DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend the Law relating to Firearms.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to firearms: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Firearms Ordinance, 1907," and shall come into force on such date as the Governor shall by Proclamation appoint.

Repeal of Ordinance No. 14 of 1906.

2 "The Firearms Ordinance, 1906," is hereby repealed.

Interpretation.

3 For the purposes of this Ordinance—

"Gun" includes every gun, rifle, revolver, and pistol, and every part of a gun, rifle, revolver, or pistol. It also includes every air-gun or other kind of gun from which any shot, bullet, or missile can be discharged, and every part of such air-gun or other kind of gun, but does not include any toy gun or toy pistol from which any shot, bullet, or missile is discharged by the force of a spring alone.

“Government Agent” includes the Assistant Government Agent of a district, but not the Office Assistant of any Government Agent. It also includes in respect of any province, judicial district, or judicial division any person specially appointed by the Governor, by notification in the Government Gazette, to issue licenses under this Ordinance within such province, judicial district, or judicial division.

“Peace Officer” includes police officer and headman appointed by a Government Agent in writing to perform police duties.

License to possess a gun.
Proviso 1.

4 No person shall have in his custody or possess or use any gun without having first obtained a license therefor in manner hereinafter provided. Provided that nothing in this section contained shall apply or extend to any manufacturer of or dealer in guns duly licensed as hereinafter provided, nor to any person actually employed by any such manufacturer or dealer to carry or convey guns for the purposes of his trade in respect of such carriage or conveyance, nor to the custody of any gun by any person entrusted by a person duly licensed to possess a gun with the temporary custody (whether as servant of the owner or otherwise) of any gun for which a license has been obtained; but nothing in this proviso shall be taken to enable any person to possess or keep any gun as security for a debt without having first obtained a license therefor as aforesaid. Provided also that no member of the family of a deceased person who had, at the time of his decease, license to possess a gun shall become liable in respect of such gun to any of the penalties hereinafter provided for possessing a gun without a license until after the expiration of one calendar month from the death of such licensee.

Proviso 2.

Licenses how to be obtained.

5 Every person desiring to obtain any license mentioned in the last preceding section shall make application to that effect either verbally or in writing to the Government Agent of the province in which the applicant is for the time being residing, specifying the name and residence of the applicant and the number and description of the gun or guns for which a license or licenses may be required. Such Government Agent may thereupon issue to the applicant in respect of each gun specified in the application a license as near as is material in the form A in the first schedule hereto.

Stamps on licenses.

6 (1) Every license issued as in the last preceding section provided shall be annual, and shall expire on the thirty-first day of December next ensuing after the issue thereof.

(2) In respect of every such license there shall be levied a duty payable by means of stamps according to the following scale :

	Rs.	c.
For every single-barrelled gun, not being a magazine gun, revolver, or pistol	1	0
For every gun of any other description	2	0

Persons licensed under Ordinance No. 14 of 1906.

(3) All licenses issued under “The Firearms Ordinance, 1906,” shall be deemed to have been issued under this Ordinance, and shall expire on the thirty-first day of December next ensuing after the coming into force of this Ordinance, and shall be subject to the other provisions hereof.

When dispensed with.

(4) It shall be lawful for the Government Agent, in any exceptional case in which in his discretion he shall see fit so to do, to issue such license free of stamp duty, but he shall forthwith report every such case to the Governor.

Guns may be marked by the Government Agent, if necessary.

7 Whenever any gun for which any license is required is not marked with such names or figures, or in such other manner as that the same may be readily identified, it shall be lawful for the Government Agent to whom the application is made, before granting the license applied for, to require the applicant to produce to him any such gun, and thereupon to cause the same to be marked, either on the stock or barrel with some permanent mark, whereby the same may afterwards be known and identified, but in such manner as not to injure or disfigure the same; and such gun when duly marked shall, with the license relating thereto, be delivered to the said applicant; and the expenses attendant on such marking shall be defrayed by the Government Agent out of the public funds.

Register of licenses.

8 Every Government Agent shall register all such licenses so granted in a book to be kept for that purpose; and it shall be lawful for any person, at any time during office hours, to demand inspection of the said book, and also to take any copy or extract therefrom.

Proceedings where license is lost, destroyed, &c.

9 If any license granted under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be by any casualty destroyed, defaced, or lost, it shall be lawful for the person to whom the same shall have been granted to report the same to the Government Agent for the province wherein such person resides; and if such Government Agent shall be satisfied of the fact of such casualty or loss, he shall grant to such person a certificate as near as is material in the form B in the first schedule hereto, reciting such loss, and setting out the purport and effect of the license so lost, defaced, or destroyed, and such certificate shall be in lieu thereof and of like force and effect.

Proof of ownership.

10 The occupier of any house or premises in which any gun shall be found shall, for the purposes of this Ordinance, be deemed and taken to be the possessor of such gun.

License to make or sell guns.

11 (1) No person shall make or keep for or expose for sale by way of auction or otherwise, any gun without a license from the Government Agent of the province, which license shall be as near as is material in the form C in the first schedule hereto, and shall be on a stamp of fifty rupees. Such license shall be annual, and shall expire on the thirty-first day of December next ensuing after the issue thereof.

(2) Licenses issued under "The Firearms Ordinance, 1906," shall, during the period for which they were issued, be deemed to be licenses issued under this Ordinance.

Dealers to keep record and make returns.

12 Every person licensed under section 11 shall keep a book in the form D in the first schedule hereto, in which he shall enter a correct description of all guns made or received by him and of all guns in any way disposed of by him. Every such person shall also at the end of every month verify the number of guns in his possession and enter such number in such book; and it shall be lawful for the Inspector-General of Police, or any person authorized by him in writing, at any reasonable time, to take a copy of the entries in such book or of any portion thereof, and to examine the stock of guns of any such person licensed under section 11 and to see whether it agrees with the entries made in such book.

Power to Government Agent to refuse to issue license.

13 It shall be lawful for the Government Agent in his discretion to refuse to issue any license under this Ordinance. Provided that the applicant may appeal to the Governor in Executive Council against such refusal; and the Governor in Executive Council, after such inquiry as may appear necessary, may confirm or reverse such refusal. The decision of the Governor in Executive Council shall be final and conclusive.

Power to Government Agent to cancel and withdraw license.

14 (1) The Government Agent may withdraw any license issued under this Ordinance—

- (a) When the holder of such license is convicted of an offence under this Ordinance or under any of the sections of the Ceylon Penal Code enumerated in the second schedule hereto;
- (b) When for reason to be recorded by him in writing the Government Agent deems it necessary for the security of the public peace to withdraw such license.

(2) A license shall be withdrawn by serving upon the holder a notice in writing to that effect under the hand of the Government Agent.

Power of appeal to Governor.

(3) Any licensee whose license is withdrawn under this section may appeal to the Governor in Executive Council against such withdrawal, and the Governor in Executive Council, after such inquiry as may appear necessary, may confirm or reverse such withdrawal. The decision of the Governor in Executive Council shall be final and conclusive.

Duty of licensee to deposit gun in nearest police station.

(4) The holder of any license to possess a gun, upon receiving notice that the same is withdrawn under this section, shall forthwith deposit the gun in respect of which the license is issued with the officer in charge of the nearest police station or with such other officer as may be named in the notice. And if the withdrawal of the license is not reversed by the Governor in Executive Council, or if the owner of the gun deposited under this section does not within three years from the date on which such gun is so deposited apply for delivery of it and produce a license authorizing him or some other person to possess the gun, such gun shall be forfeited to His Majesty.

Notice of transfer of gun.

15 It shall be the duty of every person who shall transfer any gun by way of sale or gift to any other person to give to the Government Agent, within one month of such transfer, a notice of such transfer stating the names and addresses of the transferor and transferee, the maker's name, number, and description of such gun, and the date and place of issue of any license in respect of the same.

Prohibition against transfer of a gun to an uncertificated person.
Procedure to obtain certificate.

16 (1) No gun shall be transferred by way of sale, pledge, or gift to any person other than a person holding a certificate of fitness to possess and carry arms from the Government Agent of the province in which such person resides.

(2) The Government Agent may, upon application and after such inquiry as may appear necessary, grant a certificate that the applicant is a fit and proper person to possess and carry guns. Such certificate shall be as near as is material in the form E in the first schedule hereto. Such certificate shall be in force during the time specified in the certificate. Provided that the Government Agent may refuse to issue such certificate or withdraw any certificate already issued. The provisions of section 13 and sub-section (2) of section 14 shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to such refusal to issue or cancellation of a certificate.

Offences and penalties.

17 The following penalties are imposed for the following acts, which are hereby declared to be offences under this Ordinance :

(1) Any person possessing or having in his custody, or using or carrying any gun without a license therefor as required by section 4, or contrary to the terms of such license or after the same has been withdrawn, shall be liable on conviction to a fine which may extend to twenty rupees, or imprisonment, rigorous or simple, for a period which may extend in the case of a first conviction to one month, and such gun shall be liable to confiscation in the discretion of the court. If such gun is proved to be the property of some person other than the person in whose custody it is so found, such other person shall be also guilty of an offence and liable to the same punishment, unless he proves that such first-mentioned person had such gun in his custody, or carried or used it without his knowledge or against his consent.

(2) Any person who wilfully obliterates, or defaces, or alters, counterfeits, or forges any mark placed by any Government Agent on any gun under the provisions of section 7 hereof, or marks any gun with any mark resembling or intended to resemble any mark so used by such Government Agent, with intent thereby to expose any person to any fine, or to defraud His Majesty of any stamp duty, or to commit any other fraud, shall be liable for every such offence to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

- (3) Any person who has in his custody or possession for the purpose of his trade as a maker of or dealer in guns any gun without having first obtained a license as required by section 11, which license shall be still in force and unexpired, or contrary to the terms of such license, shall be liable to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any person licensed to possess a gun under this Ordinance from selling any such gun without having obtained a license under section 11.
- (4) Any headman or peace officer who, having good reason to know or believe any person to be guilty of having in his custody, or using, carrying, possessing, making, or selling any gun without a license as by this Ordinance required, fails to inform against such person, shall be liable to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees in respect of every failure so to inform against such person.
- (5) Any person who fails to perform the duty imposed on him by section 12 shall be liable to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.
- (6) Any person who prevents or obstructs the Inspector-General of Police, or any person duly authorized by him, from exercising the powers conferred by section 12, shall be liable to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.
- (7) Any person who fails to perform the duty imposed upon him by section 15 shall be liable to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees.
- (8) Any person who, after receiving notice that his license has been withdrawn, fails to forthwith deposit the gun to which the license relates as required by section 14 shall be liable to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees, or to imprisonment of either description which may extend to one month, and such gun shall be liable to confiscation in the discretion of the court.
- (9) Any holder of a license which has been cancelled or suspended by Proclamation under section 27 who fails to comply with the provisions of 27 (2) shall be liable to the penalty provided by the last preceding sub-section.

Public servant
may arrest without warrant.

18 It shall be lawful for any peace officer or headman, or any revenue or judicial officer, or any other Government officer authorized thereto in writing by the Governor, to call upon any person possessing, carrying, or using a gun to forthwith produce his license, and to arrest without a warrant any person possessing, carrying, or using a gun without a license as herein provided, and to detain such gun in his custody until such time as he can produce the same with the person arrested before a Magistrate competent to try the offence for which such person shall have been arrested.

Power to peace officer or headman to search premises suspected to contain unlicensed guns.

19 It shall be lawful for any peace officer or headman to enter and search all premises of persons suspected of possessing, making, or selling guns without a license as herein provided, and any place, vessel, boat, or conveyance which he reasonably suspects to contain unlicensed guns and then and there to take charge of and remove any guns which he reasonably suspects to be without a license as herein provided. All guns seized and removed under this section shall be delivered by the peace officer or headman to the officer in charge of the nearest police station.

Jurisdiction of courts.

20 Subject to the provisions of the following sub-sections, every offence under this Ordinance shall be tried in the Police Court having jurisdiction over the division in which such offence is committed, and such court shall have power to impose the maximum fine prescribed by this Ordinance for such offence, notwithstanding that such maximum fine is beyond the ordinary jurisdiction of such court to inflict. And the provisions of sections 63 to 66, both inclusive of the Ceylon Penal Code shall be applicable to the cases of all convictions under this Ordinance.

(2) The Governor may from time to time, by order in the Government Gazette, authorize the Village Tribunals therein named to take cognizance of such of the offences punishable under section 17 as are named in the order; and the Village Tribunals so authorized shall have power, in respect of such offences, to pass sentences not exceeding a fine of twenty rupees, and in default of payment of the fine rigorous imprisonment for a term not exceeding two weeks.

No order under this sub-section shall preclude any Police Court from taking cognizance of any offence under this Ordinance.

Half fines to the informer.

21 It shall be lawful for the court or Village Tribunal, in the case of any conviction under this Ordinance, to direct that any sum not exceeding half the fine actually recovered and realized shall be paid to the informer.

Proof of license to be on accused.

22 Whenever any person is charged under the provisions of this Ordinance with having in his custody, or using, carrying, possessing, making, or selling any gun without a license, the proof that such person is licensed shall be on such person; but it shall be lawful for the court to award a reasonable sum in lieu of costs to the accused against any person who has made a vexatious complaint against him, and such sum shall be recoverable in like manner as a fine imposed under the provisions of this Ordinance.

Prosecutions when barred.

23 No prosecution shall be instituted against any person for any offence committed against any of the provisions of this Ordinance after the lapse of three months from the time at which the offence is alleged to have been committed.

Exemptions.

24 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall render it necessary for any person employed in the Prisons Department in the custody or supervision of prisoners, or for any person serving in His Majesty's forces, or in any police force, or in any corps of pioneers or volunteers within this Island, to obtain a license in respect of any gun intrusted to or used by any such person in such capacity.

Governor may exempt from Ordinance.

25 It shall be lawful for the Governor in his discretion from time to time, by writing under the hand of the Colonial Secretary, to exempt any person or the holder of any office during his tenure of such office from the operation of this Ordinance, and such exemption when made to cancel or revoke. None of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be deemed to apply to any person so exempted while such exemption continues in force.

Power of Governor to suspend or cancel licenses by Proclamation.

26 (1) The Governor in Executive Council, whenever it appears necessary for the security of the public peace in any district that licenses to possess and use guns should be cancelled or suspended, may, by Proclamation published in the Government Gazette, cancel or suspend for a period to be named in the Proclamation all such licenses held by persons residing in the district.

(2) The Governor in Executive Council may, in any such Proclamation as aforesaid, exempt any person by name or in virtue of his office, or any class of persons from the operation of the Proclamation.

(3) For the purposes of this section the expression "district" means any area the limits of which are defined by the Proclamation issued under this section.

Publication of Proclamation in proclaimed district.

27 (1) After the publication of any such Proclamation, the Government Agent shall cause notice thereof in the language or languages of the district to be posted in the several courts, including the Gansabhawa courts, and in such other

By His Excellency's command,

HUGH CLIFFORD,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 21, 1908.

Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of the Draft Ordinance is to make better provision for the prevention of the commission of offences with firearms.

The Draft Ordinance differs from "The Firearms Ordinance, 1906," mainly on the following points:—

(1) Licenses to possess guns must be taken out annually, each license expiring on the 31st day of December next ensuing after the issue thereof.

(2) A person who has the temporary custody of a gun by reason of its having been delivered to him as security for a debt is required to obtain the usual license.

(3) Government Agents are empowered to refuse to issue licenses to possess or use guns and to cancel when expedient licenses already issued, the orders made for these purposes being subject to appeal to the Governor in Executive Council.

(4) The transfer of a gun by way of sale or gift to any person other than a person holding a certificate of fitness to possess and carry arms from the Government Agent of the Province in which such person resides is prohibited, and provision is made for the issue of such certificates by Government Agents on the lines of the provisions regarding the issue of licenses.

(5) Peace officers and headmen are empowered to search premises in which it is suspected that unlicensed guns are kept concealed and to seize any gun which appears to be unlicensed.

(6) The Governor in Executive Council is empowered, whenever it appears necessary for the security of the public peace in any district, by Proclamation to cancel or suspend for a period to be named in the Proclamation all licenses to possess and use guns held by persons residing in the district.

The execution of the Proclamation is entrusted to the Government Agent of the Province within whose jurisdiction the proclaimed district is situated, and after publication of the Proclamation in the Gazette provision is made for its being published in the district itself.

(7) The holder of a license which has been cancelled by the Government Agent or suspended or cancelled by Proclamation of the Governor in Executive Council is bound to deposit the gun in respect of which the license was issued at the nearest police station or with the person named in the notice informing him that his license has been cancelled or suspended, and provision is made for the forfeiture and destruction of guns so deposited in certain circumstances.

(8) Provision is made for the trial of offences under the Draft Ordinance by Village Tribunals authorized by the Governor by order in the Government Gazette.
