The Governor may by Proclamation prohibit importation of animals.

12 A (1) It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette, to prohibit from time to time, as he may think desirable, the importation into Ceylon, from any place where he has reason to believe that rabies exists, of dogs, horses, deer, or any other animal by which in the Governor's judgment rabies is liable to be carried, or to order that no such animal shall be imported without a license in writing under the hand of the Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE general object of the Ordinance is to prevent rabies being introduced into the Island by imported dogs or other animals.

Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to transfer to the Registrar-General the duties assigned to the Colonial Secretary by "The Trade Marks Ordinances, 1888 to 1904," and by "The Designs Ordinance, 1904."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the duties assigned to the Colonial Secretary by "The Trade Marks Ordinances, 1888 to 1904," and by "The Designs Ordinance, 1904," should be transferred to the Registrar-General: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Trade Marks and Designs Ordinance, 1906."

Amendment of section 2 of both Ordinances with regard to definition of "Colonial Secretary."

2 For the definition of the term "Colonial Secretary" in section 2 of "The Trade Marks Ordinance, 1888," and in section 2 of "The Designs Ordinance, 1904," there shall be substituted the following definition, namely:

"Registrar" means the Registrar-General, and includes any officer in the Registrar-General's Department to the extent to which he may be authorized by general or special order of the Governor to discharge the duty of the registrar under this Ordinance.

Substitution of "Registrar-General" for "Colonial Secretary" throughout Ordinances.

3 For the terms "the Colonial Secretary" and "the Colonial Secretary's Office" wherever they occur in either of the two above-named Ordinances or in any marginal note or schedule thereto, or in any amending Ordinance, there shall be respectively substituted the terms "the registrar" and "the registrar's office."

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office. A. M. ASHMORE,
Colombo, January 9, 1906. Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

THE purpose of the Draft Ordinance is to transfer to the Registrar-General the duties which "The Trade Marks Ordinance, 1888," and "The Designs Ordinance, 1904," assign to the Colonial Secretary.

This change is introduced partly on grounds of administrative convenience and partly because the office of the Registrar-General is better adapted than that of the Colonial Secretary for the performance of the duties in question.

Attorney-General.
