DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance relating to the publication of intended sales of Immovable Property affected by the "Thesavalamai" of the Northern Province of Ceylon.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the due publication of sales of immovable property in the parts of the Northern Province to which the Thesavalamai applies: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Repeal of Ordinance No. 1 of 1842.

1 From and after the date on which this Ordinance comes into operation the Ordinance-No. 1 of 1842, entitled "To make certain regulations respecting the granting of Schedules on execution of Deeds affecting Land in the Northern Province," shall be wholly repealed, but such repeal shall not affect any right, privilege, obligation, or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred, nor anything duly done or suffered under the said Ordinance, nor any penalty, forfeiture, or punishment incurred in respect of any omission, or neglect, or delay, or illegal demand under the said Ordinance, nor any legal proceedings or remedy in respect of any such right, liability, obligation, penalty, forfeiture, or punishment as aforesaid.

Notice of intended sales to be given to the registrar of lands.

2 In every case of intended sale of land within the aforesaid parts of the Northern Province, it shall be the duty of the vendor to give notice to the registrar of the district or registrars of the districts within which the land to be sold is situate, not less than twenty-one days then next preceding the date of such sale. Such notice shall state fully the names of the parties, the name, situation, and acreage of the land to be sold, and there shall be annexed to it a plan of such land, and such notice shall be in the form A in the schedule hereto, and shall bear a stamp of fifty cents.

Duty of registrar to receive and publish each notice.

3 Upon the receipt of such notice by the registrar, he shall forthwith endorse thereon the true date of such receipt, and shall file every such notice with the records of his office, and shall suspend a copy of such notice in a conspicuous place in his office, and shall cause other publication of such notice to be made by affixing a copy thereof at such conspicuous places in his district as shall for that purpose be appointed by the Registrar-General, and shall also forthwith enter a true copy of the said notice, together with the date of receipt of the same, into a book to be called the "Land Sale Notice Book," which shall be open at all reasonable times without fee to all persons desirous of inspecting the same.

Issue of a certificate of publication.

4 Upon the expiration of twenty-one days after the receipt of the said notice, it shall be the duty of the registrar to issue to the vendor a certificate of publication under his hand, provided that no lawful cause be shown to the satisfaction of such registrar why such certificate should not issue. Every such certificate shall state the particulars set forth in the notice and the day on which the notice was entered, and shall be in the form B in the schedule hereto.

Opposition to the issue of such certificate how disposed of.

5 If any cause be shown to the satisfaction of the registrar against the issue of such certificate of publication, the registrar shall forthwith make report thereof to the district court of the district within which the land is situate, and shall suspend such issue or such publication and all further proceedings thereon until it shall have been decided by such court whether such certificate ought to be issued or not. And such court shall as soon as possible after such report shall have been received take the same into consideration and decide in a summary way whether such certificate should issue or not, and from this decision there shall be no appeal.

Sale of land permissible within twelve months of the date of the issue of such certificate.

6 A certificate issued under this Ordinance shall remain of force for a period of twelve calendar months from the date of the issue thereof, and it shall be lawful for the vendor to execute a conveyance in the manner prescribed by law in favour of the vendee at any time within the said period, but not otherwise.

7 This Ordinance shall not apply to grants of land by the Crown.
