DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to make provision for an Increased Stamp Duty on Deeds of Gift and to reduce the Stamp Duty and Costs payable on the Administration of Small Estates.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the payment of a higher rate of stamp duty on deeds of gift in which the grantor reserves any life interest or estate and to reduce the amount of stamp duty and costs payable on the administration of small estates: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Administration of Small Estates Ordinance, 1908," and shall come into force on such date as the Governor shall, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, appoint.

2 From and after the coming into operation of this Ordinance, anything in "The Stamp Ordinance, 1890," or "The Civil Procedure Code, 1889," or any other law or Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding—

Stamp duties on conveyances whereby an interest in property conveyed is reserved for grantor.

(1) Every deed of gift or other conveyance of any property whereby a life interest or other estate or interest in the property is reserved to the grantor shall be subject to a stamp duty of one and a half per cent. on the value of the property conveyed, inclusive of the value of the interest or estate reserved.

Stamp duty on the administration of estates of the value of one thousand rupees and over, but under two thousand five hundred rupees.

(2) No document or instrument, including probates and letters of administration specified in part III. of schedule B to "The Stamp Ordinance, 1890," shall be subject to any stamp duty, except a stamp duty of twenty rupees payable by means of a stamp or stamps to be affixed to the probate or letters of administration, and no court fees whatever shall be chargeable in any case in which the estate of the deceased person is one thousand rupees or over but under two thousand five hundred rupees in value, and the costs, fees, and charges payable to proctors and counsel as between party and client in the case of an estate under two thousand five hundred rupees in value shall be such sum not exceeding twenty rupees in the aggregate as may be allowed by the Judge by order to be made therein.

By His Excellency's command,

HUGH CLIFFORD,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, February 6, 1908.

Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE main object of the Draft Ordinance is to prevent the evasion of administration and probate duty and the costs of administration generally by means of deeds of gift and other conveyances executed inter vivos, and, at the same time, to encourage, even at some sacrifice of revenue by Government, the inheritors of small estates to take out letters of administration.

2. Deeds of gift and other conveyances of property whereby some estate or interest is reserved to the donor are made subject to a stamp duty of  $1\frac{1}{2}$  per cent. on the value of the property conveyed, inclusive of the value of the estate or interest reserved.

3. Estates under Rs. 1,000 in value are now exempt from administration duty, and by this Ordinance the administration duty, including court fees, in the case of estates of the value of Rs. 1,000 or over but below Rs. 2,500 is commuted to Rs. 20, which is somewhat less than the amount payable under the ad valorem scale; and it is also provided that the costs, fees, and charges payable to proctors and counsel as between party and client in the case of all estates under Rs. 2,500 in value should be such sum, not exceeding Rs. 20 in the aggregate, as may be allowed by the Court.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, January 20, 1908.

WALTER PEREIRA,
Acting Attorney-General.
