DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to make better provision for the protection of the Pearl Fisheries of Ceylon.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the protection of the pearl fisheries of Ceylon: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Pearl Fishery Ordinance, 1906."

Interpretation.

2 In this Ordinance the term "pearl oyster" means pearl-bearing oysters of all descriptions, and includes the mollusc commonly called the "window oyster" or "the Tampalakam pearl oyster," and scientifically known as Placuna placenta, as well as any other pearl-producing molluscs which may be introduced or laid down in the territorial waters of the island.

Exclusive right of Crown in pearl fisheries.

3 The exclusive right of fishing for and taking pearl oysters off the coasts of Ceylon and in all bays and inland waters of the island is vested in the Crown.

Prohibition of fishing for pearl oysters.

4 (1) The Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, may from time to time by Proclamation declare that it shall be unlawful for any person within the limits named in the Proclamation to fish or dive for, or to collect, or to use or employ any boat, canoe, raft, or vessel whatsoever for collecting pearl oysters or any specified kind of pearl oysters without having first obtained a license in that behalf from the government agent or from some person duly authorized by him to grant licenses.

(2) The Governor may with the like advice rescind or vary any Proclamation under this section.

Penalty.

5 Any person who, within the limits named in such Proclamation, fishes or dives for or collects or uses or employ any boat, canoe, raft, or vessel whatsoever for collecting pearl oysters of the kind specified in the Proclamation without having first obtained a license in that behalf in accordance with the last preceding section, or contrary to the terms of such license, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall, on conviction thereof, be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, or to simple or rigorous imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or to both such punishments; and any boat, canoe, raft, or vessel whereby such offence was committed, together with all its appurtenances and contents and all pearl oysters unlawfully collected, shall be forfeited.

Powers of police and peace officers.

6 It shall be lawful for any police officer or peace officer or for any fishery guard appointed under any regulation hereunder or for any officer of Customs to demand of any person found fishing for or attempting to collect pearl oysters, or having them in his possession, the production of the license required by this Ordinance; and if such license is not produced, or is not deemed satisfactory, to take such person before the police magistrate and detain in safe custody any boat, canoe, raft, or other vessel employed in contravention of this Ordinance, together with all its appurtenances and contents, until he shall have received the directions of the police magistrate for their disposal.

Reward to informers.

7 It shall be lawful for any police magistrate before whom any person shall be convicted of any offence under this Ordinance to direct a portion of the fine actually recovered and realized, not exceeding one-half, to be paid to the informer.

Power to make regulations.

8 (1) It shall be lawful for the Governor in Executive Council from time to time to make, and when made to vary, amend, or revoke, regulations for the management, control, development, and improvement of the pearl fisheries off the coasts of Ceylon or off any part of such coasts or in any bay or inland water of the island.

(2) Such regulations may, amongst other things, provide a close season, during which it shall be unlawful to fish for or to collect pearl oysters or any specified kind of pearl oysters.

(3) All rules so made shall be published in the Government Gazette, and shall thereupon become as legal, valid, and effectual as if the same had been inserted herein, and shall be binding upon and be observed by all persons subject to their operation, and all courts, judges, and magistrates shall take judicial notice thereof.

(4) The breach of any regulations made in pursuance of this section shall be an offence, and shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding twenty rupees.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, February 3, 1906.

A. M. ASHMORE,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE purpose of this Ordinance is to protect pearl-producing oysters of all descriptions, including the "window oyster" and any exotic species which may be introduced.

2. The exclusive right of fishing for pearl oysters is vested in the Crown; power is taken to protect fishing within specified limits without a license and to make regulations for the management, control, development, and improvement of the pearl fisheries off the coasts of Ceylon.

Colombo, February 8, 1906.

ALFRED G. LASCELLES,
Attorney-General.
