HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations regarding Official Correspondence be published for the guidance of Public Officers.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, October 2, 1891.

E. NOEL WALKER,
Colonial Secretary.

1. COMMUNICATIONS addressed to the Colonial Secretary must be written in a distinct hand with dark ink, on a full sheet of paper, and an inner margin of about one-third of a page should be left.
2. Every letter so addressed should, as far as possible, be confined to a single subject. It is especially necessary to observe this regulation when the Governor's authority for any action is sought.
3. Heads of Departments are required to state, in their letters forwarding the communications of their subordinates or of others to Government, their own opinions and recommendations. They are required to do the same when reporting on communications made direct to Government and referred to them.
4. Any authority of law, regulation, or standing decision on the point submitted for the consideration or order of Government should be quoted in the letter submitting it.
5. The subject of which a letter treats should be briefly stated as a heading to it.
6. A letter should be dated from the place in which the officer is at the time when he subscribes his name to it.
7. Letters should be regularly numbered beginning from the commencement of each year, a separate series of numbers being used in addressing the Colonial Secretary. Reports on references from the Colonial Secretary's Office should bear a different series of numbers from those on letters to that office.
8. In all cases in which a letter relates to a matter which has formed the subject of previous correspondence, that previous correspondence must be quoted.
9. The paragraphs of all communications addressed to the Colonial Secretary must be numbered. Paragraphs of enclosures must also be numbered.
10. Heads of Departments should abstain from sending in to Government the letters they may receive from their subordinates when they can shortly embody all necessary information so received in their own letters and reports to Government. This does not, however, apply to letters on important matters; and it is to be borne in mind that every Head of a Department is bound to forward to the Colonial Secretary any letter which he may be requested by a subordinate officer so to forward (unless couched in improper and insulting language) accompanying it with his own remarks.
11. Letters from Heads of Departments should, in all important cases, be signed by them. When this is not possible, owing to absence or other causes, if the Head of the Department has either drafted the letter, or specifically directed the particular information to be furnished, the officer signing should insert the name of the Head of the Department in its proper place, adding "Signed" before it, and put his own name on the left side of the page; thus, in the case of a Government Agent:—

A. B.,
Office Assistant.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient Servant,
(Signed) C. D.,
Government Agent.

In other cases the signature should be that of the individual responsible for the letter, who should then sign:—

A. B.
for C. D.,
Government Agent.

This rule applies not only to correspondence with the Colonial Secretary, but to all correspondence between Public Departments.

12. Enclosures, if copies, may be on half sheets; if originals, the fly-leaf may be cut off to diminish the bulk of the enclosures. Original papers should never be sent when a copy is equally serviceable. Gazette notices should be sent on separate loose half-sheets, written on one side only.

13. Heads of Departments should send in to Government, as soon after the close of each quarter as possible, quarterly returns of petitions addressed to the Governor, and referred to them for report, and quarterly returns of letters from and to the Colonial Secretary. Printed forms are supplied for the purpose. The dates of answers should be inserted in the column left for that purpose; and where no replies are required a note should be made to that effect.

14. The following Public Officers only are permitted to correspond direct with Government :—

The Judges of the Supreme Court.
 The Attorney-General.
 The Auditor-General.
 The Treasurer.
 The Commissioner of Stamps.
 The Commissioners of Currency.
 The Military Departments.

Collectors of Customs should correspond with Government through the Principal Collector of Customs.

Local Boards should correspond with Government through the Government Agent of the Province.

15. Letters which are addressed to Government in disregard of these regulations will be returned for compliance therewith.

PASSED ORDINANCES.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 2.—1891.

An Ordinance to amend the Law respecting the Exercise of Admiralty Jurisdiction in this Colony.

A. E. HAVELOCK.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by section 3 of an Act of the Imperial Parliament, called "The Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890," it is enacted that the Legislature of a British possession may by any colonial law—

- (a) declare any court of unlimited civil jurisdiction, whether original or appellate, in that possession, to be a colonial court of admiralty, and provide for the exercise by such court of its jurisdiction under the said Act, and limit territorially, or otherwise, the extent of such jurisdiction; and
- (b) confer upon any inferior or subordinate court in that possession, such partial or limited admiralty jurisdiction under such regulations, and with such appeal (if any) as may seem fit: Provided that any such colonial law shall not confer any jurisdiction which is not by the said Act conferred upon a colonial court of admiralty:

And whereas it is expedient to declare the Supreme Court of the Island of Ceylon a colonial court of admiralty, and to provide for the exercise by such court of its jurisdiction under the said Act, and to confer upon some of the district courts in this Colony a partial or limited admiralty jurisdiction: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Ceylon Courts of Admiralty Ordinance, 1891."

Supreme Court declared a colonial court of admiralty.

2 It is hereby declared that the Supreme Court of the Island of Ceylon shall be a colonial court of admiralty, and such court shall have jurisdiction, subject to the provisions and limitations contained in the said "Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890," over the like places, persons, matters, and things as the admiralty jurisdiction of the High Court in England, whether existing by virtue of any Statute or otherwise, and such colonial court of admiralty may exercise such jurisdiction in like manner and to as full an extent as the High Court in England, and shall have the same regard as that court to international law and the comity of nations.

Appointment of district courts for admiralty purposes.

3 If at any time after the passing of this Ordinance it appears to the Governor in Executive Council expedient that any district court should have admiralty jurisdiction, it shall be lawful for the Governor, in Executive Council, by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette, to appoint that court to have admiralty jurisdiction accordingly, and to assign to that court as its district for admiralty purposes any part or parts of any one or more district or districts; and the district so constituted for that court with the parts of the sea (if any) adjacent to that district to a distance of three miles from the shore thereof shall be deemed its district for admiralty purposes; and accordingly the judge and all officers of the court shall have jurisdiction and authority for those purposes throughout that district as if the same was the district of the court for all purposes; and from a time to be specified in each such

Proclamation, this Ordinance shall have effect in and throughout the district so constituted; and any such order may be from time to time varied as seems expedient, and a district court so appointed to have admiralty jurisdiction, and no other district court, shall, for the purposes of this Ordinance, be deemed a district court having admiralty jurisdiction.

Extent of admiralty jurisdiction of district courts.

4 Any district court having admiralty jurisdiction shall have jurisdiction, and all powers and authorities relating thereto, to try and determine the following causes:—

- (1) As to any claim for salvage in any cause in which the value of the property saved does not exceed ten thousand rupees, or in which the amount claimed does not exceed three thousand rupees.
- (2) As to any claim for towage, necessaries, or wages in any cause in which the amount claimed does not exceed one thousand and five hundred rupees.
- (3) As to any claim for damage to cargo or damage to ships by collision or otherwise, or damage done by any ship in any cause in which the amount claimed does not exceed three thousand rupees.
- (4) Any cause in respect of any such claim or claims as aforesaid, but in which the value of property saved or the amount claimed is beyond the amount limited as above-mentioned, when the parties agree, by a memorandum signed by them or by their attorneys or recognised agents, that any district court having admiralty jurisdiction and specified in the memorandum shall have jurisdiction.

As to transfer from district court by order of Supreme Court.

5 The colonial court of admiralty, on motion by any party to an admiralty cause pending in a district court, may, if it shall think fit, with previous notice to the other party, transfer the cause to the colonial court of admiralty, and may order security for costs, or impose such other terms as to the court may seem meet.

As to transfer of causes by order of district court to colonial court of admiralty.

6 If during the progress of an admiralty cause in a district court it appears to the court that the subject-matter exceeds the limit in respect of amount of the admiralty jurisdiction of the court, the validity of any order or decree theretofore made by the court shall not be thereby affected, but (unless the parties agree, by a memorandum signed by them or by their attorneys or recognised agents, that the court shall retain jurisdiction) the court shall by order transfer the cause to the colonial court of admiralty; but that court may, nevertheless, if the judge of that court in any case thinks fit, order that the cause shall be prosecuted in the district court in which it was commenced, and it shall be prosecuted accordingly.

As to transfer of causes to other district courts or colonial court of admiralty.

7 If during the progress of an admiralty cause in a district court it shall appear to the court that the cause could be more conveniently prosecuted in some other district court or in the colonial court of admiralty, the court may by order transfer it to such other district court or to the colonial court of admiralty, as the case may be, and the cause shall thenceforward be so prosecuted accordingly.

Restrictions on proceedings in the colonial court of admiralty.

8 If any person shall take in the colonial court of admiralty proceedings which he might, without agreement, have taken in a district court, except by order of the judge of the colonial court of admiralty or of a district court having admiralty jurisdiction, and shall not recover a sum exceeding the amount to which the jurisdiction of the district court in that admiralty cause is limited by this Ordinance, and also if any person without agreement shall, except by order as aforesaid, take proceedings as to salvage in the colonial court of admiralty in respect of property saved, the value of which when saved does not exceed ten thousand rupees, he shall not be entitled to costs, and shall be liable to be condemned in costs unless the judge of the colonial court of admiralty before whom the cause is tried or heard shall certify that it was a proper admiralty cause to be tried in the colonial court of admiralty.

- Powers, &c., of judges.
- 9 In an admiralty cause in a district court the cause shall be heard and determined in like manner as ordinary civil causes are now heard and determined in district courts, save and except that in any admiralty cause of salvage, towage, or collision, the district judge shall, if he think fit, or on the request of either party to such cause, be assisted by two nautical assessors.
- Power to judge of district court to summon nautical assessors to his assistance.
- 10 In any such admiralty cause as last aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the judge of the district court, if he think fit, and he shall, upon request of either party, summon to his assistance, in such manner as the rules of court under this Ordinance shall direct, two nautical assessors, and such nautical assessors shall attend and assist accordingly.
- Decrees in district courts in admiralty causes to have same force as those in civil causes.
- 11 The decree of the district court in an admiralty cause shall be enforced against the person or persons summoned as the defendant or defendants in the same manner as the decrees of the said court are enforced in ordinary civil causes, save and except as in this Ordinance otherwise provided.
- Admiralty causes to be heard at usual courts.
- 12 The judge of every district court having admiralty jurisdiction shall hear and determine admiralty causes at the usual court held within his jurisdiction, or at special courts to be held by him, and which he is hereby required to hold as soon as may be after he shall have had notice of an admiralty cause having arisen within the jurisdiction of his court.
- Appointment of assessors in district court.
- 13 The secretary of each district court having admiralty jurisdiction shall from time to time frame a list, to be approved by a judge of the colonial court of admiralty, before whom the same shall be laid by the district court judge, and without whose approval it shall have no validity, of assessors, of persons of nautical skill and experience residing or having places of business within the district of the district court, to act as assessors in that court, and shall cause the list to be published in the Government Gazette.
- Attendance of assessors.
- 14 Every person named in the list of assessors so framed and approved shall attend the district court under such circumstances and in such rotation, and subject to such regulations, and shall receive such fees for his attendance as the rules of court under this Ordinance shall direct; and for every wilful non-attendance shall be liable at the discretion of the court to a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees.
- Removal of assessors.
- 15 Every assessor named in such list shall hold his office until a new list of assessors shall have been framed and approved as aforesaid.
- Power to secretary to administer oaths and take evidence.
- 16 The secretary of a district court shall have power to administer oaths in relation to any admiralty cause in a district court; and any person who shall wilfully depose or affirm falsely before the secretary in any admiralty cause shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence of giving false evidence, and shall be liable to all the pains and penalties attaching to such offence.
- Proceedings in district court for commencement of cause.
- 17 Proceedings in district courts in an admiralty cause shall be commenced—
- (1) In the district court having admiralty jurisdiction within the district of which the vessel or property to which the cause relates is at the commencement of the proceedings.
 - (2) If the foregoing rule be not applicable, then in the district court having admiralty jurisdiction in the district of which the owner of the vessel or property to which the cause relates, or his recognised agent in Ceylon resides, or if such owner or agent does not reside within any such district, then in the district court having admiralty jurisdiction the district whereof is nearest to the place where such owner or agent resides.

- (3) If for any reason the last foregoing rule is not applicable or cannot be acted on, then in such district court having admiralty jurisdiction as rules of court under this Ordinance direct.
- (4) In any case in the district court or one of the district courts having admiralty jurisdiction which the parties by a memorandum, signed by them or by their attorneys or recognised agents agree shall have jurisdiction in the cause.

Limitation of arrest.

18 In an admiralty cause in a district court, if evidence be given to the satisfaction of the judge that it is probable that the vessel or property to which the cause relates will be removed out of the jurisdiction of the court before the plaintiff's claim is satisfied, it shall be lawful for the said judge to issue a warrant for the arrest and detention of the said vessel or property, unless or until bail to the amount of the claim made in such cause, and to the reasonable costs of the plaintiff in such cause, be entered into and perfected, according to rules of court under this Ordinance, by or on behalf of the owner of the vessel or property or his recognised agents or other defendant in such cause; and, except as in this section expressly provided, there shall be no arrest or detention of a vessel or property in an admiralty cause in a district court otherwise than in execution.

Power to issue process.

19 For the execution of any decree or order of a district court in an admiralty cause, the court may order, and the secretary on such order may seal and issue, and any officer of any district court may execute process, according to the rules of court under this Ordinance; provided that where under such process a vessel or property would or might be sold, then, if the owner of the vessel or property desires that the sale should be conducted in the colonial court of admiralty instead of in the district court, he shall be entitled, on security for costs being first given, and subject and according to such other provisions as the rules of court under this Ordinance direct, to obtain an order of the district court for transfer of the proceedings for sale, with or without (as the judge of the district court thinks fit) the transfer of the subsequent proceedings in the cause to the colonial court of admiralty, which court shall have jurisdiction and all powers and authorities relating thereto accordingly.

Conduct of sale,
&c., in court of admiralty.

20 On an appeal under this Ordinance, the judge of the colonial court of admiralty, if it appears to him expedient that any sale decreed or ordered to be made of the vessel or property to which the cause relates should be conducted in the colonial court of admiralty instead of in the district court from which the appeal is brought, may direct the transfer of the proceedings for sale, with or without the transfer of the subsequent proceedings in the cause to the colonial court of admiralty, which court shall have jurisdiction, and all powers and authorities relating thereto accordingly.

Appeal to Supreme Court.

21 Subject to rules of court under this Ordinance, a decree, judgment, or order of the district court made in the exercise of the jurisdiction conferred on it by this Ordinance shall be subject to appeal to the colonial court of admiralty in like manner as a decree, judgment, or order of the district court in the exercise of its ordinary civil jurisdiction may be appealed from to the Supreme Court, and the colonial court of admiralty for the purposes of such appeal shall possess and exercise all the powers now vested in the Supreme Court in its ordinary appellate jurisdiction.

Rules of court.

22 (1) Rules of court for regulating the procedure and practice (including fees and costs) in the colonial court of admiralty and district courts in the exercise of the jurisdiction conferred by this Ordinance, whether original or appellate, may be made by the judges of the Supreme Court or any two of them, of whom the Chief Justice shall be one, and in the same manner as general rules and orders may be made under the provisions of section 55 of "The Courts Ordinance, 1889."

Provided that the rules under this section shall not extend to matters relating to the slave trade, and shall not (unless otherwise ordered by Her Majesty in Council) come into operation until they have been approved by Her Majesty in Council, but on coming into operation shall have full effect as if enacted in this Ordinance, and any enactment inconsistent therewith shall, so far as it is so inconsistent, be repealed.

(2) The rules made under this section shall provide for the exercise of any jurisdiction conferred by this Ordinance on the colonial court of admiralty by the full court or by any judge or judges thereof, and subject to any rules, where the ordinary civil jurisdiction of the Supreme Court can in any case be exercised by a single judge, any jurisdiction conferred by the Ordinance may in the like case be exercised by a single judge.

Commencement of Ordinance.

23 (1) This Ordinance shall not come into operation until Her Majesty's pleasure thereon has been publicly signified by the Governor by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, and until such day after the first day of July, 1891, as the Governor shall appoint by the same or any other Proclamation published in the Government Gazette.

(2) If on the commencement of this Ordinance rules of court have not been approved by Her Majesty in pursuance of the Ordinance, the rules in force at such commencement under "The Vice-Admiralty Courts Act, 1863," including any rules made with reference to Her Majesty's ships, shall, so far as applicable, have effect in the colonial court of admiralty and in district courts having admiralty jurisdiction as rules of court under this Ordinance, and may be revoked and varied accordingly; and all fees payable under such rules or rules under this Ordinance may be taken and applied in such manner as the Governor in Executive Council may direct, so however that the amount of each such fee shall so nearly as practicable be paid to the same officer or person who, but for the passing of this Ordinance, would have been entitled to receive the same in respect of like business. So far as any such rules in force at the commencement of this Ordinance are inapplicable or do not extend, the rules of court for the exercise by the district court of its ordinary civil jurisdiction shall have effect as rules for the exercise by the same court of the jurisdiction conferred by this Ordinance.

Passed in Council the Sixteenth day of September, One thousand Eight hundred and Ninety-one.

H. L. CRAWFORD,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Twenty-first day of September, One thousand Eight hundred and Ninety-one.

E. NOEL WALKER,
Colonial Secretary.

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF THE COLOMBO LAUNDRY COMPANY, LIMITED.

It is agreed that the regulations contained in the table C in the schedule annexed to "The Joint Stock Companies' Ordinance, 1861, subject to the hereinafter-mentioned modifications, shall be deemed to be the regulations of the Company. The modifications are as follows:—

Transfer of Shares.—The Directors may decline to register the transfer of any share or shares held by a Shareholder, which in the interest of the Company they deem it inexpedient to register.

Every instrument of transfer shall be left at the office of the Company for approval by the Directors, accompanied by such evidence as may be required by the Directors to prove the title of the transferor. If the transfer be approved, such approval shall be certified in writing under the hand of two of the Directors endorsed on such instrument of transfer, and the Company shall thereupon register the transferee as a Shareholder. If the transfer be not approved, the proposed transfer shall be absolutely void, and notice of non-approval shall be sent to the Shareholder intending to transfer such share. If no notice of non-approval shall be sent to the Shareholder within thirty days, the transfer shall be deemed to have been approved.

Forfeiture of Shares.—Forfeited shares may be redeemed by the party whose shares have been declared forfeited at any time before they are disposed of, on payment of the amount of calls due, interest, and all costs incurred, and on payment thereof such shares shall re-vest in the person entitled thereto before the forfeiture, and be held by him in the same manner as if the call in respect of which they were forfeited had been duly paid.

Increase of Capital.—The capital may be increased or decreased with the sanction of the Shareholders given by a special resolution at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company held for the purpose, of which notice shall have been previously given.

Quorum at General Meeting.—No business shall be transacted at any Meeting except the declaration of a dividend, unless a quorum of Shareholders is present at the commencement of such business, and five Shareholders shall form a quorum.

Vote of Shareholders.—Each Shareholder shall be entitled to one vote for every five shares held by him, and any shareholder having less than five shares shall be entitled to one vote only. Shares may be registered in the name of a firm, and any partner of the firm or representative duly authorised to sign the name of the firm shall be entitled to vote in respect of such shares.

Any partner of a firm holding registered shares, or the representative of such firm duly authorised and notified as hereinafter provided, or any representative by power of attorney of any absent Shareholder duly authorised and notified as hereinafter provided, shall be entitled not only to speak and vote at the Meetings of the Company, but shall also have power to appoint a proxy to represent his interests at such Meetings, provided always that no person can be appointed to act as proxy who is not a Shareholder in the Company.

Power of attorney and proxies to vote at Meetings of Shareholders shall not be required to be deposited at the registered office of the Company, but it shall be sufficient if they are produced to the Chairman at the Meeting by the Shareholders holding the same, and examined at any time before taking the vote at which they are to be used.

Directors.—Until other or further provision is made at some General Meeting, the number of Directors shall be not less than five, three of whom shall form a quorum, and the first Directors shall be the subscribers to Memorandum of Association.

Every Director shall hold not less than ten shares in the Company.

Powers of Directors.—Directors shall have the power to do the following things in the name and on behalf of the Company:—

From time to time to appoint and remove such managers, superintendents and officers, bankers and proctors or solicitors to the Company, as they may deem expedient; and appoint an attorney or attorneys under the seal of the Company to act specially, when necessary, on behalf of the Company out of the Island; and to appoint and remove one or more of their number to Managing Directors, and to fix the salaries of such persons.

To draw receipts, make, accept, and endorse any bill of exchange or promissory note that may be considered necessary by a Meeting of the Board of Directors for the purpose of the business of the Company.

To borrow and re-borrow on behalf of the Company any sum of money they may deem expedient, either for the purchase or leasing of land, or for the purpose of extension of the business of the Company; to give security for money so borrowed or any part thereof, debentures or mortgage, or debentures secured by mortgages, such mortgages being on the whole or any part of the landed or personal property of this Company, bonds, bills of exchange, promissory notes, or such other securities as they may think fit, provided that the whole amount of moneys due in respect of loans at any one time does not exceed half of the nominal capital of the Company, unless by consent of the Company given at a General Meeting of the Shareholders, after due notice of an intended resolution to increase the amount of loans, specifying the amount proposed to be borrowed and the amount of existing loans and debts.

To carry into effect all or any of the objects of the Company as expressed in the Memorandum of Association, and to exercise all or any of the powers thereby given to the Company.

And provided further, that all moneys, except the money required for current expenses, shall from time to time be deposited by the Directors with the bankers of the Company to the account of the Colombo Laundry Company, Limited, and that all cheques must be signed, and all bills drawn, accepted, and endorsed by one Director and the Secretary. Provided further, that the Directors shall not have the power to purchase shares of the Company on behalf of the Company with its funds.

11. Meetings of the Directors and General Meetings.—The Directors shall meet once in two months, or more frequently if necessary. A General Meeting of the Shareholders shall be held as soon after the 31st December in each year as the books of the Company shall have been closed, of which Meeting not less than seven days' public notice shall be given.

The Directors shall, seven days prior to this Meeting, give or send to the registered address of every resident Shareholder or notified attorney of an absentee Shareholder, and also shall submit to this Meeting a correct statement of the affairs of the Company, their earnings and expenses during the past year, their assets and liabilities to the said 31st of December; and shall also submit for the consideration of the Meeting any information and suggestions likely to forward the general public convenience and the interests of the Company.

Besides the yearly General Meeting to be held as aforesaid, General Meetings shall be held at such other times as business of importance may render necessary.

12. Notices.—When shares are registered in the name of a firm, notice may be duly served upon such firm, by giving the same to any member thereof, or any agent thereof duly notified as hereinafter provided, or by leaving such notices, or by sending them through the post in a letter addressed to the firm at their place of business.

It shall be imperative on every Shareholder resident abroad to have an agent or attorney, resident in Ceylon, lawfully authorised and notified to the Company as being authorised to receive on behalf of the said Shareholder all notices which the said Shareholder may be entitled to receive under these Articles or otherwise, and the Company shall not be bound to give notice to any Shareholder resident abroad, otherwise than by giving the same to the agent or attorney so authorised and notified.

Any Shareholder who shall not have a resident agent or attorney so authorised and notified, shall not be entitled to notice, and may be dealt with as having had notice, or as having agreed to dispense with notice, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Every person who, by operation of law, by transfer or other means, shall become entitled to any share, shall be bound by any and every notice or other document which, previous to his name and address being entered on the register in respect of his share, is given to the person from whom he derives his title.

When any notice or document is delivered or sent in accordance with these presents to the registered place or abode of a Shareholder, then, notwithstanding his being then deceased, and whether or not the Company have notice of his decease, such service of the notice or other document shall for all purposes of these presents be deemed service thereof on his heirs, executors, and administrators.
