Conditions referred to.

1. The lands will be leased subject to annual rent.
2. The annual rent will be fixed on the basis of the existing rent for each occupied lot at Rs. 6 per 25 feet by 60 feet and a premium of Rs. 50, i.e., half the value of the land.
3. The lease shall be for thirty years.
4. The first year's rent shall be paid at the time of sale.
5. For the purpose of calculating rent the year shall commence on January 1 and end on December 31, and rent for any year shall be paid before February 28 in such year.
6. Where the land adjoins any public path or road no building shall be erected within 40 feet of the centre of such road, or where there is an existing reservation within 10 feet of such reservation measuring from a point directly below the eaves.
7. In the case of buildings erected on land covered by condition 6, such buildings shall be raised at least 2 feet from the ground and the roof shall be of tiles.
8. No tat, sunshade, or protection of any kind shall be erected so as to infringe condition 6.
9. In the case of failure to pay rent by February 28, or in case of breach of any other condition, the lease shall be forfeited and the Government Agent shall be at liberty to resume possession.
10. Provided that in the case of leases for lands previously held on Tickets of Occupancy, the Government Agent may offer such land to the occupant without competition and subject to such conditions as he may think advisable. Such conditions shall be recorded in writing in the lease.
11. The lessee will on no account be allowed to subdivide his holding.

By His Excellency's command,

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.
