DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to restrict the introduction into Ceylon of Destitute Persons likely to become a Public Charge and of Vicious and Criminal Persons.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to restrict the introduction into Ceylon of destitute persons likely to become a public charge and of vicious and criminal persons: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Destitute and Criminal Immigrants Regulation Ordinance, 1906."

Interpretation of terms.

2 In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—

"Visiting officer" means any officer of Police or Customs, and includes any officer expressly appointed by the Governor to execute the provisions of this Ordinance.

“Destitute immigrant” means any person, not being a native of Ceylon or not being a native of British India proceeding to Ceylon for the purpose of being employed there as a labourer or kangany, and to whom notice that he is a destitute immigrant is given in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

“Costs and charges” means any money expended out of the public funds of the island for the relief, maintenance, care, or treatment of any destitute immigrant or vicious or criminal immigrant, and the expenses, computed according to a scale prescribed by the Governor, of such relief, maintenance, care, and treatment in any hospital, almshouse, or other institution maintained out of public funds for the relief of sick or destitute persons, or in any hospital, almshouse, or other institution maintained for the said purpose by any charitable institution to the support of which the Government contributes.

“Vessel” means any vessel of whatever kind used in navigating the sea.

“Vicious or criminal immigrant” means any person or class of persons designated by any Proclamation made under section 6 to be vicious or criminal within the meaning of such Proclamation.

Destitute Immigrants.

Giving of notice to destitute person arriving in vessel.

3 (1) If, on the arrival at any port or place in Ceylon of any vessel there is on board any person not being a native of British India proceeding to Ceylon for the purpose of being employed there as a labourer or kangany, who, in the opinion of any visiting officer visiting such vessel is unable, by reason of physical or mental infirmity, to maintain himself by his own labour, or is destitute, and in either case is likely, if permitted to land, to become chargeable to the colony, such visiting officer shall give notice that such person is a destitute immigrant.

(2) Such notice may be given either verbally or in writing to the master or any of the crew of the vessel, or by writing nailed or affixed to any mast or other part of the vessel, but shall, where practicable, be given to the master.

Restriction on landing of destitute immigrants.

4 A destitute immigrant shall not, except by permission of the Governor, land in any part of the island, until some person resident in Ceylon and approved by the Colonial Treasurer as sufficient in that behalf, by letter of guarantee, undertaking to repay to the Colonial Treasurer any costs and charges not exceeding the sum of two hundred and fifty rupees, which, within one year from the date of the letter, may be incurred in respect of such destitute immigrant.

Penalty on person concerned in landing of destitute immigrant.

5 Every person who—

- (1) Being the master of a vessel, knowingly suffers any destitute immigrant who arrives in such vessel to land in Ceylon contrary to this Ordinance; or
- (2) Being a destitute immigrant, knowingly and wilfully lands or suffers himself to be landed in Ceylon contrary to this Ordinance; or
- (3) Knowingly lands or procures to be landed in Ceylon contrary to this Ordinance any destitute immigrant—shall be liable on conviction to a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Vicious or Criminal Immigrants.

Power to the Governor to prohibit landing of vicious or criminal immigrants.

6 (1) The Governor may, by Proclamation, whenever he deems it necessary, prohibit the landing in Ceylon of any vicious or criminal immigrants designated in such Proclamation, except upon such conditions as to their finding security for their good behaviour or as to their supervision by the police or otherwise, or for ensuring their re-transportation to the port or place from which they came with the least possible delay, as the Governor in Council may prescribe.

Penalty on master of vessel landing vicious or criminal immigrant.

7 Subject to the provisions of section 12, any master of a vessel who knowingly suffers any vicious or criminal immigrant who arrives in such vessel to land in Ceylon contrary to any such Proclamation of the Governor as aforesaid shall be liable on conviction to a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Penalty on person landing contrary to Proclamation relating to vicious or criminal immigrants.

8 Any vicious or criminal immigrant who knowingly and wilfully lands or suffers himself to be landed in Ceylon contrary to any such Proclamation of the Governor as aforesaid, and every person who knowingly lands or procures to be landed in Ceylon contrary to any such Proclamation any vicious or criminal immigrant, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees, and any such vicious or criminal immigrant may thereafter be dealt with under the provisions of section 6.

Miscellaneous Provisions.

Duty of master of vessel to answer questions of visiting officer.

9 The master of any vessel arriving in Ceylon shall answer all questions which a visiting officer may put to him for the purposes of this Ordinance; and any master who either refuses to answer any such question or gives an untrue answer thereto shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Liability of master, &c. Ship to repay costs and charges in respect of immigrants unlawfully landed.

10 (1) If any destitute immigrant or vicious or criminal immigrant lands in Ceylon contrary to this Ordinance, the master of the vessel, British or foreign, from which such immigrant is landed shall be liable to repay to the Government of Ceylon all costs and charges incurred by the Government in behalf of such immigrant during a period of six months from the date of his landing.

(2) In the absence of the master of a vessel, or if such master departs from the Colony before repaying such costs and charges, the owner, agent, and consignee of such vessel at the time when the immigrant landed shall be liable to pay such costs and charges to the Government.

(3) Such costs and charges shall be recoverable by action as if an express agreement had been entered into with the Colonial Secretary by the person, firm, company, association, body, master, owner, agent, or consignee chargeable.

(4) As regards costs and charges incurred on behalf of a destitute, vicious, or criminal immigrant, the following documents shall be prima facie evidence of the amount thereof, and also that they have been incurred by the Colony, namely:—

(a) As regards hospital charges, a written statement purporting to be signed by the Principal Civil Medical Officer; and

(b) As regards other costs and charges, including those of removal, a written statement thereof signed or purporting to be signed by the Colonial Secretary.

Scale of costs and charges.

11 (1) It shall be lawful for the the Governor from time to time to prescribe a scale for the computation of costs and charges under this Ordinance, and such scale to alter, vary, or revoke.

(2) The scale so prescribed, altered, varied, or revoked shall be published in the Government Gazette.

(3) A copy of the Government Gazette purporting to contain any such scale, alteration, variation, or revocation shall be prima facie evidence of the tenor and due making of such scale or of such alteration, variation, or revocation, as the case may be.

Restriction of liability of vessel and master in respect of landing of vicious or criminal immigrant.

12 In any proceeding against the master, owner, agent, or consignee of a vessel in respect of the landing in Ceylon, contrary to any such Proclamation of the Governor as aforesaid, of any vicious or criminal immigrant, such master, owner, agent, or consignee shall not be liable under the last preceding section to repay to the Government the costs and charges incurred by the Government on behalf of such immigrant, nor shall he be liable to the penalty prescribed by section 7, unless it is proved to the satisfaction of the court or of the police magistrate, as the case may be—

- (1) That notice was given either verbally or in writing, in the manner prescribed by section 3 in relation to destitute immigrants, that the person being on board of such vessel and in respect of whom the proceeding is taken was a vicious or criminal immigrant within the meaning of any such Proclamation of the Governor as aforesaid; or
- (2) That the master of such vessel, independently of any notice, had knowledge that the person by him permitted to be landed in Ceylon, and in respect of whom the proceeding is taken, was a vicious or criminal immigrant within the meaning of any such Proclamation of the Governor as aforesaid.

Trial of offences.

13 All offences against this Ordinance shall be cognizable by a police court; and such court shall have jurisdiction to inflict the full amount of fine to which the offender shall be liable, notwithstanding that such fine may exceed in amount the ordinary jurisdiction of such court.

By His Excellency's command,

H. WACE,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, April 9, 1906.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE objects of and reasons for this Ordinance are to prevent as far as possible destitute and criminal immigrants and destitute seamen taking passage to Colombo, being landed there without restriction, and eventually becoming a nuisance and burden to the public.

Similar enactments are in force in British Guiana, Hong Kong, and Mauritius.

Section 2 defines "destitute immigrant."

Section 3 provides for a visiting officer to visit any vessel calling at Ceylon to give notice to the master as to any person on board such vessel being a destitute immigrant.

Section 4 restricts the landing of destitute immigrants.

Section 6 prohibits the landing of criminal immigrants.

Sections 5, 7, and 8 provide for penalties for the landing of destitute or criminal immigrants contrary to the provisions of sections 4 and 6 respectively.

Section 10 casts upon the master of the vessel the costs and charges connected with the unlawful landing of such immigrants.

Section 9 requires the master of such vessel to answer questions.

Section 11 provides for a scale of such costs being fixed.

Section 12 requires the provisions of the enactment to be strictly carried out before a master is rendered liable under section 10.

Section 13 gives Police Courts jurisdiction to try offences under the Ordinance.

Colombo, March 20, 1906.

J. H. TEMPLER,
Acting Attorney-General.
