Section 6 prohibits the landing of criminal immigrants.

Sections 5, 7, and 8 provide for penalties for the landing of destitute or criminal immigrants contrary to the provisions of sections 4 and 6 respectively.

Section 10 casts upon the master of the vessel the costs and charges connected with the unlawful landing of such immigrants.

Section 9 requires the master of such vessel to answer questions.

Section 11 provides for a scale of such costs being fixed.

Section 12 requires the provisions of the enactment to be strictly carried out before a master is rendered liable under section 10.
