DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information—

An Ordinance to amend "The Ceylon Penal Code, 1883."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend in certain particulars "The Ceylon Penal Code, 1883," hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Penal Code (Amendment) Ordinance, 1910," and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance.

Amendment of section 296 A.

2 For the section, which by section 6 of "The Penal Code Amendment Ordinance, 1909," was added as section 296 A of the principal Ordinance, the following section shall be substituted, namely:

Persons under sixteen years of age found guilty of murder.

296 A. Provided that sentence of death shall not be pronounced on or recorded against a person who, in the opinion of the court, is under the age of sixteen years, but in lieu thereof the court shall sentence such person to be detained during the Governor's pleasure.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, June 10, 1910.

H. E. CRAWFORD,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE Penal Code Amendment Ordinance, 1909, added to the Penal Code a section (296 A) to the effect that sentence of death shall not be pronounced on or recorded against "a person under the age of sixteen years."

2. In view of a difficulty which has been experienced in proving the age of offenders in other parts of the Empire where the same provision has been made, it has been considered desirable that the Court should be given discretionary power in determining the age in the absence of undeniable evidence on the point.

3. With this object the Draft Ordinance substitutes for the words "a person under the age of sixteen years" the words "a person who, in the opinion of the Court, is under the age of sixteen years."

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance relating to the Compulsory Retirement of Public Officers.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Rules by which the compulsory retirement of public officers from the Public Service is now regulated have been made without statutory authority, and it is expedient that Statutory Authority should be supplied for such Rules and also for any further Rules with regard to the retirement of public officers which may hereafter become necessary: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Public Officers (Retirement) Ordinance, 1910."

Power to make rules for compulsory retirement of public officers.

2 (1) The Governor, subject to the approval of the Secretary of State, may make, and when made, may revoke, vary, or amend, rules regulating the age at which, and the conditions subject to which, public officers shall be required to retire from the Public Service.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the power conferred by the preceding sub-section, such rules may—

(a) Prescribe the age at which the retirement of public officers or of any particular class of public officers shall be compulsory.

(b) Provide, in such cases and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, for the extension of the employment of public officers beyond the age prescribed by rule for compulsory retirement, and for the exemption of any particular class of public officers from the operation of any rule relating to the compulsory retirement of public officers.

(c) Prescribe an age earlier than the age at which retirement from the Public Service is compulsory at which the Governor may, subject to such conditions as to notice and otherwise as may be prescribed, require public officers to retire from the Public Service.

Legalization of existing rule.

3 Rule No. 17 of the minute for collection of rules relating to pensions published on the ninth day of December, 1908, shall be deemed to have been lawfully made, and as valid as if it had been made in pursuance of express statutory authority.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, June 10, 1910.

H. L. CRAWFORD,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE Draft Ordinance has been prepared with the object of supplying statutory authority for the existing rules with regard to the compulsory retirement of public officers (vide No. 17 of the Pension Minute of December 9, 1908).

2. The Draft Ordinance legalizes the existing rule, and authorizes the Governor, subject to the approval of the Secretary of State, to make future rules on the subject of the compulsory retirement of public officers.
