Ordinance to be read with No. 16 of 1865.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Police Ordinance Amendment Ordinance, 1906," and shall be read and construed as one with "The Police Ordinance, 1865."

Interpretation.

2 The term "large work" shall, unless the context otherwise requires, include any railway, tramway, manufactory, any plumbago mining or other commercial business or concern in which a considerable number of artisans, operatives, workmen, coolies, or persons are employed.

Section 11 of
No. 16 of 1865
amended.

Power to employ additional police force.

3 For section 11 of "The Police Ordinance, 1865,"
the following section shall be substituted :

11. Whenever any large work shall be carried on or be in operation in any part of the country, and it shall appear to the Inspector-General of Police or any superintendent or assistant superintendent in charge of the police of any province in this island that the employment of an additional police force in the neighbourhood of such large work is rendered necessary by the behaviour or reasonable apprehension of the behaviour of persons employed upon such large work, it shall be lawful for the Inspector-General of Police or the superintendent or assistant superintendent in charge of the police of any province, with the advice and consent of the Governor and Executive Council, to direct the employment of such additional police force, and to maintain the same so long as the necessity shall continue, and to make orders from time to time upon the person having the control or custody of the funds of any company or person carrying on such large work for the payment of the extra force so rendered necessary as aforesaid.

By His Excellency's command.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, June 9, 1906.

H. L. CRAWFORD,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Objects and Reasons.

This Ordinance may be said to explain and remove doubts rather than to extend the provisions of section 11 of Ordinance No. 16 of 1865.

2. Section 2 defines "large work" and section 3 re-enacts section 11 of Ordinance No. 16 of 1865 substituting the term "large work" for the words "any railway or other large work or any manufactory or commercial concern."

The term "Inspector-General of Police" has been substituted for the term "Chief Superintendent," and the words "any Superintendent or Assistant Superintendent in charge of the Police of any Province" have been substituted for the words "any Provincial Inspector."
