The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance relating to Criminals.

Preamble.	W HEREAS it is expedient to provide for the identification and supervision of habitual criminals and their more effective punishment, as also for enlarging convicts upon licenses and controlling them when at large: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—
Commencement.	1 This Ordinance shall come into force on the First day of January, 1895.
Definitions.	2 For the purposes of this Ordinance— A “crime” shall mean an offence included in the schedule A hereto; A “habitual criminal” shall mean a person convicted of a crime, against whom a previous conviction of a crime within seven years of the aforesaid conviction, exclusive of such time as he shall have been under sentence of imprisonment, is proved; “Measurement” includes every method of identification sanctioned by the Governor in terms of section 3 hereof; “Superintendent of police” shall include additional superintendent of police and assistant superintendent of police.
Rules to be made by Governor.	3 The Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, may from time to time make rules to regulate the identification and supervision of habitual criminals, or persons suspected of being habitual criminals; and rules regulating the conditions under which convicts may be at large and under the supervision of the police. All rules so made shall be published in the Government Gazette , and shall, on the expiry of thirty days from such publication, have the force of law. And such rules, with the like advice, may from time to time be repealed, altered, or amended as to the Governor shall seem necessary.

Power to remand persons charged, for purposes of identification.

4 When a person charged with a crime upon prima facie evidenced is suspected of having been previously convicted for a crime, it shall be lawful for the complainant or a police officer to apply to the police magistrate before whom such person stands charged for an order of remand to cause inquiries to be made and to have the measurement of such person taken for purposes of identification; and the police magistrate shall remand such person from time to time for such period as to the police magistrate shall seem necessary, provided that no person shall be remanded at any one time for a longer period than two weeks or more often than three times for such purpose.

Habitual criminals, before what courts to be tried.

5 If a person convicted of a crime is found to have been previously convicted of a crime within seven years of the last conviction, exclusive of such time as he shall have been under sentence of imprisonment, it shall not be lawful to deal with him in a summary manner, but the police magistrate shall, anything in the Criminal Procedure Code to the contrary notwithstanding, commit him for trial before the district or Supreme Court as may be determined by the Attorney-General or Solicitor-General. And if such person is found to have been previously convicted twice or oftener within the said period of seven years, he shall be committed before the Supreme Court.

Power of court to direct supervision of habitual criminals after discharge from jail.

6 When a person is convicted of a crime and a previous conviction of a crime is proved against him, the court of trial may, in addition to any other punishment which it may award to him, direct that he shall be subject to the supervision of the police for a period not exceeding seven years, commencing immediately after his discharge from the jail.

Duty of habitual criminal to report himself.

7 Every person made subject as aforesaid to the supervision of the police shall, before discharge from jail, notify the place where he intends to reside to the superintendent of the prison in which he is detained, and within forty-eight hours of his release he shall report himself to the superintendent of police in charge of the district in which he resides, and shall, whenever he changes such residence within such district, notify each change to the said superintendent; and whenever he changes his residence from one district to another, he shall notify the change to the superintendent of police of the district which he is leaving and the superintendent of police of the district into which he is going to reside.

Punishment for neglect of such duty.

8 If any person, subject to the supervision of the police as aforesaid, remains in any place for forty-eight hours without notifying the place, or changes of, residence in manner provided in section 7, or fails to report himself once in each month to the superintendent of the police of the district in which he resides, he shall in every such case, unless he satisfies the court that he did his best to act in conformity with such provisions, be guilty of an offence under this Ordinance, and be liable on conviction to rigorous imprisonment for any period not exceeding six months.

Mode of proving previous conviction.

9 A previous conviction may be proved against any person by the production of a true extract of the substance and effect only of the charge and conviction under the hand of the chief clerk, secretary, or registrar of the court in which such person was convicted, and by proof of identity of the person against whom the conviction is sought to be proved with the person named in the true extract; and such extract shall be admissible in evidence without proof of the signature or official character of the person who appeared to have signed the same.

Grant of licenses to convicts to be at large.

10 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by an order in writing to grant to any convict undergoing sentence of imprisonment in any prison in this colony a license, in the form set forth in the schedule B hereto, to be at large in the colony or in any part thereof during such portion of his period of imprisonment, and upon such conditions as to the Governor shall seem fit. The Governor may revoke or alter such license, with the like advice of the Executive Council.

- Reasons involving forfeiture of licenses. 11 If any holder of a license, granted as aforesaid, be convicted of any crime (set forth in schedule A hereto), his license shall be forthwith forfeited by virtue of such conviction.
- Non-production of license or breach of any conditions of license declared on offence. 12 If any holder of a license granted as aforesaid—
 (1) Fail to produce his license when required to do so by any judge or police or other magistrate before whom he may be brought charged with any offence, or by any constable or officer of the police in whose custody he may be, and fails to make any reasonable excuse why he does not produce the same; or
 (2) Breaks any of the other conditions of his license that is not of itself punishable either upon indictment or upon summary conviction—he shall be deemed guilty of an offence punishable by imprisonment, rigorous or simple, for any period not exceeding six months.
- Arrest of license holder on suspicion. 13 Any constable or police officer may without warrant take into custody any holder of such a license whom he may reasonably suspect of having committed any offence, or having broken any of the conditions of his license, and may detain him in custody until he can be taken before a competent magistrate and dealt with according to law.
- Duty of magistrate to report conviction to Governor. 14 Where any holder of a license granted as aforesaid is convicted of an offence punishable under section 12, the magistrate convicting the prisoner shall report such conviction to the Governor, whereupon it shall be competent to the Governor to revoke the license of such prisoner.
- Consequences of forfeiture or revocation. 15 Where any license granted as aforesaid is forfeited in terms of section 11, or is revoked in pursuance of a conviction under sub-section 12, a person whose license is so forfeited or revoked shall, after undergoing any other punishment to which he may be sentenced for the offence in consequence of which his license is forfeited or revoked, further undergo a term of imprisonment equal to the portion of his term of imprisonment that remained unexpired at the time of the grant of license.

SCHEDULE A.

(Sections 2 and 11.)

Section of Penal Code.	Nature of Offence.
