In the District Court of Colombo.

Lunacy No. 491. In the matter of the lunacy of Rosaline Anna de Jong, trading as Philip T. de Jong & Sons.

I FIND that the estate of this lunatic is heavily indebted, and that there are several other creditors whose names appear in the list of liabilities filed by the Manager on May 30, 1907. I cannot allow the money deposited in this case to be drawn at present by any particular creditors who have imposed a seizure on it. I think it should be distributed pro rata amongst all the creditors of the lunatic who are able to satisfy me by affidavit or otherwise of the truth and correctness of the claim, and for this purpose let this case be called a month hence, for May 14. The interests of a lunatic must be protected in the same way as those of a minor.

JOSEPH GRENIER,
District Judge.
