DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend “The Notaries’ Ordinance, 1907.”

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend in certain particulars “The Notaries’ Ordinance, 1907” (hereinafter referred to as “the principal Ordinance”): Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as “The Notaries’ (Amendment) Ordinance, 1910,” and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance.

Amendment of section 4.

2 For section 4 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be substituted:

4. (1) Every proctor of the Supreme Court who has passed the prescribed examination in conveyancing either before or after his admission as such proctor, or has been admitted without examination in virtue of a legal qualification in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, shall be entitled, on application, to a warrant authorizing him to practise in the English language as a notary within the judicial division in which he resides.

(2) A proctor who is entitled under the preceding subsection to a warrant authorizing him to practise in the English language shall be entitled, on passing such examination in the Sinhalese language or in the Tamil language as the Governor may prescribe, to a warrant authorizing him to practise as a notary in the language or languages in which he has passed an examination.

Addition of new section 29 A. 3 After section 29 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be inserted and numbered 29 A :

Duty of Registrar-General to pay money received in composition of offences into the Treasury.

29 A. All moneys received by the Registrar-General in composition of any offence shall be paid into the Colonial Treasury.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, H. L. CRAWFORD,
Colombo, July 18, 1910. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE objects of the Bill are (a) to place Proctors of the Supreme Court in a more satisfactory position as regards their right to obtain warrants to practise as Notaries; and (b) to make it clear that all sums paid in composition of offences under the Notaries' Ordinance should be paid into the Colonial Treasury.

2. All Advocates and Proctors of the Supreme Court are eligible, under section 4 of "The Notaries Ordinance, 1907," for appointment to practise as Notaries in the English language, but the Ordinance has been administered on the principle of issuing a limited number of warrants to selected Proctors.

3. The Draft Ordinance acknowledges the title of all Proctors of the Supreme Court who have passed an examination in conveyancing to be given warrants to practise in the English language in the district in which he resides. This change, it is hoped, will give the public the services of a class of Notaries who, from having a better general knowledge of law, are more competent than the generality of the non-proctor Notaries, and will also remove the grounds of complaint which were inseparable from the system of selecting Proctors for appointment as Notaries. Proctors of the Supreme Court who have been admitted in virtue of a legal qualification in the United Kingdom are placed on the same footing as Proctors who have passed the prescribed examination in conveyancing.

4. In the Draft Ordinance there is no reference to Advocates, because Advocates do not, as a rule, claim to be appointed as Notaries, and notarial practice is hardly consistent with the profession of an Advocate.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, September 6, 1910.

WALTER PEREIRA,
Acting Attorney-General.
