DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend in certain particulars the Ceylon Penal Code.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend in certain particulars "The Ceylon Penal Code" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"): Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

This Ordinance may be cited as "The Ceylon Penal Code Amendment Ordinance, 1909," and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance.

Addition of a new section 101 A.

2 The following section shall be inserted after section 101 of the principal Ordinance and shall be numbered 101 A:

Abetment in Ceylon of offences outside it.

101 A. A person abets an offence within the meaning of this Code, who in Ceylon abets the commission of any act without and beyond Ceylon which would constitute an offence if committed in Ceylon.

Addition of new section 220 A.

3 The following section shall be inserted after section 220 of the principal Ordinance and shall be numbered 220 A:

Resistance, obstruction, escape, or rescue in cases not otherwise provided for.

220 A. (1) Whoever in any case not provided for in section 219 or section 220 or in any other Ordinance for the time being in force intentionally offers any resistance or illegal obstruction to the lawful apprehension of himself or of any other person, or escapes or attempts to escape from any custody in which he is lawfully detained, or rescues or attempts to rescue any other person from any custody in which that person is lawfully detained, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine, or with both.

(2) The entries relative to section 219 of the principal Ordinance in the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, and eighth columns of the tabular statement of offences in schedule II. of "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898," shall be applicable to this section.

Amendment of section 302.

4 In section 302 of the principal Ordinance the words "imprisonment of either description" shall be substituted for the words "simple imprisonment."

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, March 15, 1909.

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of the Draft Ordinance is to remedy certain defects in the Penal Code.

Section 2 extends the scope of the offence of "abetment." Under the Penal Code, as it now stands, a person who in Ceylon abets the commission of an offence outside the Island is not punishable. The section explains the offence of abetment so as to include the abetment in Ceylon of the commission of offences committed outside Ceylon. A similar amendment has been found necessary in the Indian Penal Code.

Section 3 provides for the punishment of resistance to lawful arrest and escape from lawful custody in cases not provided for by the Penal Code or other law. The Penal Code is defective in this respect. It makes, for example, no provision for the case where a person who has been lawfully arrested on suspicion of having committed an offence escapes from custody. The Indian Code was similarly defective and was similarly amended.

Section 4 makes the punishment of attempting to commit suicide punishable with rigorous imprisonment as well as with simple imprisonment.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, March 4, 1909.

ALFRED G. LASCELLES,
Attorney-General.
