DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to incorporate the American Ceylon Mission.

Preamble

WHEREAS it is expedient that the American Ceylon Mission should be incorporated for the purpose of effectually transacting the affairs of the said Mission, and of controlling, managing, and dealing with the property and funds thereof: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The American Ceylon Mission Incorporation Ordinance, 190"."

Incorporation of officers of Mission.

2 (1) Miss Susan Reed Howland, President, (2) The Reverend James Henry Dickson, Treasurer, and (3) The Reverend Thomas Becket Scot, Secretary, and their successors duly appointed according to the rules and regulations made by the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions under the Act of Incorporation of the said Board of the year 1812 and the acts amending the same in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, in the United States of America, are hereby associated together and shall for ever hereafter be and be called a body corporate in deed and in law by the name and style of "The American Ceylon Mission," and by that name shall have perpetual succession and full power to acquire, purchase, take, hold, and enjoy movable and immovable property of every description and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same, and by that name the corporation hereby constituted may sue and be sued in all courts of justice.

Vesting of property of Mission.

3 All property, both movable and immovable, already acquired, held, or possessed by the American Ceylon Mission or by any person as Treasurer of the said Mission shall vest in the American Ceylon Mission as hereby incorporated.

Vesting of leases, rights, &c.

4 All leases and all rights and claims held, granted, or acquired by the American Ceylon Mission or by any person for Mission purposes shall vest in the American Ceylon Mission as hereby incorporated.

Pending legal proceedings to which Treasurer is party. 5 Where any action or proceeding is pending at any time in any court in the Island when this Ordinance comes into force in which any person acting as Treasurer of the Mission is a plaintiff, petitioner, defendant, or respondent or intervenient, such action may be continued by or against the American Ceylon Mission.

Official seal.

6 The American Ceylon Mission as hereby incorporated shall have an official seal which shall be officially and judicially noticed, and that seal shall be authenticated by the signature of the Treasurer or by some person temporarily acting as Treasurer of the Mission.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, Colombo, August 7, 1907. G. M. FOWLER, Acting Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

THE object of the Ordinance is to incorporate the American Ceylon Mission so as to place the society in a better legal position as regards the management of their property.

- 2. The President, Treasurer, and Secretary of the Mission appointed under the statutory rules of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions are created a body corporate with perpetual succession.
- 3. The Ordinance contains the provisions with regard to vesting of property, appearance in legal proceedings, and the use of an official seal which are usual in such enactments.

Colombo, July 12, 1907.

ALFRED G. LASCELLES, Attorney-General.
