PASSED ORDINANCES

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council.

No. 3 of 1906.

An Ordinance to further amend the Law relating to the General Regulation of Customs.

HENRY A. BLAKE.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to further amend in certain particulars the Ordinances relating to the General Regulation of Customs: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Customs Duties Amendment Ordinance, 1906," and this Ordinance and "The Customs Duties Ordinances, 1869 to 1904," shall be read and construed as one Ordinance, and may be cited together as "The Customs Duties Ordinances, 1869 to 1906."

Substitution of new section for section 3 of Ordinance No. 9 of 1904.

2 For section 3 of "The Customs Duties Amendment Ordinance, 1904," there shall be substituted the following section, namely:

In Schedule D of "The Customs Duties Amendment Ordinance, 1903," the following words shall be added after the words "If exceeding 288 hours to pay the same rate outwards as paid inwards," namely:

Provided that buoy rent shall not be payable—

(a) In respect of any time beyond the said period during which a vessel has stayed in port for repairs, or because she was unable to put to sea without risk, if the master attendant is satisfied that such stay was necessary and was not unduly prolonged; or

- (b) In respect of any time during which a vessel is on the slips or in dry dock ; or
- (c) In respect of any time during which any vessel is kept in port as a reserve vessel to maintain the regularity of the mail service or for other important public service.

The Governor shall from time to time, by notification in the Government Gazette, declare the vessels which are entitled under sub-section (c) of this section to be exempted as reserve vessels from buoy rent.

Amendment of tariff of import duties as regards perfumery and used motor bicycles accompanying passengers.

3 (1) In Schedule B annexed to "The Customs Duties Amendment Ordinance, 1903," there shall be substituted for the words "Perfumery or spirits imported as perfumery per gallon Rs. 7" the following words, namely :

	Rs. c.
On perfumed spirits and bay rum a duty per gallon of ... ..	7 0
On perfumery other than perfumed spirits, for every Rs. 100 of the value thereof a duty of ...	5 50

(2) In the said Schedule B under the sub-head "Metals : Iron and steel not galvanized" the word "rails" shall be omitted.

(3) The following additions shall be made to the table of exemptions in the said schedule to the said Ordinance, namely :

- (a) Between the words "Cardamoms" and "Cards" there shall be inserted the word "Cardboard."
- (b) Under the heading "Machinery," in sub-head (e), the words "raw rubber" shall be inserted after the word "coffee."
- (c) In the enumeration of articles under the head "Passengers' Luggage accompanying the Passenger," the words "used motor bicycles" shall be inserted between the words "used bicycles" and "photographic cameras."
- (d) Under the head "Prints and Pictures" the words "and beading used for picture frames" shall be added after the words "picture frames."
- (e) Between the articles enumerated under the head "Prints and Pictures" and the word "Rattan" there shall be inserted the words "Rails, rail-fastenings, tie-rods, fish-plates, and turntables."
- (f) Under the heading "Wood, Metal, Paper, or other Material" there shall be added after the words "used in making tea boxes" the words "or boxes used for the despatch of samples of tea or other Ceylon products."
- (g) The word "uniforms" under the heading "Regimental clothing" shall be omitted.
- (h) After the head "Timber (not prepared)" the words "Uniforms, civil, naval, or military" shall be inserted.
- (i) Under the heading "Machinery" the following sub-head shall be added, namely, "Steam launches and motor boats used in conveyance of goods and passengers or towage of lighters."
- (j) Between the words "Memorial tablets of whatever description" and "All unwrought metals" the words "Motor trailers" shall be inserted.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council.

No. 4 of 1906.

An Ordinance to prevent the overcrowding of Vessels carrying Passengers from Ceylon to any port or place in British India.

HENRY A. BLAKE.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is necessary to prevent the overcrowding of vessels carrying passengers from Ceylon to British India: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Passenger Ships Ordinance, 1906," and shall come into force at such date as the Governor by Proclamation in the Government Gazette shall appoint.

Repeal.

2 Ordinance No. 1 of 1860, intituled "An Ordinance to prevent overcrowding of Vessels carrying Passengers from Ceylon to any port or place in British India," is hereby repealed.

Application of Ordinance.

3 (1) Subject to the exceptions mentioned in sub-section (2), this Ordinance applies to ships carrying as passengers more than fifteen natives of Asia or Africa.

(2) But it does not apply—

(a) To any ship of war, troopship, transport, or other ship belonging to the Royal Navy or His Majesty's Indian Marine Service.

(b) To any other ship for the time being in the service of His Majesty.

(c) To any ship of war belonging to any foreign Prince or State.

(d) To any steamship not carrying as passengers more than sixty natives of Asia or Africa.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in sub-sections (1) and (2), the Governor may, with the advice of the Executive Council, declare all or any of the provisions of this Act to apply to sailing ships or any class of sailing ships carrying as passengers more than five natives of Asia or Africa, and to steamships or any class of steamships carrying as passengers more than thirty such natives.

Number of passengers to be carried in unlicensed vessels.

4 No vessel shall carry passengers from any port or place in Ceylon to any port or place in British India in a proportion greater than one passenger to every five tons of the burden of such vessel without a license.

Number of passengers to be carried in licensed vessels.

5 No vessel shall be licensed to carry passengers on any such voyage as aforesaid in a proportion greater than one passenger to every two tons of burden, nor unless the vessel has space on a deck or platform, under hatches, reserved for the accommodation of the passengers, in the proportion of six superficial feet for every passenger, with not less than five feet clear between the upper deck and the lower deck or platform; except a vessel proceeding in ballast, which may be licensed to carry a number of passengers not exceeding the proportion of one and a half to every ton of her burden, provided that the whole of the space usually allotted for cargo, and not occupied by ballast, be kept for the accommodation of the passengers and for storing the provisions and water for their use; and that the space left clear for the accommodation of the passengers on the deck or decks of the vessel be not less than four superficial feet for each passenger.

Penalty on master of unlicensed vessel.

6 The master or tindal of any vessel which shall carry passengers on any such voyage as aforesaid without a license, in a proportion exceeding that laid down in the 4th section of this Ordinance, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees for each passenger in excess of such proportion.

Penalty on master of licensed vessel.

7 The master or tindal of any licensed vessel which shall carry on any such voyage a greater number of passengers than is specified in the license, or in which the accommodation therein required shall not be afforded, or who shall knowingly receive or allow to come on board such vessel a greater number of passengers than is specified in the license, intending to proceed to sea with such passengers on any such voyage, shall be liable for any such offence to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees for each passenger in excess of such number, or for each passenger who is not provided with accommodation agreeably to the license.

Government to appoint ports for shipment of passengers when the number of passengers to be carried is greater than one to every five tons of burden.

8 Passengers in a greater number than one passenger to every five tons of the burden of any vessel shall not be shipped from Ceylon for any port or place in British India, except from such ports as shall be from time to time appointed by the Governor by an order published in the Government Gazette; and the master or tindal of any vessel who shall take on board passengers for such voyage from any other port or place in a greater proportion to the burden of the vessel than is above-mentioned shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees for each passenger embarked.

Grant of license to vessels

9 It shall be at the discretion of the collectors of customs for the ports appointed for shipping passengers, or such other persons as the Governor may from time to time appoint for the purpose, to grant licenses to vessels under this Ordinance. The license shall describe the vessel, her tonnage and rig, the number of her boats, anchors, and cables; also the name of the owner and of the master or tindal and the number of the crew; and shall specify the number of passengers she may carry and the space to be assigned for their accommodation. Provided if any doubts shall arise whether any vessel about to proceed with passengers as aforesaid is seaworthy so as to be fit for her intended voyage, and such doubts shall not be removed to the satisfaction of the collector of customs at the port from which such vessel is to be cleared out, it shall be lawful for such collector to cause such vessel to be surveyed by such person as shall be appointed by the Governor for that purpose, and if it shall be reported by such person that such vessel is not seaworthy with reference to such voyage, such vessel shall not be cleared out until such vessel shall have been rendered seaworthy.

Supply of provisions on board passenger vessels plying to and from Ceylon,
&c.

10 The master or tindal of any vessel licensed to carry passengers from any port in Ceylon to any port or place in British India, who shall proceed on any such voyage without having laid in a supply of water and provisions for the passengers, according to a scale fixed under section 17 (a) of this Ordinance, and which shall be hung up at the custom house of the port, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

List of passengers to be signed by master.

11 The master or tindal of any vessel licensed to carry passengers as hereinbefore provided shall sign and deliver in duplicate, to the principal officer of customs at the place of embarkation, or such other person as the Governor may from time to time appoint for the purpose, a list, according to the form annexed to this Ordinance, of all passengers to be conveyed in such vessel, and such officer, after satisfying himself of the correctness of the same, and that the number of passengers authorized is not exceeded, shall countersign and return one such list to the master or tindal, to be produced to the proper officer at the port to which the vessel is bound; and should any additional passengers engage to proceed by such vessel after such list has been so countersigned, the master or tindal may insert their number in the original list, obtaining the signature of the controlling

officer as before. The officer in charge of the customs may withhold the port clearance till this provision is complied with.

Penalty for impeding entry or inspection.

12 The principal officer in charge of the customs at the port of embarkation, or any person authorized by him, shall be at liberty, at all times, to enter and inspect any passenger vessel, and the fittings, provisions, and stores therein, and to muster the passengers and crew, and whoever impedes such entry, inspection, or muster, or refuses to allow the same, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Penalty on landing passenger at a place other than at which he has contracted to land.

13 If any passenger in any vessel shall be landed at any port or place other than the port or place at which he may have contracted to land, unless with his previous consent, or unless such landing is made necessary by perils of the sea or other unavoidable accident, the master shall, for each offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred rupees.

Passenger's right of action preserved.

14 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall take away or abridge any right of action which may accrue to any passenger, or to any other person, in respect of the breach or non-performance of any contract made with the master or owner of the vessel or his agent.

Adjudication of offences and recovery of penalties.

15 Any offence against this Ordinance, though the same may be beyond the jurisdiction of a police court by reason of the amount of punishment to which the offender is liable, shall and may nevertheless be inquired into, tried, and punished by the police court of the district in which the offence was committed, wholly or in part, or where the offender is found. And any fine imposed on the master or tindal of any vessel for a breach of this Ordinance may be recovered from the owner of such vessel or from his agent. And if the person directed to pay any penalty is the master or tindal of a vessel, and the same is not paid at the time and in the manner prescribed by the order of payment, the court ordering such payment may, in addition to the means prescribed by law for enforcing payment, direct, by warrant, the amount remaining unpaid to be levied by distress and sale of the said vessel, her tackle, furniture, and apparel.

Sum ordered to be paid leviable by distress on vessel.

Application of penalties.

16 Any police magistrate imposing any penalties under this Ordinance may, if he thinks fit, direct the whole or any part thereof to be applied in compensating any person for any wrong or damage which he may have sustained by the act or default in respect of which such penalty is imposed, or in or towards payment of the expenses of the proceedings.

Rules.

17 (1) The Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, may make rules consistent with this Ordinance to regulate in the case of any ship or class of ships all or any of the following matters :

- (a) The scale on which food, fuel, and water are to be supplied to the passengers or to any class or classes of passengers, and the quality of the food, fuel, and water.
- (b) The medical stores and other appliances and fittings to be provided on board for maintaining health, cleanliness, and decency.
- (c) The boats, anchors, and cables to be provided on board.
- (d) The apparatus for the purpose of extinguishing fires on board and the precautions to be taken to prevent such fires.
- (e) The provision of appliances for saving life and of means for making signals of distress, and the supply of lights inextinguishable in water and fitted for attachment to life buoys.
- (f) The access of between-decks passengers to the upper deck.

(2) In making a rule under this section the Governor in Executive Council may direct that a breach of it shall be punishable with fine, which may extend to two hundred rupees, and when the breach is a continuing breach with a further fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every day after the first during which the breach continues.

(3) All rules made under this Ordinance shall be published in the Government Gazette, and shall thereupon be as binding, effectual, and valid as if enacted therein, and all courts and magistrates shall take judicial notice thereof.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council.

No. 8 of 1906.

An Ordinance to confirm an Agreement for a Lease of Pearl Fisheries on the Coast of Ceylon and to authorize the Crown Agents for the Colonies to execute such Lease on behalf of the Government of Ceylon.

HENRY A. BLAKE.

WHEREAS by an Agreement (hereinafter called "the Preliminary Agreement") dated the 30th day of November, 1905, and made in England between the Crown Agents for the Colonies (who and the Crown Agents for the Colonies for the time being are hereinafter referred to as "the Crown Agents") acting on behalf of the Government of Ceylon (hereinafter called "the Government") of the one part and The Gulf Syndicate Limited (hereinafter called "the Syndicate") of the other part It was provided that the Preliminary Agreement should be conditional on the same being confirmed and on the execution of the Lease thereafter and hereinafter mentioned being authorized by a Special Ordinance to be passed by the Governor and Legislative Council of Ceylon within six calendar months from the date of the Preliminary Agreement, and that such Special Ordinance should be in the terms set forth in the Second Schedule to the Preliminary Agreement with such modifications (if any) as might be agreed upon between the parties to the Preliminary Agreement:

And whereas it was further provided by the Preliminary Agreement that if the Syndicate should within nine calendar months from the date thereof procure (a) a Company (hereinafter called "the Company") to be formed and registered under the Companies' Acts 1862 to 1900 under the name of The Ceylon Company of Pearl Fishers, Limited, with a nominal capital of £165,000 and with the object (amongst others) of accepting the Lease and working the Pearl Fisheries therein-after and hereinafter mentioned, and (b) that the whole of the share capital of the Company should be subscribed and payable in cash to the satisfaction of the Crown Agents, and (c) that the Company should have duly performed all the obligations which under any of the provisions thereafter contained ought to have been performed by it down to the date of the said Lease, or which under the said Lease were to be performed by it on the execution thereof, and that if the Syndicate should have duly performed all the obligations thereafter imposed on it then the Crown Agents would execute in favour of the Company a Lease in the terms of the draft Lease set forth in the First Schedule to the Preliminary Agreement with such modifications (if any) as might be agreed upon between the said parties thereto :

And whereas the draft set forth in the First Schedule to the Preliminary Agreement is a draft Lease by the Crown Agents on behalf of the Government to the Company for the term of 20 years from the date of such Lease of firstly all that right or privilege which the Government had theretofore exercised and enjoyed of fishing for and taking pearl oysters on the coasts of Ceylon between Talaimannar and Dutch Bay Point, to the intent that the Company so far as the Government could secure the same might have the exclusive right, liberty, and authority to fish for, take, and carry away pearl oysters within the said limits ; and secondly of the plot or plots of land to be ascertained as therein mentioned, subject to the payment by the Company to the Government of the yearly rent of Rs. 310,000 and to the performance by the Company of the conditions and agreements therein contained :

And whereas it is expedient that the Preliminary Agreement should be confirmed in manner hereinafter mentioned and that the Crown Agents should be authorised to execute the said Lease on behalf of the Government in the manner hereinafter appearing :

And whereas this Ordinance is in the form set forth in the Second Schedule to the Preliminary Agreement with such modifications as have been agreed upon between the parties thereto :

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Agreement.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as "The Pearl Fisheries Lease Ordinance 1906."

Confirmation of Preliminary Agreement.

2. The Preliminary Agreement shall be and the same is hereby confirmed and made binding on the Government and the Syndicate, and the Government and the Syndicate are hereby authorised to carry the Preliminary Agreement into effect.

Authority to Crown Agents to execute the Lease on behalf of the Government.

3. When and so soon as the Syndicate and the Company shall in the opinion of the Crown Agents have respectively performed all the obligations which under the Preliminary Agreement ought to be performed by them respectively in order to entitle the Syndicate to require the said Lease to be granted under the Preliminary Agreement, the Crown Agents are hereby authorised on behalf of the Government to execute a Lease in favour of the Company in the terms of the draft Lease set forth in the First Schedule to the Preliminary Agreement with such modifications (if any) as have been or may be agreed upon between the Crown Agents and the Company. The said Lease when executed by the Crown Agents shall be binding on His Majesty the King and his successors and on the Government in the same manner as if the Governor had been hereby authorised to execute the said Lease and had executed the same on behalf of His Majesty the King and his successors. The Government or the Governor or the Crown Agents on behalf of the Government are hereby authorised to carry the said Lease into effect and to execute any subsidiary agreement which may from time to time be necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving effect to any of the provisions of the said Lease.

The execution of the Lease by Crown Agents shall be conclusive evidence that it has been duly granted.

The Lease not to be exempted from registration.

4. The execution of the said Lease by the Crown Agents shall for all purposes be conclusive evidence that the said Lease has been duly granted.

5. Nothing herein contained shall exempt the said Lease from registration under or in pursuance of any Ordinance for the time being in force in Ceylon with respect to the registration of deeds affecting land.

Passed in Council the Twenty-seventh day of February, One thousand Nine hundred and Six.

A. G. CLAYTON,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the First day of March, One thousand Nine hundred and Six.
