SUBSTITUTES FOR SET BOOKS AND SUBJECTS.

The pupils at any School may, on application from the authorities of the School, be allowed to substitute for the Set Book or Books in any subject in the Local Examinations another Book or Books, or for the Syllabus in Geography or in Experimental Science a different Syllabus, provided that the consent of the Syndicate is obtained. Such consent will not be given unless the alternative proposed in lieu of that prescribed is in the opinion of the Syndicate suitable and of equivalent length and difficulty. Any application made in accordance with this announcement must reach the General Secretary not later than November 1 for the ensuing July Examination, and not later than April 1 for the ensuing December Examination. A fee, to cover the extra expense involved, will be payable by the School authorities for each special paper that has to be prepared.

EXAMINATION IN SPOKEN FRENCH AND SPOKEN GERMAN (JUNIORS AND SENIORS).

The Syndicate will arrange for the examination of Junior and Senior candidates in Spoken French and Spoken German at Schools at which the authorities are prepared to pay a fee of half-a-crown for each candiadate examined in each language (the minimum payable by any School being £1 for each language), together with the travelling expenses and the hotel expenses (if any) of the Examiner or Examiners.

Applications must reach the General Secretary not later than May 10 or October 3, and the examination will be held at some time, before the commencement of the Local Examinations, to be fixed by the Syndicate.

Candidates entering for the Spoken Examination in either language must also enter for the Written Examination in the same language, and if they pass therein and also in the Spoken Examination, the fact of their having satisfied the Examiners in the Spoken Examination will be endorsed on their Certificate.

The spoken Examination will not be necessary for passing in the language or for the mark of distinction ; it will, however, be taken into account in determining the position of candidates in the general Class-list, and it will be counted towards the mark of distinction in cases where the mark of distinction would not be obtained without it.

Candidates will be required (1) to read aloud a passage of French, or German ; (2) to write a passage of French, or German, from dictation ; (3) to hold a short conversation in French, or German, with the Examiner.

GEOMETRY FOR JUNIORS.

The paper will consist of two Parts, each containing questions on Practical and on Theoretical Geometry. Candidates can pass in Geometry by doing sufficiently well in Part I. ; they will be expected to take questions both in Practical and in Theoretical Geometry.

Every Candidate must be provided with a ruler graduated in inches and tenths of an inch, and in centimetres and millimetres, a small set square, a protractor, compasses furnished with a hard pencil point, and a hard pencil.

Questions may be set in which the use of the set square or of the protractor is forbidden.

Figures should be drawn accurately with a hard pencil.

Any proof of a Proposition will be accepted which appears to the Examiners to form part of a logical order of treatment of the subject. In the proof of theorems and deductions from them, the use of hypothetical constructions is permitted.

In dealing with proportion it may be assumed that all magnitudes of the same kind can be treated as commensurable.

GEOMETRY FOR SENIORS.

The paper in Geometry will contain questions on Practical and on Theoretical Geometry. Every Candidate will be expected to answer questions in both branches of the subject.

The questions on Practical Geometry will be set on the constructions contained in the annexed Schedule A. together with easy extensions of them. In cases where the validity of a construction is not obvious, the reasoning by which it is justified may be required. Every Candidate must provide himself with a ruler graduated in inches and tenths of an inch, and in centimetres and millimetres, a set square, a protractor, compasses, and a hard pencil. All figures should be drawn accurately. Questions may be set in which the use of the set square or of the protractor is forbidden.

The questions on Theoretical Geometry will consist of theorems contained in the annexed Schedule B, together with questions upon these theorems, easy deductions from them, and arithmetical illustrations. Any proof of a proposition will be accepted which appears to the examiners to form part of a systematic treatment of the subject ; the order in which the theorems are stated in Schedule B is not imposed as a sequence of their treatment.

In the proof of theorems and deductions from them, the use of hypothetical constructions will be permitted. Proofs which are only applicable to commensurable magnitudes will be accepted.

SCHEDULE A.

Bisection of angles and of straight lines.
Construction of perpendiculars to straight lines.
Construction of an angle equal to a given angle.
Construction of parallels to a given straight line.
Simple cases of the construction from sufficient data of triangles and quadrilaterals.
Division of straight lines into a given number of equal parts or into parts in any given proportions.
Construction of a triangle equal in area to a given polygon.
Construction of tangents to a circle and of common tangents to two circles.
Simple cases of the construction of circles from sufficient data.
Construction of a fourth proportional to three given straight lines and a mean proportional to two given straight lines.
Construction of regular figures of 3, 4, 6, or 8 sides in or about a given circle.
Construction of a square equal in area to a given polygon.

SCHEDULE B.
Angles at a Point.

If a straight line stands on another straight line, the sum of the two angles so formed is equal to two right angles ; and the converse.
If two straight lines intersect, the vertically opposite angles are equal.

Parallel Straight Lines.

When a straight line cuts two other straight lines, if (i) a pair of alternate angles are equal, or (ii) a pair of corresponding angles are equal, or (iii) a pair of interior angles on the same side of the cutting line are together equal to two right angles, then the two straight lines are parallel ; and the converse.
Straight lines which are parallel to the same straight line are parallel to one another.

Triangles and Rectilinear Figures.

The sum of the angles of a triangle is equal to two right angles.
If the sides of a convex polygon are produced in order, the sum of the angles so formed is equal to four right angles.
If two triangles have two sides of the one equal to two sides of the other, each to each, and also the angles contained by those sides, equal, the triangles are congruent.
If two triangles have two angles of the one equal to two angles of the other, each to each, and also one side of the one equal to the corresponding side of the other, the triangles are congruent.
If two sides of a triangle are equal, the angles opposite to these sides are equal ; and the converse.
If two traingles have the three sides of the one equal to the three sides of the other, each to each, the triangles are congruent.
If two right-angled triangles have their hypotenuses equal, and one side of the one equal to one side of the other, the triangles are congruent.
If two sides of a triangle are unequal, the greater side has the greater angle opposite to it ; and the converse.
Of all the straight lines that can be drawn to a given straight line from a given point outside it, the perpendicular is the shortest.
The opposite sides and angles of a parallelogram are equal, each diagonal bisects the parallelogram, and the diagonals bisect one another.
If there are three or more parallel straight lines, and the intercepts made by them on any straight line that cuts them are equal, then the corresponding intercepts on any other straight line that cuts them are also equal.

Areas.

Parallelograms on the same or equal bases and of the same altitude are equal in area.
Triangles on the same or equal bases and of the same altitude are equal in area.
Equal triangles on the same or equal bases are of the same altitude.
Illustrations and explanations of the geometrical theorems corresponding to the following algebraical identities :—

$$k\,(a + b + c + \ldots) = ka + kb + kc + \ldots,$$
$$(a + b)^2 = a^2 + 2ab + b^2,$$
$$(a - b)^2 = a^2 - 2ab + b^2,$$
$$a^2 - b^2 = (a + b)\,(a - b).$$

The square on a side of a triangle is greater than, equal to, or less than the sum of the squares on the other two sides, according as the angle contained by those sides is obtuse, right, or acute. The differences in the cases of inequality is twice the rectangle contained by one of the two sides and the projection on it of the other.

Loci.

The locus of a point which is equidistant from two fixed points is the perpendicular bisector of the straight line joining the two fixed points.

The locus of a point which is equidistant from two intersecting straight lines consists of the pair of straight lines which bisect the angles between the two given lines.

The Circle.

A straight line, drawn from the centre of a circle to bisect a chord which is not a diameter, is at right angles to the chord ; conversely, the perpendicular to a chord from the centre bisects the chord.

There is one circle, and one only, which passes through three given points not in a straight line.

In equal circles (or, in the same circle) (i) if two arcs subtend equal angles at the centres, they are equal ; (ii) conversely, if two arcs are equal, they subtend equal angles at the centre.

In equal circles (or, in the same circle) (i) if two chords are equal, they cut off equal arcs ; (ii) conversely, if two arcs are equal, the chords of the arcs are equal.

Equal chords of a circle are equidistant from the centre ; and the converse.

The tangent at any point of a circle and the radius through the point are perpendicular to one another.

If two circles touch, the point of contact lies on the straight line through the centres.

The angle which an arc of a circle subtends at the centre is double that which it subtends at any point on the remaining part of the circumference.

Angles in the same segment of a circle are equal ; and, if the line joining two points subtends equal angles at two other points on the same side of it, the four points lie on a circle.

The angle in a semicircle is a right angle ; the angle in a segment greater than a semicircle is less than a right angle ; and the angle in a segment less than a semicircle is greater than a right angle.

The opposite angles of any quadrilateral inscribed in a circle are supplementary ; and the converse.

If a straight line touch a circle, and from the point of contact a chord be drawn, the angles which this chord makes with the tangent are equal to the angles in the alternate segments.

If two chords of a circle intersect either inside or outside the circle the rectangle contained by the parts of the one is equal to the rectangle contained by the parts of the other.

Proportion : Similar Triangles.

If a straight line is drawn parallel to one side of a triangle, the other two sides are divided proportionally ; and the converse.

If two triangles are equiangular their corresponding sides are proportional ; and the converse.

If two triangles have one angle of the one equal to one angle of the other and the sides about these equal angles proportional, the triangles are similar.

The internal bisector of an angle of a triangle divides the opposite side internally in the ratio of the sides containing the angle, and likewise the external bisector externally.

The ratio of the areas of similar triangles is equal to the ratio of the squares on corresponding sides.

For Candidates for Honours questions will also be set relating to other properties of triangles and circles, and to the Elementary Geometry of the plane and the sphere.

If an application is made by a school on belhaf of more than fifty students, the fee payable for each student at that school after the first fifty will be sixpence.

* In certain cases (see above) it is made a condition that all the required subjects shall be taken at the same time.

UNIVERSITY OF MADRAS.

THE following communications have been received from the Acting Registrar of the University of Madras :—

I.—Resolutions passed by the Senate at its meeting held on 3rd March, 1905.

" I.—Schools in Ceylon.

" That, as a provisional arrangement, and notwithstanding anything contained in by-laws 129 and 130,—

" (1) Ceylon schools be treated as recognized schools, provided that the managers produce certificates signed by the Director of Public Instruction, Ceylon, to the effect that they are organised and conducted so as to ensure efficient training up to the standard of the Matriculation examination of the University of Madras ;

" (2) That a pupil from a school so certified be allowed to present himself for examination for Matriculation, provided that he is able to submit a certificate, signed by the head of his school, to the effect that he has attended the school for the greater part of the current school year, that he has received suitable instruction, and is qualified to enter upon a University course, and that his conduct has been satisfactory.

" II.—Colleges in Ceylon.

" (i) That as a provisional regulation under section XIX. of Act VIII. of 1904, a candidate for the First Examination in Arts of the University of Madras who has studied in any of the colleges in Ceylon which, before the Act came into force, were affiliated to the University of Calcutta, shall be exempted from producing the certificates of attendance required under by-law 141, provided he is able to produce a certificate, signed by the head of his college, to the effect that he has studied for a period of two years for the First Examination in Arts in a college in Ceylon which, before the Act came into force, was affiliated to the University of Calcutta, that he has completed the course of instruction prescribed for the examination, and that his progress and conduct have been satisfactory.

" (ii) That as a provisional regulation under section XIX. of Act VIII. of 1904, a candidate for the B.A. degree examination of the University of Madras who has studied in any of the colleges in Ceylon which, before the Act came into force, were affiliated to the Univerrsity of Calcutta up to the B.A. standard, shall be exempted from producing the certificates of attendance required under by-law 150, provided that he is able to produce a certificate, signed by the head of his college, to the effect that he has studied for a period of two years for the B. A. degree examination in a college in Ceylon which, before the Act came into force, was affiliated to the University of Calcutta, that he has completed the course of instruction prescribed for the examination, and that his progress and conduct have been satisfactory."

II.—Extract from the Minutes of the Meeting of the Syndicate held on the 15th August, 1906.

" Considered the following report of the Exemption Committee of the Syndicate on the subject of provision being made to enable undergraduates in Ceylon to appear for the examinations of this University as private candidates with effect from this year :—

" The exemption Committee recommends that the Syndicate do pass a resolution to the effect that it will recommend to the Senate that Ceylon students who would be eligible to appear for examination under by-laws 141 paragraph 2, and 150 (c) paragraph 2, had they been undergraduates of the Madras University be exempted from the production of term certificates, provided that they have passed either (a) the examinations of the Calcutta University corresponding to the Madras examinations referred to in the above by-laws or (b) examinations other than those of the Calcutta University but accepted by the University of Madras as the equivalents of its own examinations.

" Resolved, that the recommendation of the Exemption Committee be accepted, and that the Registrar be directed to reply to the Ceylon candidates that the Syndicate will recommend to the Senate exemption from the production of the term certificates in the cases of those who satisfy the above conditions."

By-law 141, paragraph 2 :—
    A candidate who passed the Matriculation Examination in this University not less than four years previously to the examination for which he seeks admission shall not be required to produce term certificates.

By-law 150 (c), paragraph 2 :—
    A candidate who passed the First examination in Arts not less than two years previously to the examination for which he seeks admission and who will have completed his twenty-fifth year before the 15th November preceding the examination, shall not be required to produce term certificates.

" The Syndicate has resolved to afford further facilities to bona fide Ceylon students by the recognition of the Cambridge Senior Local Examination and the Calcutta University Entrance Examination as the equivalents of the Madras Matriculation Examination and the Calcutta First in Arts Examination as the equivalent of the corresponding examination.   As a temporary measure, provision has also been made to enable undergraduates of the Calcutta University in Ceylon to appear for the examination of this University as private candidates with effect from this year on the same conditions as those imposed on the undergraduates of the Madras University by by-laws 141 paragraph 2 and 150 (c) paragraph 2.   Undergraduates of the Calcutta University who are therefore able to satisfy the conditions and who intend to appear for the F.A. or B.A. examinations to be held in December next, should apply for the necessary exemption with as little delay as possible."
