In default of payment, shares to be forfeited.—If the requisition of such notice as aforesaid be not complied with, every or any share or shares in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before payment of calls or instalments, interest, and expenses due in respect thereof, be declared forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect.

Shareholder still liable to pay money owing at time of forfeiture.—Any Shareholder whose shares have been so declared forfeited shall, notwithstanding, be liable to pay, and shall forthwith pay to the Company all calls, instalments, interest, and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of the forfeiture, together with interest thereon from the time of forfeiture until payment at 9 per cent. per annum, and the Directors may enforce the payment thereof if they think fit.

45. Certificate of surrender or forfeiture.—A certificate in writing under the hands of two of the Directors and of the Secretary or Secretaries that a share has been duly surrendered or forfeited, stating the time when it was surrendered or forfeited, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons who would have been entitled to the share but for such surrender or forfeiture, and such certificate and the receipt of the Company for the price of such share shall constitute a good title to such share, and a certificate of proprietorship shall be delivered to any person who may purchase the same from the Company, and thereupon such purchaser shall be deemed the holder of such share, discharged from all calls due prior to such purchase; and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to such share be affected by any irregularity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture or sale.

Forfeiture may be remitted.—The Directors may in their discretion remit or annul the forfeiture of any share within six months from the date thereof upon the payment of all moneys due to the Company from the late holder or holders of such share or shares, and all expenses incurred in relation to such forfeiture, together with such further sum of money, by way of redemption money for the deficit, as they shall think fit, not being less than 9 per cent. on the amount of the sums wherein default in payment had been made, but no share bonâ fide sold or re-allotted, or otherwise disposed of under Article 43 hereof, shall be redeemable after sale or disposal.

46. Company's lien on shares.—The Company shall have a first charge or paramount lien upon all the shares of any holder or joint-holders for all moneys for the time being due to the Company by such holder, or by all or any of such joint-holders respectively, either in respect of such shares or of other shares held by such holder or joint-holders or otherwise, and whether due from any such holder individually or jointly with others, including all calls, resolutions for which shall have been passed by the Directors, although the times appointed for the payment thereof shall not have arrived; and where any share is held by more persons than one, the Company shall be entitled to the said charge or lien in respect of any money due to the Company from any of such persons; and the Directors may decline to register any transfer of shares subject to such charge or lien.

47. Lien how made available.—Such charge or lien may be made available by a sale of all or any of the shares subject to it, provided that no such sale shall be made except under a resolution of the Directors, and until notice in writing shall have been given to the indebted Shareholder or his executors or administrators, or the assignee or trustee in his bankruptcy, requiring him or them to pay the amount for the time being due to the Company, and default shall have been made for twenty-eight days from such notice in paying the sum thereby required to be paid. Should the Shareholder over whose share the lien exists be in England or elsewhere abroad, sixty days' notice shall be allowed him.

48. Proceeds how applied.—The nett proceeds of any such sale as aforesaid under the provisions of Articles 43 and 47 hereof shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of such debts, liabilities, or engagements, and the residue (if any) paid to such Shareholder or his representatives.

49. Certificate of sale.—A certificate in writing under the hands of two of the Directors and of the Secretary or Secretaries that the power of sale given by clause 47 has arisen, and is exercisable by the Company under these presents, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated.

50. Transfer on sale how executed.—Upon any such sale two of the Directors may execute a transfer of such share to the purchaser thereof, and such transfer, with the certificate last aforesaid, shall confer on the purchaser a complete title to such shares.

PREFERENCE SHARES.

51. Preference and deferred shares.—Any shares from time to time to be issued or created may from time to time be issued with any such right of preference, whether in respect of dividend or of payment of capital, or both, or any such other special privilege or advantage over any shares previously issued or then about to be issued (other than shares issued with a preference), or at such a premium, or with such deferred rights as compared with any shares previously issued or then about to be issued, or subject to any such conditions or provisions, and with any such right or without any right of voting, and generally on such terms as the Company may from time to time by special resolution determine.

52. Resolutions affecting a particular class of shares.—If at any time by the issue of preference shares or otherwise the capital is divided into shares of different classes, then the holders of any class of shares may, by an extraordinary resolution passed at a meeting of such holders, consent, on behalf of all the holders of shares of the class, to the issue or creation of any shares ranking equally therewith, or having any priority thereto, or to the abandonment of any preference or priority, or of any accrued dividend, or the reduction for any time or permanently of the dividends payable thereon, or to any scheme for the reduction of the Company's capital affecting the class of shares; and such resolution shall be binding upon all the holders of shares of the class, provided that this Article shall not be read as implying the necessity for such consent in any case in which but for this Article the object of the resolutions could have been effected without it.

53. Meeting affecting a particular class of shares.—Any meeting for the purpose of the last preceding clause shall be convened and conducted in all respects as nearly as possible in the same way as an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company, provided that no member, not being a Director, shall be entitled to notice thereof or to attend thereat, unless he be a holder of shares of the class intended to be affected by the resolution, and that no vote shall be given except in respect of a share of that class, and that at any such meeting a poll may be demanded in writing by any members personally present and entitled to vote at the meeting.

CALLS.

54. Directors may make calls.—The Directors may from time to time make such calls as they think fit upon the registered holders of shares in respect of moneys unpaid thereon, and not by the conditions of allotment made payable at fixed times; and each Shareholder shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the Directors, provided that two months' notice at least shall be given to the Shareholder of the time and place appointed for payment of each call.

Calls, time when made.—A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution authorizing the call was passed at a Board Meeting of the Directors.

Extension of time for payment of call.—The Directors shall have power in their absolute discretion to give time to any one or more Shareholder or Shareholders, exclusive of the others, for payment of any call or part thereof on such terms as the Directors may determine. But no Shareholder shall be entitled to any such extension except as a matter of grace or favour.

55. Interest on unpaid call.—If the sum payable in respect of any call or instalment is not paid on or before the day appointed for the payment thereof, the holder for the time being of the share in respect of which the call shall have been made, or the instalments shall have been due, shall pay interest for the same at the rate of 9 per centum per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment, but the Directors may, when they think fit, remit altogether or in part any sum becoming payable for interest under this clause.

56. Payments in anticipation of calls at interest.—The Directors may at their discretion receive from any Shareholder willing to advance the same, and upon such terms as they think fit, all or any part of the amount of his shares beyond the sum actually called up.

BORROWING POWERS.

57. Power to borrow.—The Directors shall have power to procure from time to time, in the usual course of business, such temporary advances on the produce in hand, or in the future to be obtained from the Company's estates, as they may find necessary or expedient for the purpose of defraying the expenses of working the Company's estates, or of erecting, maintaining, improving, or extending buildings, machinery, or plantations, or otherwise. Also from time to time at their discretion to borrow or raise from the Directors or other persons any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company, but so that the amount at any one time owing in respect of moneys so borrowed or raised shall not, without the sanction of a General Meeting, exceed the sum of One hundred thousand Rupees (Rs. 100,000). With the sanction of a General Meeting the Directors shall be entitled to borrow such further sum or sums and at such rate of interest as such meeting shall determine. The Directors may, for the purpose of securing the repayment of any such sum or sums of money so borrowed or raised, create and issue any bonds, mortgages, debentures, mortgage debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or obligations of the Company charged upon all or any part of the undertaking, revenue, property, and rights or assets of the Company (both present and future), including uncalled capital or unpaid calls, or give, accept, or endorse on behalf of the Company any promissory notes or bills of exchange. Any such securities may be issued either at par or at a premium or discount, and may from time to time be cancelled or discharged, varied, or exchanged as the Directors may think fit, and may contain any special privileges as to redemption, surrender, drawings, allotment of shares, or otherwise. Every debenture or other instrument issued by the Company for securing the payment of money may be so framed that the moneys thereby secured shall be assignable free from any equities between the Company and the person to whom the same may be issued. A declaration under the Company's seal contained in or endorsed upon any of the documents mentioned in this Article and subscribed by two or more of the Directors or by one Director and the Secretary or Secretaries, to the effect that the Directors have power to borrow the amount which such document may represent, shall be conclusive evidence thereof in all questions between the Company and its creditors, and no such document containing such declaration shall, as regards the creditor, be void on the ground of its being granted in excess of the aforesaid borrowing power, unless it shall be proved that such creditor was aware that it was so granted.

65. Business requiring and not requiring notification.—Every Ordinary General Meeting shall be competent, without special notice having been given of the purposes for which it is convened, or of the business to be transacted thereat, to receive and discuss any report and any accounts presented thereto by the Directors, and to pass resolutions in approval or disapproval thereof, and to declare dividends, and to elect Directors and Auditors retiring in rotation, and to fix the remuneration of the Auditors; and shall also be competent to enter upon, discuss, and transact any business whatever of which special mention shall have been given in the notice or notices upon which the meeting was convened.

93. Duration of office of Director appointed to vacancy.—Any casual vacancy occurring in the number of Directors subsequent to the First Ordinary General Meeting may be filled up by the Directors, but any person so chosen shall retain his office so long only as the vacating Director would have retained the same if no vacancy had occurred.

A declaration under the Company's seal contained in or endorsed upon any of the documents mentioned in this Article and subscribed by two or more of the Directors or by one Director and the Secretary or Secretaries, to the effect that the Directors have power to borrow the amount which such document may represent, shall be conclusive evidence thereof in all questions between the Company and its creditors, and no such document containing such declaration shall, as regards the creditor, be void on the ground of its being granted in excess of the aforesaid borrowing power, unless it shall be proved that such creditor was aware that it was so granted.

It is agreed as follows :—

With the exceptions of sections Nos. 6, 32, 41, 49, and 50, and except so far as those Regulations are inconsistent with, or modified by these presents, the Regulations in Schedule C of the Ordinance No. 4 of 1861 shall, so far as the same are applicable, form part of the Articles of Association of the Company.

The Directors shall have power to pay and allow out of the funds of the Company all costs, charges, and expenses, preliminary to and absolutely necessary for the establishment of the Company.

The shares may be offered to the public either together, or from time to time, in all limited numbers, and may be allotted and issued upon such terms and conditions as the Company shall from time to time in accordance with these Articles determine.

The transfer of any share or shares made by a Shareholder shall not be registered, if in the interests of the Company the Directors deem it expedient not to do so ; but, if the transfer be approved, such approval shall be certified in writing under the hand of the Directors, endorsed on such instrument of transfer, and the Company shall thereupon register the transferee as a Shareholder.

Each share held by a single Shareholder shall entitle him to one vote at all the public meetings of the Company, and no person holding less than two shares shall be eligible to the office of Director.

There shall not be more than seven and less than five Directors, and three shall form a quorum.

The provisional Directors shall be seven of the subscribers for not less than one share each, whose names are attached to the Memorandum of Association, and they shall continue in office, except in case of death, absence from the district, or disqualification, until the first General Meeting of the Company, when they may be re-elected by the meeting, or others appointed in their stead.

The Directors shall appoint a Chairman, who will be entitled to a casting vote in all cases of an equality of votes upon any question under discussion.

The Directors shall have power to do the following things in the name and on behalf of the Company.

To appoint or remove from time to time actors, actresses, artists, composers, musical directors, stage managers, business managers, secretaries, and other working members, and bankers to the Company as they may deem expedient, and to appoint an attorney or attorneys under seal of the Company to act specially when necessary on behalf of the Company, and to appoint one of their number as Managing Director. Provided that the whole amount of money due in respect of loans at any one time does not exceed half of the nominal capital of the Company, unless by consent of the Company, given at a General Meeting of the Shareholders after due notice of an intended resolution to increase the amount of loans specifying the amount proposed to be borrowed and the amount of existing loans and debts. Provided further that the Directors shall not have the power to purchase shares of the Company on behalf of the Company with its funds.

The capital of the Company shall not be increased without sanction of the Shareholders given by a special resolution at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company held for the purpose, of which notice shall have been previously given.

A declaration in writing under the hand of two of the Directors that the call in respect of a share or shares was made, and due notice thereof was given to the shareholder, and that default in payment of the call was made, and that forfeiture of the shares was declared by a resolution of Directors to that effect, shall be sufficient evidence of the facts stated as against all the Shareholders in default and all persons claiming title to such forfeited shares. Such declaration and receipt of the Company for the price of such share when sold shall constitute a good title to any subsequent purchaser or purchasers of such shares. A certificate of proprietorship shall thereupon be delivered to the purchaser, and he shall be deemed the holder of such share subject to all the Regulations contained in these presents. Forfeited shares may be redeemed by the party whose shares have been declared forfeited at any time before they are disposed of, on payment of the amount of calls due, interests and all costs incurred, and on payment thereof such shares shall re-vest in the person entitled thereto before the forfeiture.

Provided, however, he may be paid a monthly salary or remuneration for any special services he may render to the Company.

But the above rules shall be subjected to the following exceptions:—

That no Director shall vacate his office by reason of his being a Shareholder in any incorporated Company which has entered into contracts with, or done any work for the Company of which he is Director, or by reason of his supplying the Company with any requisites for their business, provided the purchase be approved of by a majority of the other Directors; nevertheless he shall not vote in respect of such work or contract, and if he does so vote, his vote shall not be counted. And it is further provided that the Director of the Company may be a vendor or lessor of land, buildings, and other properties necessary for the carrying on of the business of the Company with the consent only of all the other Directors forming a Board, he himself having no vote in such matter as aforesaid and in which he is interested.

The Directors shall meet once in every month or more frequently if necessary. At the monthly meeting of the Directors it will be imperative that a statement of receipts and expenditure up to that date should be left at the Company's office for the information of the Shareholders. A General Meeting of the Shareholders of the Company shall be held as soon after the 31st day of December in each year as the books of the Company shall have been closed, of which meeting not less than seven days' public notice shall be given.

The Directors shall, seven days prior to these meetings, give or send to, or to the registered address of every resident Shareholder or notified attorney of an absentee Shareholder, and shall also submit to this meeting a correct statement of the affairs of the Company, their earnings and expenses during the past year, their assets and liabilities on the said 31st day of December, and shall also submit for consideration of the meeting any information and suggestions likely to forward the public convenience and the interests of the Company.

Besides the Annual General Meeting to be held as aforesaid, General Meetings shall be held quarterly, of which notice shall be sent to each Shareholder fourteen days prior to the date of the meeting at which a Quarterly Report of the status of the Company shall be read by the Secretary, and Shareholders shall be allowed to make suggestions for the material improvement of the Company. No business shall be transacted at any meeting except a declaration of a dividend, unless ten Shareholders be present, who shall form a quorum at the commencement of such business.

It shall be imperative on every Shareholder resident abroad to have an agent or attorney resident in Ceylon, lawfully authorized and notified to the Company as being authorized to receive on behalf of the said Shareholder all notices which the said Shareholder may be entitled to receive under these Articles or otherwise. And the Company shall not be bound to give notice to any Shareholder resident abroad otherwise than by giving the same to the agent or attorney so authorized and notified.

Any Shareholder who shall not have a resident agent or attorney so authorized and notified shall not be entitled to notice, and may be dealt with as having had notice, and as having agreed to dispense with such notice. Anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Every person who by operation of law, by transfer, or other means shall become entitled to any share shall be bound by any and every notice or other document which, previous to his name and address being entered on the register in respect of his share, shall have been given to the person from whom he derives his title.

When any notice or document is delivered or sent in accordance with these presents to the registered place of abode of a Shareholder, then, notwithstanding his then being deceased, and whether or not the Company have notice of his decease, such service of the notice or other document shall, for all purposes of these presents, be deemed service thereof on his heirs, executors, and administrators.
