immigration Restriction Decree, 1905."
2. This Decree shall not apply to—
  - (a) Any person possessed of a certificate in the form set out in Schedule A of this Decree and signed by the First Minister of the Zanzibar Government or his deputy or other officer having charge of the administration of this Decree.
  - (b) The officers and crew of any vessel of His Britannic Majesty's Fleet or of the Fleet of any other Power.
  - (c) Any person duly accredited to Zanzibar by or under the authority of the Imperial or any other Government.
  - (d) Any person, the subject of a Foreign Power having Treaty rights in Zanzibar, who is not a prohibited immigrant under clause 3 of this Decree, and who can produce a guarantee in the form set out in Schedule B of this Decree signed by the local Consular representative of such Power.
  - (e) The wife and any child, appearing to the officer having charge of the administration of this Decree to be under the age of 16 years, of a person not being a prohibited immigrant, provided that they are not themselves prohibited immigrants within the meaning of sub-sections (b), (c), (d), (e), or (f) of section 3 of this Decree.
  - (f) Natives of Persia, Arabia (exclusive of the Levant), of the British, Italian, German, and Portuguese Protectorates on the East Coast of Africa and of the Islands adjacent thereto, including Madagascar, who are not prohibited immigrants under sub-sections (b), (c), (d), (e), or (f) of section 3 of this Decree.
3. The immigration into the Islands of Zanzibar and Pemba of any person being or appearing to be of any of the classes defined by the following sub-sections (hereinafter called "prohibited immigrant") is prohibited, namely:—
  - (a) Any person without visible means of support, or any person who is likely to become a pauper or a public charge.
  - (b) Any idiot or insane person.
  - (c) Any person suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease.
  - (d) Any person who, not having received a free pardon, has been convicted in any country of murder or any crime for which a sentence of imprisonment has been passed for any term, and who, by reason of the circumstances connected therewith, is deemed to be an undesirable immigrant; but this provision shall not apply to crimes of a political character not involving moral turpitude.
  - (e) Any prostitute, and any person living on or receiving, or who may have lived on or received, any part of the proceeds of the prostitution of others.
  - (f) Any persons deemed by the First Minister to be an undesirable immigrant in consequence of information or advice received from any Secretary of State or Colonial Minister, or through diplomatic channels or any Minister of a foreign country, or from any other trusted source.

PART II.

4. Any person who desires to land at Zanzibar shall, before being allowed to do so, appear before an officer appointed for that purpose, who shall, after such examination as he may consider necessary, inform such person, as well as the master of the ship which has conveyed him to Zanzibar, whether he is a prohibited immigrant within the meaning of the Decree.
5. If such person prove on examination to be a fit and proper person to be received as an immigrant into Zanzibar, the officer shall furnish him with a certificate in form set out in Schedule A, and if not shall specify the conditions, if any, on which he can be allowed to land.
6. Any police officer or other officer appointed under this Decree may, subject to the exceptions hereinafter contained, prevent any prohibited immigrant from entering the Islands of Zanzibar or Pemba.
7. Any prohibited immigrant making his way into or being found within the said Islands in disregard of the provisions of this Decree shall be deemed to have contravened this Decree. Any person convicted under this section may, in addition to liability to removal or otherwise, be imprisoned with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding six months; provided that such imprisonment shall cease if and when arrangements are made for the deportation of the offender from the said Island.

8. No person who comes within the definition of a prohibited immigrant shall be released from the operation of this Decree, or allowed to be or remain in the said Islands, merely because he has not been notified not to land, or because he may have been allowed to land through oversight or through want of knowledge that he was a prohibited immigrant. Proof may be adduced within twelve months after any person has entered the said Islands that he was at the time of his entry one of any of the classes whose entry is prohibited, and such person shall be liable to be then dealt with as a prohibited immigrant.

9. If there shall be reasonable cause to suspect that any person has contravened this Decree, and if, in order to prevent justice from being defeated, it is necessary to arrest such person immediately, it shall be lawful for the Officer or Police Officer to arrest such person forthwith without having a warrant for that purpose, and he shall be required to bring such person before the Court by which he is justiciable forthwith; or should the ship from which such person landed be on the point of departure, then such person may be handed over to the custody of the master of the ship, who shall be obliged to receive and keep him on board.

10. Any person appearing to be a prohibited immigrant within the meaning of section 3, and not coming within the meaning of sub-sections (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f) of the said section 3 may be allowed to enter the said Islands upon the following conditions:—

- (a) He shall, before landing, himself deposit with the officer (1) if a native of Asia the sum of fifty rupees; (2) any other person, the sum of seven hundred and fifty rupees.
- (b) If such person shall within one week after entering the said Islands obtain from the First Minister a certificate that he does not come within the prohibition of this Decree, the deposit shall be returned.
- (c) If such person shall fail to obtain such certificate within one week, the deposit may be forfeited, and he may be treated as a prohibited immigrant.

In the case of any person entering the said Islands under this section no liability shall attach to the vessel or to the owners of the vessel in which he may have arrived at any port of the said Islands.

11. The First Minister may authorize the officer to make a contract with the master, owners, or agent of any vessel for the conveyance of any prohibited immigrant found in the said Islands to a port in or near to such immigrant's country of birth, and such immigrant with his personal effects may be placed by a police officer on board such vessel.

12. Any person who shall be instrumental in bringing into the said Islands any idiot or insane person without a written or printed authority signed by the First Minister shall be deemed to have contravened this Decree, and, in addition to any other penalty, shall be liable for the cost of the maintenance of such idiot or insane person whilst in the said Islands.

13. Any officer for the purposes of this Decree shall be empowered to board as often as may be necessary all ships entering inward at any port of the said Islands in the performance of his duties under this Decree.

14. The master of a ship arriving at any port of the said Islands shall, upon being thereto requested by the officer at the port, furnish to him a list in duplicate, signed by himself, of all passengers and other persons then on board not forming a portion of the regular crew of the vessel.

15. A master shall also, if required thereto prior to his departure from the port, produce his articles and muster his crew, and if it be found that any person named on the articles who in the opinion of the officer would be a prohibited immigrant is not then present, such person shall be deemed to have entered the said Islands contrary to this Decree, but the master and agent of the ship, provided that they have made proper provision for police protection, shall not be responsible for any contravention of the provisions of this section.

16. Whenever it shall be deemed necessary for the effective carrying out of this Decree to regulate intercourse from the shore with any vessel in the port having on board any prohibited immigrant, the officer may take such steps with the approval of the First Minister as may appear proper in that behalf.

17. The master and owner of any ship from which any prohibited immigrant may be landed or may land shall be liable jointly and severally to a maximum penalty of one hundred pounds sterling in respect of each prohibited immigrant landed or who may land, and the vessel may be refused a clearance outward until any penalty incurred has been paid and until provision has been made by the master to the satisfaction of the Officer for the conveyance out of the said Islands of each prohibited immigrant who may have been so landed, and the vessel may be made executable by a decree of the Court by which the owner is justiciable in satisfaction of any penalty imposed under this section. The word "clearance" as used in this Decree includes all the documents ordinarily issued by the Collector of Customs to a ship about to leave port, including the document known as the Bill of Health.

PART III.

18. Any person being a prohibited immigrant within the meaning of this Decree may apply to the officer for a pass to enter the said Islands for a temporary visit or for the purpose of embarking at the port for some other country. Such passes shall be known as Visiting Passes and Embarking Passes respectively, and shall be in the forms prescribed by the Regulations made under this Decree. The words "the port" mean any port in the Islands of Zanzibar and Pemba.

19. The applicant shall attend before the officer and shall answer all such questions as the officer may put in order to satisfy himself that the pass ought to be granted, and shall deposit with him the appointed sum of money: that is to say, for a Visiting Pass the sum of one hundred and fifty rupees, together with an additional sum of one hundred and fifty rupees where the pass includes the wife and children of the applicant.

For an Embarkation Pass the sum of one hundred and fifty rupees for each adult and seventy-five rupees for each child.

The word "child" as used in this and succeeding sections means a person appearing to the Officer to be under the age of sixteen years.

20. Except in this case of a person accompanied by his wife and children a separate pass shall be required for each person seeking to enter the said Island for the purpose of a visit or for embarking.

21. No such person shall be entitled as of right to obtain a Visiting Pass or an Embarkation Pass, and the officer appointed to issue such passes shall have the discretion to grant or refuse any such pass, subject however to any direction which may be given him by the officer or by the First Minister.

22. A Visiting Pass shall be a sufficient authority for the person or persons named therein to enter the said Islands and to remain there during the period stated in the pass. Such period shall not exceed twenty-one days, but any officer appointed under the Decree may, for sufficient reason appearing, extend the period from time to time by an endorsement on the pass. No extension shall be made for more than fourteen days at a time, and no such pass may be extended beyond six weeks from the date of the pass except with the consent of the First Minister.

23. The money deposited for a Visiting or Embarkation Pass shall be returned to the depositor upon the pass-holder quitting the said Islands within the time named in the pass or any extension thereof, or may, in the event of the pass-holder failing to quit the said Islands within the specified time, be applied by the officer, in so far as the sum deposited shall suffice therefor, in obtaining a passage for the person or persons named to their destination. Any balance of the money deposited shall be returned to the depositor as hereinbefore provided, or may, in the discretion of the officer, be expended in any other necessary or proper manner by the desire of the depositor.

24. Any person being a prohibited immigrant within the meaning of the Decree who shall enter the said Islands in pursuance of a Visiting Pass, and who shall remain therein beyond the time allowed by such pass or by a lawful endorsement thereon, or who may misuse the pass or allow any fraudulent use to be made of it, shall be deemed to have contravened this Decree, and shall, upon conviction, suffer forfeiture of the amount deposited by him and render himself liable to the punishment prescribed by section 7 of the Decree.

PART IV.

25. Any person appearing to an officer under this Decree to be over the age of sixteen years shall be regarded as an adult for the purposes of this Decree.

26. The First Minister may appoint officers for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Decree and may define the duties of such officers, and where in this Decree the expression "the officer" is used such expression shall be taken to mean any officer so appointed.

27. The First Minister may from time to time make, amend, and repeal Regulations for the better carrying out of this Decree.

28. Any person who shall by false declaration obtain or seek to obtain, either for himself or for another person not being entitled thereto, any certificate or document intended to secure the entry into the said Islands of any person in violation of the provisions of this Decree, and any person who may fraudulently use any such certificate or other document, shall be guilty of a contravention of this Decree.

29. The following shall be contraventions of this Decree:—

- (a) Assisting any prohibited immigrant to enter the said Islands or knowingly being a party to the introduction of any person of class (e) of section 3 of this Decree.
- (b) Aiding or abetting a prohibited immigrant or any other person in any contravention of this Decree or of the Regulations.
- (c) Resisting or obstructing actively or passively any officer in the execution of his duty.
- (d) Wilfully disobeying or disregarding any obligation imposed by, or any lawful order made under, this Decree or the Regulations.

30. Every person guilty of a contravention of this Decree or of any regulation passed thereunder shall, where no penalty is expressly imposed, be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, or, in default of payment thereof, imprisonment with or without hard labour for a period not exceeding six months, or he may be sentenced to such imprisonment as aforesaid without the option of a fine.

31. Any penalty incurred by the master of a ship shall be paid before the ship's clearance is granted. Notice in writing by the officer to the Collector of the Customs of any claim against the master, owners, or agents of a ship for a penalty shall be a sufficient authority to him to refuse the ship's clearance until such order is withdrawn or is set aside by the order or judgment of a Court. Such a notice to the Port Captain or Harbour Master shall be authority to him to refuse to take a ship or allow it to go outside the port to any outer harbour or anchorage. When such notice is given the officer shall with all speed inform the First Minister and take all such steps as may be necessary in order that proceedings in respect of the contravention may be instituted without loss of time.

32. The enforcement of any money penalty may be either by criminal prosecution or by civil action at the instance of the officer. Any Court having jurisdiction to try a contravention of this Decree or of the Regulations may impose a penalty of one thousand rupees or imprisonment with or without hard labour. Such imprisonment may in any criminal prosecution be awarded either absolutely or in default of the payment of the penalty.

33. This Decree shall come into force on the 1st January, 1906.
