DRAFT ORDINANCE.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Licensing Ordinance, 1891."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Licensing Ordinance, 1891," in certain particulars: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Licensing (Amendment) Ordinance, 190 ." It shall be construed and read as one with "The Licensing Ordinance, 1901," hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance," and this Ordinance and the principal Ordinance may be cited together as "The Licensing Ordinances, 1891 and 190 ."

Additional section with regard to sale of spirituous liquor, containing less than 17 per cent. of proof spirit.

2 After section 33 of the principal Ordinance there shall be inserted the following section, which shall be numbered 33 A, namely :

33 A (1) It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, or to expose or keep for sale, whether by wholesale or retail, any rum, gin, brandy, whisky, arrack, or other spirituous liquor which registers a lower strength than 27 under proof by Syke's hydrometer, or which at a temperature of 60 degrees Fahrenheit contains less than 34.8 per cent. by weight or 41.6 per cent. by volume of pure alcohol.

(2) Any person who shall sell or expose or keep for sale any rum, gin, brandy, whisky, arrack, or other spirituous liquor which registers a lower strength than 27 under proof by Syke's hydrometer, or which at a temperature of 60 degrees Fahrenheit contains less than 34.8 per cent. by weight or 41.6 per cent. by volume of pure alcohol shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, and in default of payment to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding six months. Upon such conviction the spirituous liquor in respect of which the conviction was had shall be liable to be forfeited.

(3) (a) Any document purporting to be a certificate under the hand of the Government Analyst or of any person appointed by the Governor to be an analyst for the purposes of this Ordinance as to the proportion of pure alcohol contained in any sample of liquor may be used as evidence in any inquiry, trial, or other proceeding under this Ordinance.

(b) The court may presume that the signature of any such document is genuine, and that the person signing it held the office he professed to hold at the time he signed it.

(c) The court may, if it thinks fit, summon and examine the Government Analyst or appointed analyst as to the subject matter of his certificate.

Objects and Reasons.

This Ordinance supplies an omission in "The Licensing Ordinance, 1891," which contained no provision prohibiting the sale of spirituous liquors that had been largely adulterated with water or other liquids.

Section 2 constitutes a new section to be numbered 33 A to be added to Ordinance No. 12 of 1891. This section is divided into three sub-sections, the first two of which renders it unlawful and an offence to sell or keep for sale spirituous liquors under the minimum standard of proof.

Sub-section 3 makes the certificate of the Government Analyst receivable in evidence. It has been adapted from the similar provision in section 406 of the Criminal Procedure Code.
