PASSED ORDINANCES.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council.

No. 20 of 1906.

An Ordinance to amend "The Forest Ordinance, 1885."

HENRY A. BLAKE.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Forest Ordinance, 1885" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"): Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Forest Ordinance, 1906," and the principal Ordinance and Ordinance No. 1 of 1892 and this Ordinance shall be read together and may be cited collectively as "The Forest Ordinances, 1885 to 1906."

Amendment of section 3 as regards definition of "land at the disposal of the Crown."

2 For the definition of the term "land at the disposal of the Crown" in section 3 of the principal Ordinance there shall be substituted the following definition, namely:

"Land at the disposal of the Crown" includes—

- (1) All forest, waste, chena, uncultivated, or unoccupied land, unless proof is adduced to the satisfaction of the court that some person—
 - (a) Has acquired, by some lawful means, a valid title thereto; or
 - (b) Has acquired a right thereto as against the Crown by the issue to him of any certificate of no claim by the Crown under Ordinances No. 12 of 1840 or No. 1 of 1844; or
 - (c) Is entitled to possess the same under a written grant or lease made by or on behalf of the British, Dutch, or Native Governments, and duly registered in accordance with law.
- (2) All lands which have been declared to be the property of the Crown by any order passed under "The Waste Lands Ordinances, 1897 to 1903," or to which the Crown is otherwise lawfully entitled.

Passed in Council the Twenty-ninth day of August, One thousand Nine hundred and Six.

A. G. CLAYTON,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Fifth day of September, One thousand Nine hundred and Six.

A. M. ASHMORE,
Colonial Secretary.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council.

No. 21 of 1906.

An Ordinance to amend "The Licensing Ordinance, 1891."

HENRY A. BLAKE.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Licensing Ordinance, 1891," in certain particulars: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.
To be read as one with No. 12 of 1891.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Licensing (Amendment) Ordinance, 1906." It shall be construed and read as one with "The Licensing Ordinance, 1891," hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance," and this Ordinance and the principal Ordinance may be cited together as "The Licensing Ordinances, 1891 and 1906."

Additional section with regard to sale of spirituous liquor containing less than 27 per cent. of proof spirit.

2 After section 33 of the principal Ordinance there shall be inserted the following section, which shall be numbered 33 A, namely:

33 A (1) It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, or to expose or keep for sale, whether by wholesale or retail, any rum, gin, brandy, whisky, arrack, or other spirituous liquor which registers a lower strength than 27 under proof by Syke's hydrometer, or which at a temperature of 60 degrees Fahrenheit contains less than 34.8 per cent. by weight or 41.6 per cent. by volume of pure alcohol.

(2) Any person who shall sell or expose or keep for sale any rum, gin, brandy, whisky, arrack, or other spirituous liquor which registers a lower strength than 27 under proof by Syke's hydrometer, or which at a temperature of 60 degrees Fahrenheit contains less than 34.8 per cent. by weight or 41.6 per cent. by volume of pure alcohol, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, and in default of payment to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding six months. Upon such conviction the spirituous liquor in respect of which the conviction was had shall be liable to be forfeited.

(3) (a) Any document purporting to be a certificate under the hand of the Government Analyst or of any person appointed by the Governor to be an analyst for the purposes of this Ordinance as to the proportion of pure alcohol contained in any sample of liquor may be used as evidence in any inquiry, trial, or other proceeding under this Ordinance.

(b) The court may presume that the signature of any such document is genuine, and that the person signing it held the office he professed to hold at the time he signed it.

(c) The court may, if it thinks fit, summon and examine the Government Analyst or appointed analyst as to the subject matter of his certificate.

Passed in Council the Twenty-ninth day of August, One thousand Nine hundred and Six.

A. G. CLAYTON,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Fifth day of September, One thousand Nine hundred and Six.

A. M. ASHMORE,

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council.

No. 22 of 1906.

An Ordinance to amend "The Police Ordinance, 1865."

HENRY A. BLAKE.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Police Ordinance, 1865," in certain particulars: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Ordinance to be read with No. 16 of 1865.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Police Ordinance Amendment Ordinance, 1906," and shall be read and construed as one with "The Police Ordinance, 1865."

Interpretation.

2 The term "large work" shall, unless the context otherwise requires, include any railway, tramway, manufactory, any plumbago mining or other commercial business or concern in which a considerable number of artisans, operatives, workmen, coolies, or persons are employed.

Section 11 of No. 16 of 1865 amended.

3 For section 11 of "The Police Ordinance, 1865," the following section shall be substituted:

Power to employ additional police force.

11. Whenever any large work shall be carried on or be in operation in any part of the country, and it shall appear to the Inspector-General of Police that the employment of an additional police force in the neighbourhood of such large work is rendered necessary by the behaviour or reasonable apprehension of the behaviour of persons employed upon such large work, it shall be lawful for the Inspector-General of Police, with the approval of the Governor in Council, to direct the employment of such additional police force, and to maintain the same so long as the necessity shall continue, and to make orders from time to time upon the person having the control or custody of the funds of any company or person carrying on such large work for the payment of the extra force so rendered necessary as aforesaid.

Passed in Council the Twenty-ninth day of August, One thousand Nine hundred and Six.

A. G. CLAYTON,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Fifth day of September, One thousand Nine hundred and Six.
