DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to prevent the removal of Sand, Stone, Coral, and other Substances from the Seashore in certain Places.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is necessary to make better provision for the prevention of damage caused by the removal of sand, stone, coral, and other substances from the seashore: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as "The Seashore Ordinance, 1908."

Repeal.

2 Ordinance No. 20 of 1865, intituled " An Ordinance to provide against the removal of Stones and other Substances from certain parts of the Seashore," is hereby repealed.

Power of Government Agent to prevent removal of sand, stones, &c., from seashore.

3 (1) It shall be lawful for the Government Agent of any Province to prohibit the removal of sand, stone, coral, or other substances from any part of the seashore within his Province, not being within the jurisdiction of the Municipal Council of Colombo, adjoining or near any public road, thoroughfare, public work, public building, or adjoining or near any part of the Ceylon Government Railway, if such removal should in his judgment be calculated to injure such road, thoroughfare, public work, public building, or railway; and he shall cause notice of such prohibition to be given by such means as shall seem to him likely to give the greatest publicity thereto.

(2) As regards so much of the seashore as is within the jurisdiction of the Municipal Council of Colombo, the Governor in Executive Council may prohibit the removal of any of the substances mentioned in section 3 (1) from any part of such seashore, if such removal would, in his judgment, be calculated to cause any such injury as aforesaid, and may cause notice of the prohibition to be given as aforesaid.

Removal to include act causing displacement of sand, &c.

4 The words " removal of sand, stone, coral, or other substances from any part of the seashore " in the last preceding section shall include the doing of any act upon any property of any person or persons whomsoever causing the displacement of sand, stone, coral, or other substances from any part of the seashore.

Decision of Government Agent under section 3 to be final.

5 Any person aggrieved by any prohibition made under section 3 (1) may appeal to the Governor in Executive Council, who, after such inquiry, if any, as may appear necessary may confirm, vary, or set aside the order of the Government Agent. Subject to such appeal and to the decision of the Governor in Executive Council thereon, the order of the Government Agent under section 3 (1) shall not be liable to be called in question, but shall be conclusive and binding upon all persons whatsoever.

Penalty for removal in contravention of prohibition.

6 Any person who in contravention of any notice given under section 3 removes any sand, stone, coral, or other substances, or causes or assists in the removal thereof, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction thereof to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding three months, and the sand, stone, coral, or other substance removed may be confiscated.

By His Excellency's command,

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, June 17, 1908.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE main object of the Draft Ordinance is to protect the Ceylon Government Railway and public works and public buildings from injury likely to arise from the removal, from parts of the seashore near them, of sand, stones, and other substances, in the same way as public roads and thoroughfares are now protected by Ordinance No. 20 of 1865.

2. The most important alterations are (1) a provision that within the jurisdiction of the Municipal Council of Colombo the power of prohibiting the removal of these substances is given to the Governor in Executive Council and not to the Government Agent, and (2) a provision for appeal to the Governor in Executive Council from the decision of the Government Agents.

Colombo, June 4, 1908.

ALFRED G. LASCELLES,
Attorney-General.
