DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Licensing Ordinance, 1891."

Preamble:

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Licensing Ordinance, 1891," in certain particulars: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title:

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Licensing (Amendment) Ordinance, 1909," and shall be read and construed as one with "The Licensing Ordinance, 1891," hereinafter called "the principal Ordinance."

Addition of new sub-sections:

2 After sub-section (2) of section 39 of the principal Ordinance the following sub-sections shall be added and shall be numbered (3), (4), and (5):

Sale of liquor to bona fide travellers at hotels during closing hours.

(3) Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall preclude the keeper of an hotel for which a license has been granted under this Ordinance or any person in his employ from selling any intoxicating liquor at such hotel during the hours during which the sale of such liquor is prohibited by sub-section (2) of this section to bona fide travellers arriving during such hours by railway or steamboat, or to persons lodging in such hotel.

Proceedings against the keeper of an hotel.

(4) If in the course of any proceedings which may be taken against any keeper of an hotel (in this sub-section referred to as the accused) for infringing the provisions of this section, such person fails to prove that the person to whom the intoxicating liquor was sold (in this sub-section referred to as the purchaser) is a bona fide traveller, who has arrived as aforesaid by railway or steamboat, but the Police Magistrate is satisfied that the accused truly believed that the purchaser was a bona fide traveller as aforesaid, and further, that the accused took all reasonable precautions to ascertain whether or not the purchaser was such a traveller, the Police Magistrate shall acquit the accused; and if he thinks that the purchaser falsely represented himself to be a bona fide traveller as aforesaid, the Police Magistrate may direct proceedings to be instituted against such purchaser under section 40 of this Ordinance.

Permit to sell temporarily during closing hours.

(5) Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be held to prevent the Government Agent from issuing to the keeper of an hotel, for which a license has been granted under this Ordinance, a written permit authorizing the sale of any intoxicating liquor temporarily at such hotel during the hours during which the sale of such liquor is prohibited by sub-section (2) of this section on the occasion of large gatherings of people for purposes of reasonable recreation, and under conditions to be mentioned in such permit. The Government Agent shall levy at his discretion a stamp duty not exceeding one hundred rupees for every night such permit is in force.

By His Excellency's command,

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, May 3, 1909.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE Draft Ordinance adds to "The Licensing Ordinance, 1891," provisions—

- (a) Allowing intoxicating liquor to be supplied in hotels after the closing hour to bona fide travellers arriving by steamboat or railway; and
- (b) Authorizing the Government Agent to issue permits for the sale of intoxicating liquor in hotels after the closing hour on the occasion of large gatherings of people for the purpose of reasonable recreation.
