PASSED ORDINANCES.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 2 of 1910.

An Ordinance to amend "The Branch Roads Ordinance, 1896."

HENRY MCCALLUM.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Branch Roads Ordinance, 1896" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"), in certain particulars: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title and construction.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Branch Roads (Amendment) Ordinance, 1910," and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance.

Substitution of new section 42.

2 For section 42 of the principal Ordinance there shall be substituted the following section:

Extension of Ordinance to roads other than cart roads.

42. (1) The Governor in Executive Council may, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, extend the application of this Ordinance or of any specified provisions thereof to the construction, maintenance, and improvement, or to the maintenance and improvement only, of any road or bridge whatsoever to which this Ordinance would not, but for such Proclamation, be applicable.

(2) Where a principal road has been or shall hereafter be constructed so as to connect with any branch road constructed under this Ordinance, or so as to connect any two such branch roads, the Governor may, in any case where he considers that it would be inequitable that the estates in the district should continue to contribute a moiety of the cost of improving and repairing such branch roads, allow each of such estates, instead of so doing, to contribute annually a fixed sum equal to the average amount of its contributions during the five years immediately preceding the construction of the principal road. Such fixed amount shall be carried to the credit of the general revenue of the Colony, and such branch roads shall be maintained and repaired out of general revenue as if they were principal roads.

(3) For the purposes of this section the expression "principal road" means a road constructed or maintained under the provisions of "The Road Ordinance, 1861."

Addition of further proviso to section 23.

3 The following further proviso shall be added to section 23 of the principal Ordinance :

Provided further, that where the Provincial Committee is satisfied that a portion of any estate, being not less than one quarter of its total area, is unfit for cultivation, such portion shall not be taken into account in assessing the contribution towards the cost of repairs and improvements to which such estate is liable under this section:

Passed in Council the Twenty-first day of April, One thousand Nine hundred and Ten:

Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Fourteenth day of May, One thousand Nine hundred and Ten.
