ABSTRACT OF SEASON REPORTS FOR THE MONTH ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 1894.

WESTERN PROVINCE.

COLOMBO DISTRICT.

Owing to the continued severe drought the yala crop is generally poor, while in some divisions the greater portion of the crop is much damaged by the excessive dry weather, though it has greatly facilitated harvesting operations.

The "muttes" crop in Alutkuru koralé south is greatly affected by the unfavourable weather.

The maha cultivations in Siyane and Héwágam koralés have also been damaged by the drought.

No jakfruit and breadfruit are now procurable. Plantains are scarce and dear. Vegetables, such as cucumber, brinjal, snake-gourd, and sweetpotato, are in fair supply, and can be had at reasonable prices. Sugarcane is plentiful and cheap. The extensive yam cultivations in Salpiti koralé are unfavourably affected by the dry weather.

The cocoanuts have also been adversely affected by the unfavourable weather, and prices vary from Rs. 30 to Rs. 40 a thousand nuts.

NEGOMBO DISTRICT.

Alutkuru koralé north: the fields sown for yala are partly damaged by the drought, those that are not damaged are being reaped; and fields for maha are being prepared and sown. Vegetables are plentiful; breadfruit and plantains are scarce and dear; coconut crops poor, prices good.

Hápitigam koralé: most of the fields sown for yala have been reaped and the crops threshed; crops middling; weather unfavourable during the early part of the month. Some fields cultivated for maha; crops not thriving. Some fields are being got ready for the second maha for inferior paddy. Jak and breadfruit out of season; plantains scarce and dear; mannokka and sweetpotatoes not abundant; coconut crops fair, prices high.

KALUTARA DISTRICT.

The yala crop was harvested all throughout the district during the month. The dry weather was very favourable for the harvesting work. The crop generally is considered fair. Preparations for the maha harvest are going on.

In the Pasdun korale vegetables are reported to be scarce; in the Rayigam korale they are cheap; and in the Totamunes they are plentiful.

The price of cocoanuts ranges from Rs. 30 to Rs. 35 a thousand.

All other deposits will be returned upon signature of contract.

9. All alterations or erasures in tenders should bear the initials of the tenderers, otherwise the tenders will be treated as informal and rejected.

All other deposits will be returned upon signature of a contract.

Sufficient sureties will be required to join in a bond for the due fulfilment of each contract. The amount of such bond, and all other necessary information, can be ascertained upon application at the office of the Director of Public Instruction.
