DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to regulate the Traffic in Dried Meat.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to regulate the traffic in dried meat in order to check the wasteful destruction of game: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Dried Meat Ordinance, 1908."

Application of Ordinance.

2 (1) The Governor in Executive Council may from time to time by Proclamation declare that it shall be unlawful to remove dried meat from the revenue districts and chief headmen's divisions therein named (which revenue districts and chief headmen's divisions are in this Ordinance referred to as "proclaimed areas"), save in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

(2) The Governor in Executive Council may from time to time vary, amend, or revoke any such Proclamation.

Definition.	3 Except where the context otherwise requires, the expression "dried meat" means the dried or salted flesh of any animal, but does not include dried or salted fish or any dried or salted meat which has been imported from beyond the seas. The onus of proving that any dried meat has been so imported shall in any proceedings under this Ordinance be on the accused.
Prohibition of removal without license of dried meat.	4 It shall be unlawful for any person to remove dried meat in quantities exceeding twenty pounds from any proclaimed area without having first obtained a license for that purpose, as hereinafter provided, from the Government Agent of the province within which the proclaimed area is situated.
Power of Government Agent to issue licenses to remove dried meat.	5 The Government Agent may, upon application, issue licenses authorizing the licensee to remove dried meat from any proclaimed area of his province to any specified place outside such proclaimed area.
Form of license	6 Every license so issued shall be in force for a period of six weeks, and shall be subject to a stamp duty at the rate of five rupees for every hundred pounds of dried meat authorized to be removed. It shall be in the form set out in the schedule hereto, or in such other form as the Governor may from time to time prescribe, and shall specify— <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) The name, residence, and occupation of the licensee ; (b) The protected area from which dried meat is authorized to be removed ; (c) The place to which dried meat is authorized to be removed ; (d) The cart or carts, bulls, boats, or other means of transport allowed to be used ; (e) The date on which the license will expire ; (f) The amount of dried meat allowed to be removed.
Power of Government Agent to refuse licenses.	7 The Government Agent may, if he considers it expedient so to do, refuse to grant a license under this Ordinance, or may restrict the amount of meat to be removed under the license to any quantity he shall think fit.
Appeal to Governor in Council.	8 Any person to whom a license is refused, or who is dissatisfied with the condition of his license as regards the quantity of dried meat allowed to be removed, may, within fourteen days from the date when the refusal of the license or the conditions thereof are communicated to him, appeal to the Governor in Executive Council ; and the Governor in Executive Council may confirm or reverse the refusal of the Government Agent to issue the license, or may confirm or modify the condition of the license as regards the quantity of meat allowed to be removed.
Licenses not transferable.	9 A license issued under this law shall not be assignable or transferable, nor shall any person be entitled to remove dried meat thereunder, except the person actually named in the license.
Penalty.	10 Any person who removes or attempts to remove dried meat from any proclaimed area without being duly licensed in that behalf under this Ordinance, or in contravention of any of the terms of his license, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, and in default of payment to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding three months ; and on a second or subsequent conviction he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, and in default of payment to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding six months. Upon any conviction the dried meat in respect of which such conviction was had and all vessels containing the same, and every wagon, cart, boat, vessel, animal, or other conveyance used for or employed in the removal of the same shall be forfeited.

certain officers
to examine carts, &c.

11 It shall be lawful for any Assistant Conservator of Forests or for any police officer not below the rank of a sergeant, or for any other forest officer or headman who is authorized in writing by the Government Agent to carry out the provisions of this Ordinance, upon reasonable suspicion, to stop and examine any cart, carriage, boat, pack animal, or other means of conveyance for the purpose of ascertaining whether dried meat is contained therein or carried thereby; and if the person in charge of such cart, carriage, boat, pack animal, or other means of conveyance refuses to allow such officer to examine the same, or prevents or obstructs him from so doing, he shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, or in default of payment to imprisonment of either description for a term, not exceeding three months. Where upon such examination any quantity of dried meat exceeding 20 pounds in weight is found, and a license to remove the same is not produced, such officer may seize such dried meat, together with the vessel, cart, carriage, boat, pack animal, or other means whereby or wherein the same is conveyed, and bring the same before the nearest Police Court to be dealt with according to law.

Where person
removing dried meat suspected to have been

12 Where any person is found removing dried meat in any quantity exceeding twenty pounds in such circumstance as to give rise to reasonable suspicion that he has brought it from a proclaimed area in contravention of this Ordinance, he may be charged with removing dried meat in contravention of this Ordinance; and if the person so charged does not prove to the satisfaction of the Police Magistrate that he did not remove dried meat in contravention of this Ordinance, and the Police Magistrate is satisfied that, having regard to the place where the dried meat was found and to all the circumstances of the case, there are reasonable grounds for believing that the person charged, transported the dried meat in contravention of this Ordinance, such person may be convicted of an offence under section 4 of this Ordinance.

Reward to informer.

13 Any offence under this Ordinance may be inquired into, tried, and determined by the Police Court of the district in which the offence was committed wholly or in part, and such court shall have jurisdiction to award the maximum punishment prescribed therefor, and to declare and adjudge any dried meat, vessel, conveyance, animal, or thing liable to be confiscated under section 10 of this Ordinance forfeited and to condemn the same, whatever may be the amount or value thereof, anything in the Criminal Procedure Code to the contrary notwithstanding; and any Police Magistrate by whom any person is convicted of an offence under this Ordinance may direct that a portion not exceeding one-half of the fine actually recovered, and also a like portion of the proceeds of the sale of any thing or animal forfeited as aforesaid, be paid to any person giving information which has led to the conviction.

Power of Governor to prohibit exportation of dried meat.

14 The Governor in Executive Council may by Proclamation prohibit the exportation of dried meat during such period as may seem expedient, and may in like manner alter, amend, or revoke any such Proclamation.

After any such Proclamation and during the period therein named, it shall be unlawful for any person to export dried meat; and any person exporting or attempting to export dried meat during such period, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to simple or rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or to both, and the dried meat in respect of which such conviction was had and all receptacles containing the same shall be forfeited.

Powers of Assistant Government Agents.

15 The powers and duties by this Ordinance assigned to the Government Agent may be exercised and performed by any Assistant Government Agent within the limits of his district.

SCHEDULE.

License to remove Dried Meat.

A. B. (insert name and occupation of licensee), of _____, is hereby licensed to transport a quantity of dried meat not exceeding _____ pounds in weight from _____ (insert place or district from which dried meat is to be transported) in the _____ Province to _____ (insert name or district to which meat is to be transported) in the _____ Province by means of _____ (insert number and description of carts or other means of transport).

This license will be in force until _____, 190 —.

(Signed) _____

Government Agent.

This _____ day of _____, 190 —.

By His Excellency's command,

HUGH CLIFFORD,

Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, February 28, 1908.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of the Draft Ordinance is to check the wasteful destruction of game by placing the traffic in dried meat under control.

2. The Draft Ordinance prohibits the removal of dried meat from any proclaimed area in quantities exceeding 20 lb. without a license from the Government Agent of the Province. "Proclaimed area" has been defined to mean a revenue district or chief headman's division from which the Governor in Executive Council has prohibited the removal of dried meat, except in accordance with the provisions of the Ordinance. The license is subject to a stamp duty at the rate of five rupees for every hundred pounds of dried meat authorized to be removed, and the Government Agent is given a discretionary power, subject to appeal to the Governor in Executive Council, to refuse to issue licenses.

3. The Draft Ordinance provides for the punishment of offences, and gives power of search to certain police and forest officers and headmen, and empowers Police Courts to try all offences under the Ordinance, and to forfeit all things liable to forfeiture thereunder.

Provision is also made for the reward of informers and for the punishment of persons who are reasonably suspected of transporting meat illegally, unless they satisfy the Magistrate of their innocence.
