DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Electricity Ordinance, 1906."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Electricity Ordinance, 1906," hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as "The Electricity (Amendment) Ordinance, 1907," and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance.

Amendment of section 5 of Ordinance
No. 26 of 1906.

2 After sub-section (2) of section 5 of the principal Ordinance the following sub-section shall be added, namely :

(3) The Governor may by general or special order, and subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be specified therein, exempt any person or class of persons using energy on premises or vessels upon or in connection with which it is generated from the application of this section or from any such rule as aforesaid.

By His Excellency's command,

G. M. FOWLER,
Acting Colonial Secretary.
Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, July 19, 1907.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of the Draft Ordinance is to avoid the inconvenience which, it is anticipated, may arise from the application to vessels in harbour of the requirements of the principal Ordinance with regard to licenses to supply electric energy.

2. With this purpose power is taken to exempt any person or class of persons using energy on vessels or premises upon or in connection with which it is generated from the application of section 5 of the principal Ordinance, or of any rules made under section 7 of that Ordinance.

Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Village Communities' Ordinance, 1889," in certain particulars.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend in certain particulars "The Village Communities' Ordinance, 1889" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance") : Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Village Communities' (Amendment) Ordinance, 1907," and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance.

Insertion of section 28 A.

2 After section 28 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be inserted and numbered 28 A :

Power to exclude jurisdiction of Village Tribunals in certain cases.

28 A Where any act or omission which constitutes a breach of any rule made under section 6 is also an offence under any other Ordinance, the Attorney-General or the Government Agent of the province or the Assistant Government Agent of the district may direct such offence to be tried by the Police Court having local jurisdiction, and may, if necessary, stay the further trial of such offence by a Village Tribunal.

By His Excellency's command,

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.
Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, June 28, 1907.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE difficulty which the Draft Ordinance is designed to remove arises with regard to criminal offences which are punishable under village rules as well as under the general law of the Colony. In such cases the principle that the jurisdiction of Village Tribunals is exclusive has led to withdrawal from the Police Courts of cases which would more properly and conveniently be tried by the latter tribunals.

2. The Draft Ordinance deals with this difficulty by empowering the Attorney-General, or the Government Agent or Assistant Government Agent, to direct any case in which the accused are charged with a breach of a rule made under section 6 of "The Village Communities' Ordinance, 1889," which is also an offence under any other Ordinance, to be tried by the Police Court having local jurisdiction.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, July 2, 1907.

ALFRED G. LASCELLES,
Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend in certain particulars the Ordinances relating to the General Regulation of Customs.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to further amend in certain particulars the Ordinances relating to the general regulation of Customs: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Customs Duties Amendment Ordinance, 1907," and this Ordinance and "The Customs Duties Ordinances, 1869 to 1906," shall be read and construed as one Ordinance, and may be cited together as "The Customs Duties Ordinances, 1869 to 1907."

Substitution of a new section for section 11 of Ordinance No. 17 of 1869, as amended by section 2 of Ordinance No. 2 of 1903 and section 2 of Ordinance No. 9 of 1904.

2 For section 11 of "The Customs Duties Ordinance, 1869," as amended by "The Customs Duties Amendment Ordinance, 1903," and "The Customs Duties Amendment Ordinance, 1904," the following section shall be substituted, namely:

Duties to be levied and power of Legislative Council to modify duties.

11 The several duties of customs, as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in figures in the table of duties (Schedule B) hereto annexed, shall be levied and paid upon all goods, wares, and merchandise imported into this Island: Provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, from time to time to alter and amend the official rated valuation on which the duty is assessed on cotton piece goods and yarns by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, not less than three months before such alteration shall come into force; such Proclamation shall have the same effect in law as if it formed part of this Ordinance. Provided further—

- (a) The Legislative Council may from time to time by means of resolution duly passed at any public session of the Council and sanctioned by the Governor increase, reduce, abolish, or otherwise alter the customs duty leviable on any goods imported into or exported from the Island or into or from any specified port therein, or may impose customs duty upon any goods so imported or exported whereon customs duty, at the time when such resolution is passed, is not leviable.
- (b) No such resolution shall take effect until such resolution shall have been submitted to and sanctioned by the Secretary of State, and such sanction shall have been notified in the Government Gazette.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, June 28, 1907.

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

ORDINANCE No. 2 of 1903, amending section 11 of Ordinance No. 17 of 1869 (General Regulation of Customs), empowered the Governor in Executive Council to exempt any goods from the whole or any part of the Customs duty leviable on import or export. It was subsequently provided by Ordinance No. 9 of 1904 that the exercise of this power should be subject to the sanction of the Secretary of State.

2. The object of the present Ordinance is to abolish altogether the power of the Governor in Council to exempt goods from duty, the power being one which it is considered, on constitutional grounds, should properly be exercised by the Legislature. With this object section 11 of Ordinance No. 17 of 1869 (as amended by the Ordinances of 1903 and 1904) is re-enacted, omitting the clause conferring the special power of exemption on the Governor.

The Draft Ordinance, it should be noticed, does not interfere with the power of the Legislative Council to increase, reduce, or abolish Customs duty by means of resolution, subject to the approval of the Secretary of State.
