DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Nuwara Eliya Board of Improvement Ordinance, 1896."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Nuwara Eliya Board of Improvement Ordinance, 1896" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"): Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Nuwara Eliya Board of Improvement (Amendment) Ordinance, 1909," and this Ordinance and the principal Ordinance and the Ordinances amending the same may be cited collectively as "The Nuwara Eliya Board of Improvement Ordinances, 1896 to 1909."

Addition to section 30 (19).

2 The following words shall be added in continuation of sub-section (19) of section 30 of the principal Ordinance (as amended by Ordinance No. 14 of 1898), namely: "For the removal and disposal of night soil and house refuse ; and for charging and recovering fees from owners or occupiers for such removal and disposal when carried out by the Board of Improvement or by any contractor on their behalf."

By His Excellency's command,
HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, November 17, 1909.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to empower the Board of Improvement to make by-laws for the removal and disposal of night soil, and for charging and recovering fees for the service.

ALFRED G. LASCELLES,
Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Branch Roads Ordinance, 1896."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Branch Roads Ordinance, 1896" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"), in certain particulars: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title and construction.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as "The Branch Roads (Amendment) Ordinance, 1909," and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance.

Substitution of a new section.

2. For section 42 of the principal Ordinance there shall be substituted the following section:

Extension of Ordinance to roads other than cart roads.

42. (1) The Governor in Executive Council may by Proclamation extend the application of this Ordinance or of any specified provisions thereof to the construction, maintenance, and improvement, or to the maintenance and improvement only, of any road or bridge to which this Ordinance would not, but for such Proclamation, be applicable.

(2) Nothing in this Ordinance shall be held to preclude the Governor in Executive Council from extending the application of this Ordinance to the maintenance and improvement of roads and bridges which have previously been maintained by means of money or labour provided by any District Road Committee, or to the construction, maintenance, and improvement of roads or bridges which connect, or will, when completed, connect two principal thoroughfares.

By His Excellency's command,
HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, November 24, 1909.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of the Draft Ordinance is to remove doubts as to the power of the Governor in Executive Council, under section 42 of the Branch Roads Ordinance, to extend the provisions of the Ordinance to roads which have previously been maintained by the District Road Committee and to roads forming a connecting link between principal thoroughfares.

2. The consent of a majority of the proprietors of two-thirds of the acreage in the district will of course be, as before, a condition precedent to the application of the Ordinance to any road.

Colombo, July 13, 1909.

ALFRED G. LASCELLES,
Attorney-General.

PASSED ORDINANCES.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 14 of 1909.

An Ordinance to remove doubts as to the validity of Marriages between Kandyans registered under "The Marriage Registration Ordinance, 1907."

HENRY MCCALLUM.

Preamble.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen whether marriages between Kandyans may be lawfully registered or solemnized according to the provisions of "The Marriage Registration Ordinance, 1907," and it is expedient that such doubts should be removed: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Kandyan Marriages (Removal of Doubts) Ordinance, 1909."

Legalization of marriages contracted between Kandyans under general marriage law.

2 It shall not be unlawful to solemnize or to register any marriage in accordance with the provisions of "The Marriage Registration Ordinance, 1907," nor shall any marriage heretofore solemnized or registered under the said Ordinance or under any of the enactments for which the same was substituted be deemed to be invalid by reason only that the parties thereto are or were Kandyans. Provided that—

- (a) Marriages so solemnized or registered between Kandyans shall, as regards the capacity of the parties to contract marriage, the grounds on which the marriage may be dissolved, and in all other respects, be governed by the provisions of "The Marriage Registration Ordinance, 1907;" and the provisions of the said "Amended Kandyan Marriage Ordinance, 1870," shall have no application whatever thereto.
- (b) The circumstance that a marriage between Kandyans has been solemnized or registered under "The Marriage Registration Ordinance, 1907," or under any of the enactments for which the same was substituted, shall not affect the rights of the parties or the rights of persons claiming title from or through them to succeed to property according to the rules of Kandyan law.

Interpretation.

3 In this Ordinance the word "Kandyans" means persons who might lawfully have contracted marriage under "The Amended Kandyan Marriage Ordinance, 1870."

Passed in Council the Twentieth day of October, One thousand Nine hundred and Nine.

A. G. CLAYTON,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Twenty-fifth day of November, One thousand Nine hundred and Nine.

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 15 of 1909.

An Ordinance to amend "The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Ordinance, 1907."

HENRY MCCALLUM.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Ordinance, 1907," hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (Amendment) Ordinance, 1909," and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance.

Construction.

Addition of new section 6 A.

2 Immediately after section 6 of the principal Ordinance (relating to the penalty for using animals unfit for labour) the following section shall be added and shall be numbered 6 A:

Power of Governor to establish infirmaries for the treatment of animals.

6 A (1) The Governor may by order in the Government Gazette appoint any institution established in Ceylon for the treatment of sick or injured animals to be an infirmary for the treatment and care of animals in respect of which offences under section 6 have been committed.

(2) Every such infirmary shall be open to inspection at all reasonable hours by any officer authorized in that behalf by the Governor.

(3) The Governor may, whenever he thinks fit to do so, rescind any order made under sub-section (1).

(4) The Police Magistrate before whom a prosecution for such an offence has been instituted may direct that the animal in respect of which the offence is alleged or proved to have been committed shall be sent for treatment and care to an infirmary and be there detained, until it is in his opinion, or in the opinion of some other Police Magistrate, again fit for the work or labour on which it has been ordinarily employed.

(5) The cost of the treatment, feeding, and watering of the animal in the infirmary shall be payable by the owner of the animal according to such scale of rates as the Government Agent of the Province may from time to time prescribe.

(6) If the owner refuses or neglects to pay such costs and to remove the animal within such time as the Police Magistrate may prescribe, the Police Magistrate may direct that the animal be sold, and the proceeds of the sale be applied to the payment of such costs.

(7) The surplus, if any, of the proceeds of the sale shall, on application made by the owner within two months after the date of the sale, be paid to him, but the owner shall not be liable to make any payment in excess of the proceeds of the sale.

Passed in Council the Twentieth day of October, One thousand Nine hundred and Nine.

A. G. CLAYTON,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Twenty-fifth day of November, One thousand Nine hundred and Nine.

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 16 of 1909.

An Ordinance to amend "The Youthful Offenders' Ordinance, 1886."

HENRY MCCALLUM.

- Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Youthful Offenders' Ordinance, 1886" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"): Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:
- Short title. 1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Youthful Offenders' (Amendment) Ordinance, 1909," and the principal Ordinance and this Ordinance shall be read and construed as one Ordinance, and may be cited collectively as "The Youthful Offenders' Ordinances, 1886 and 1909."
- Substitution of new sub-section 19 (c). 2 For sub-section (c) of section 19 of the principal Ordinance (relating to the power of the court to order youthful offenders to be whipped) as printed in the Revised Edition of the Legislative Enactments of Ceylon, 1907, the following sub-section shall be substituted:
- Power of court to order whipping. (c) Order the offender, if a male, to be whipped with not more than six strokes of a light cane or rattan in the case of a boy under the age of twelve, or, in the case of a boy above the age of twelve and below the age of sixteen, with not more than ten such strokes; such punishment to be inflicted within the court premises and in the presence, if he desires to be present, of the parent or guardian of the offender; or

Passed in Council the Twentieth day of October, One thousand Nine hundred and Nine.

A. G. CLAYTON,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Twenty-fifth day of November, One thousand Nine hundred and Nine.

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 17 of 1909.

An Ordinance to continue "The Public Servants' (Liabilities) Ordinance, 1899."

HENRY MCCALLUM.

- Preamble. WHEREAS by section 5 of "The Public Servants' (Liabilities) Ordinance, 1899," it was enacted that the said Ordinance should continue in force until the thirty-first day of December, One thousand Nine hundred and Four, or if the Legislative Council should be then in Session until the end of such Session; and whereas by "The Expiring Laws Continuance Ordinance, 1904," the said first-named Ordinance was continued in force until the thirty-first day of December, One thousand Nine hundred and Nine, or the close of the Session of the Legislative Council; and it is expedient that the said first-named Ordinance should be further continued in operation: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.	1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Public Servants' Liabilities (Extension) Ordinance, 1909."
Extension of "Public Servants' (Liabilities) Ordinance, 1899."	2 "The Public Servants' (Liabilities) Ordinance, 1899," shall be continued in operation after the date when it would have expired under "The Expiring Laws Continuance Ordinance, 1904," until the thirty-first day of December, One thousand Nine hundred and Fourteen.

Passed in Council the Twentieth day of October, One thousand Nine hundred and Nine.

A. G. CLAYTON,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Twenty-fifth day of November, One thousand Nine hundred and Nine.
