Colombo, September 28, 1910.

H. L. CRAWFORD,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

By this Ordinance the definition of the term "road" given in the principal Ordinance (No. 10 of 1861 is enlarged to include, mainly, all waste land which has been marked off and reserved for the construction of any road, and all waste land which, not being private property, lies within a distance of 33 feet of the centre of a public thoroughfare.

All roads within the limits of Municipal and Local Board towns that are not comprised in the term "street" as defined in the Municipal Councils' Ordinance or the Local Boards' Ordinance, except those specially exempted by the Governor, are vested in Municipal Councils and Local Boards. Any road specially exempted by the Governor is to be deemed to be vested in the Provincial or District Road Committee of the Province or district in which the road lies.

The non-removal of a building that has been put up along a thoroughfare without notice to the Chairman of the District Road Committee is made a continuing offence.

By section 6 Provincial Engineers are given the right to exercise, within their respective Provinces, the powers vested in Road Committees as regards all places which by section 8 of the principal Ordinance are required to be deemed to be principal thoroughfares; and the law relating to the prescription of actions is declared to be inapplicable to public roads.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Muhammadan Marriage Registration Ordinance, 1886."

Preamble

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Muhammadan Marriage Registration Ordinance, 1886" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"): Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Muhammadan Marriage Registration (Amendment) Ordinance, 1910," and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance.

Insertion of new section.

2 After section 23 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be added and numbered 24:

Relationship rendering carnal knowledge incestuous.

24. (1) Any person who carnally knows, or attempts to have carnal knowledge of, a woman or girl who is to his knowledge—

- (a) His daughter or other lineal descendant; or
- (b) His mother or other lineal ascendant; or
- (c) His sister by the full or the half blood; or
- (d) The daughter of his brother or of his sister by the full or the half blood or a descendant from either of them; or
- (e) His mother's or father's sister by the full or the half blood; or
- (f) His wife's mother or grandmother; or
- (g) The daughter or granddaughter of his wife by another father; or
- (h) His son's, grandson's, father's, or grandfather's wife or widow—

shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be punishable with imprisonment, simple or rigorous, for any period not exceeding one year.

For the purpose of this sub-section it is immaterial that the carnal knowledge was had, or that the attempt was made, with the consent of the woman or girl.

(2) Any woman or girl of or above the age of eighteen years who permits any man to have carnal knowledge of her knowing him to be—

- (a) Her father or other lineal ascendant; or
- (b) Her son or other lineal descendant; or
- (c) Her brother by the full or the half blood; or
- (d) The son of her brother or sister by the full or the half blood or a descendant from either of them; or
- (e) The son of her husband by another mother; or

- (g) The brother by the full or the half blood of her father, mother, or other lineal ascendant; or
- (h) Her husband's father or grandfather—

shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be punishable with imprisonment, simple or rigorous, for any period not exceeding one year.

It is a defence to a charge of the offence defined in this sub-section that the woman or girl was at the time of the offence acting under the coercion of the person having carnal knowledge of her.

(3) Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to make valid a marriage, which would otherwise be invalid according to the Muhammadan law in force in Ceylon.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, H. L. CRAWFORD,
Colombo, September 29, 1910. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Ordinance is intended to supply an omission in "The Muhammadan Marriage Registration Ordinance, 1886," by adding a section to it prohibiting and penalizing incest among persons professing the Muhammadan faith in Ceylon.
