Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for compulsory vernacular education in such areas of this colony as shall from time to time be proclaimed hereunder, and to which the provisions of "The Towns Schools Ordinance, 1906," do not apply: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Schools Ordinance, 1906."

PART I.

Division of Island into Districts and Divisions.

Power to extend provisions of Ordinance to certain towns.

2 (1) It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to bring from a time to be named therein the provisions of Parts I., II., III., IV., V., and VII. of this Ordinance, or such of them as shall be specified in such Proclamation, into operation within any district the limits of which shall be set out and defined by such Proclamation, not being a town or village to which the provisions of "The Towns Schools Ordinance, 1906," are applicable, and the Governor, with the advice aforesaid, may from time to time revoke, alter, vary, or amend any such Proclamation.

(2) Every district so brought within the operation of this Ordinance shall be subdivided into divisions in such manner as the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, shall appoint. It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the like advice, from time to time to alter and amend such subdivision.

(3) It shall be the duty of the governing body of any district or division brought under the operation of this Ordinance to make provision out of funds vested in them for the establishment and maintenance of one or more schools within the limits of such district or division for the instruction and education of children living within such district or division.

3 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to bring from a time to be named therein the provisions of Parts I., V., VI., and VII. of this Ordinance, or such of them as shall be specified in such Proclamation, into operation within any estate or convenient group of estates the limits of which shall be set out and defined by such Proclamation, and the Governor, with the advice aforesaid, may from time to time revoke, alter, vary, or amend any such Proclamation.

The term "inspector" shall include any officer employed by the Director of Public Instruction as an inspector or sub-inspector of schools.

Presumption as to occupier of premises in which child resides.

5 The occupier of the premises in which any child usually resides shall be presumed to have the custody of such child until the contrary is proved.

6 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette, to exempt from the operation of this Ordinance any district or division or part thereof, or any estate or group of estates, which shall have been brought within the operation of this Ordinance under sections 2 and 3.

On such Proclamation being issued the said district or division or part thereof, or estate or group of estates, shall cease to be liable to the provisions of this Ordinance.

(2) All by-laws shall be published in the Government Gazette in the English, Sinhalese, and Tamil languages, respectively, and from the date of such publication shall have the same force as if they had been enacted by this Ordinance.

(3) All such by-laws shall be laid before the Legislative Council if in session within one month of such publication, and if not in session within one month of the commencement of the session next ensuing, and in either case they shall be on the table during four sittings at least of the Council, and any by-law which has been disapproved by resolution of the Council shall cease to have any force or effect.

Purposes for which by-laws may be made.

22 (1) The by-laws made under the last preceding section may apply to both boys and girls, or to boys only or to girls only, and may provide among other things for—

(a) Specifying the limits of any area within the jurisdiction of the local authority within which efficient provision has been made for education either by a school established under this Ordinance or by any existing school or schools registered by the Director of Public Instruction as a Government school or schools, or as a school or schools receiving a grant in aid from Government. Such by-laws shall name the schools by which efficient provision is made as aforesaid for education.

A parent shall be deemed to have made adequate and suitable provision for the education of his child if he proves that his child is in regular attendance at a school registered by the Director of Public Instruction for the receipt of a grant in aid, or at a school with regard to which an application for a grant in aid is under consideration, or at a school certified by the Director of Public Instruction to provide adequate and suitable instruction, or if he proves that he has made such other provision for his child's education as the Director of Public Instruction shall certify to be adequate and suitable, or if he produces a certificate from the Director of Public Instruction recommending that the child shall be exempted from compulsory attendance, provided that no parent shall be convicted for not causing his child to attend such school if he proves to the satisfaction of the magistrate that he has reasonable excuse for not causing such child to attend. A parent shall be deemed to have a reasonable excuse for not causing his child to attend school if he proves that the child is prevented from attending by sickness or other unavoidable cause.

- (c) Determining the penalty to be attached for the breach of any by-law.
- (d) Determining the days on which and the hours during which children shall attend such school.
- (e) Prescribing, on the recommendation of the Director of Public Instruction, the course of instruction to be given in schools.
- (f) For every other purpose which may be deemed necessary for carrying out the provisions of this Ordinance.

Provided that nothing herein contained shall in any way restrict, or be construed to restrict, the generality of the power conferred by the last preceding section, but such powers shall extend to all matters, whether similar or not to those in this section mentioned, as to which it may be expedient to make by-laws for the better carrying into effect the objects of this Ordinance.

Religious instruction.

23 No school in which religious instruction is given shall be named in any by-law made under sub-section (a) of section 22 as a school in which efficient provision is made for education, unless the local authority is satisfied—

- (a) That religious instruction is given only during the times specified in the school time table ;
- (b) That religious instruction is not given to pupils of other denominations than that to which the school belongs, if the parents object ;
- (c) That pupils who do not attend religious instruction are employed in other studies during the hours allotted to religious instruction ;
- (d) That such pupils, if their parents object to their being present in the room where religious instruction is given, are either allowed to study in some other part of the school premises during the hours when such instruction is given or their presence in the school during such hours is excused ; and
- (e) That a copy of this section in the English, Sinhalese, and Tamil languages is conspicuously posted up in the school.

PART VI.

Estate Schools.

Returns to be furnished by estate superintendents.

24 Whenever any estate, plantation, or land on which immigrant labourers are employed falls within any district or division proclaimed under section 5 of this Ordinance, it shall be the duty of the superintendent or person for the time being in charge of such estate, plantation, or land to insert in the quarterly returns furnished to Government by such superintendent under the provisions of Ordinance No. 13 of 1889 the following particulars :

- (a) The number of boys and girls of school-going age on the estate.
- (b) The number of boys and girls attending school.
- (c) The number of days on which school has been held.
- (d) The daily average attendance.
- (e) The description of the building in which instruction is imparted.

Superintendents to provide schoolroom.

25 (1) It shall be the duty of the superintendent of such estate, plantation, or land to provide a convenient room in a set of lines, or in a store or other building on the estate, which shall be used as a school for the boys and girls of school-going age on the estate, and that such boys and girls duly attend such school.

(2) It shall be the duty of every such superintendent to keep a register containing the names and ages of all boys and girls of school-going age on the estate. Every such register shall be corrected or renewed on or before the tenth day of each month, and such superintendent shall give facilities to the inspector who shall be sent to such estate school, as is herein provided, to inspect such register and the children whose names appear in it, and upon every such inspection such inspector may require the superintendent to produce such register and children before him for inspection. Provided that every such superintendent shall be entitled to three days' clear notice in writing of any intended inspection of an estate school from such inspector before such inspection shall be held.

Inspectors to inspect schools.

26 The Director of Public Instruction shall from time to time send an inspector to inspect estate schools and the children of school-going age on such estates, and on every such inspection it shall be lawful for such inspector to give a certificate of exemption to any boys or girls who have learnt enough to pass the fourth standard in reading, writing, and arithmetic.

Estates may be grouped together for the purpose of providing schools.

27 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, from time to time as occasion may require, to group together any estates within any district or division proclaimed under this Ordinance for the purpose of providing for the construction and maintenance of a school and for the education of the children of the coolies employed on such group of estates.

Director of Public
Instruction may erect schoolroom and charge cost to estate.

28 Whenever any estate or group of estates has failed to make suitable provision for the establishment and maintenance of a school and for the education of the children of the coolies employed on such estate or group of estates to the satisfaction of the Director of Public Instruction, it shall be lawful for the Director of Public Instruction to issue a notice to the superintendent of such estate, or the superintendents of such group of estates, as the case may be, calling upon him or them to provide better and more suitable accommodation for the schoolroom, or better and more efficient education for the children, or both; and if upon the expiration of six months after such notice has been given the Director of Public Instruction is not satisfied that suitable provision has been made as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Government to authorize any person or persons to enter upon any such estate and erect a suitable schoolroom thereon for the use of the children of the coolies employed on such estate or group of estates and to provide suitable instruction for such children. And the cost of constructing and maintaining such school and for providing for the instruction of such children thereat shall form a first charge upon such estate, or on the estates forming such group of estates as aforesaid, and such first charge shall take precedence over all other mortgages and encumbrances whatsoever.

PART VII.

General.

Penalties.

29 Any superintendent who refuses to give an inspector every facility for inspecting the register to be kept by such superintendent and the children whose names are entered therein, or wilfully obstructs any inspector in the discharge of his duties, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction thereof to be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or with both.

How prosecutions are to be instituted.

30 (1) Every prosecution in respect of an offence under this Ordinance may be instituted by a written report made by an inspector and certified by the chairman of the district school committee that such offence has been committed, being presented to a police magistrate.

(2) All fines imposed under this Ordinance in respect of any district or divisional school shall be paid into the funds of the district or division within which such school is situated, and in respect of any estate school shall be paid into the Treasury.

Offences to be tried by police courts.

31 Any offence or breach of by-laws under this Ordinance may be inquired into, tried, and determined by any police court within the district in which such offence or breach was committed wholly or in part, and such court shall have jurisdiction to award the maximum punishment prescribed therefor, anything in the Criminal Procedure Code to the contrary notwithstanding.

Procedure.

32 With regard to proceedings before a magistrate under this Ordinance or under any by-laws thereunder, the following provisions shall have effect :

- (1) Any magistrate may require by summons any parent of a child required by by-law to attend school to produce the child before him, and any person failing without reasonable excuse, proof whereof shall lie on the parent, to comply with such summons shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty rupees.
- (2) When a child is apparently of the age alleged for the purpose of the proceeding, it shall lie on the defendant to prove that the child is not of that age.

By His Excellency's command,

H. L. CRAWFORD,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, July 20, 1906.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to make the education of children compulsory throughout the Island in places other than towns, provision on this behalf having already been made for towns by Ordinance No. 5 of 1906.

The Ordinance has been divided into seven parts.

Part I. divides the Island into districts and divisions and into estates or groups of estates.

Section 2 applies Parts I., II., III., IV., V., and VII. to districts and divisions ;

Section 3 applies Parts I., V., VI., and VII. to estates and groups of estates ; and Section 6 contains a power in the Governor in Executive Council to exempt from the operation of the Ordinance any district or division or estate or group of estates.

Part II. provides for the appointment of Committees as governing bodies over district schools and divisional schools, and provisions adapted from Ordinance No. 24 of 1889 have been inserted for the guidance and election of Committees.

Part III. provides for the appointment and maintenance of schools in districts and divisions, and empowers the Director of Public Instruction to cause returns of school accommodation to be furnished, and gives power for the acquisition of lands.

Part IV. provides for funds being supplied for the establishment and maintenance of schools. A portion of the road tax is to be applied to this purpose, and an annual poll tax of Re. 1 is to be imposed on the adult male population.

Part V. provides for the making of by-laws, and the powers and the provisions in this behalf have been adapted from Ordinance No. 5 of 1906 with scarcely any change.

Part VI. provides for the establishment and maintenance of schools on estates or groups of estates.

Section 24 requires superintendent to furnish returns.

Section 25 requires him to provide a schoolroom.

Section 26 authorizes the inspection of estate schools.

Section 28 empowers the Director of Public Instruction to erect schools at cost of proprietors of estates if adequate schoolroom is not provided.

Part VII. is general, and makes provision in respect of penalties, offences, prosecutions, and procedure.

Colombo, July 9, 1906.

Acting Attorney-General.
