DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend in certain particulars Ordinance
No. 11 of 1842, intituled "An Ordinance to provide for a Church in Kandy."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend in certain particulars Ordinance No. 11 of 1842, intituled "An Ordinance to provide for a Church in Kandy": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title and construction.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Kandy Church (Amendment) Ordinance, 1910," and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance.

Addition of new section 13 A.

2 After section 13 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be added and numbered 13 A, namely:

Power to trustees to acquire property and maintain parsonages, schools, and missions, &c., out of income and collections.

13 A. (1) It shall be lawful for the said trustees, after defraying such necessary expenses as are specified in the last preceding section, to spend any income, rents, revenues, interest, fees, collections, or subscriptions, or any other funds which may come into their hands as trustees, in the purchase or acquirement of property of any description for the purposes of their trust, or in the payment of the stipends of the clergy, teachers, and catechists of the said church, or in the erection or purchase of a parsonage for the use of the clergyman of the said church, or for the maintenance of such parsonage and of schools or missions attached to the said church, or on any other religious work connected with the said church.

Power to trustees to lease real property for a term not exceeding ninety-nine years.

(2) It shall be lawful for the said trustees to lease any portion or portions of the real estate and property vested in them as trustees, or any right or privilege over or affecting any such estate or property, for the purposes of their trust, provided that the following conditions be observed:

- (1) Every such lease shall be made to take effect in possession at or within one year next after the making thereof, and shall be for such term not exceeding ninety-nine years, as the trustees shall think proper.
- (2) On every such lease shall be reserved the best rent or reservation in the nature of rent, either uniform or not, that can be reasonably obtained.
- (3) Every such lease shall be by notarial instrument and shall contain a condition for re-entry on nonpayment of the rent for a period not less than twenty-eight days after it becomes due.
- (4) Every such lease shall contain such covenants, conditions, and stipulations as the said trustees shall deem expedient with reference to the special circumstances of the demise.

(3) It shall be lawful for the said trustees on the death, retirement, removal, or incapacity of the clergyman of the said church, to nominate a fit person to be clergyman thereof, subject to the consent of the Bishop of the diocese, and to such rules made by the synod of the diocese in regard to such nomination as may be lawfully binding on them.

(4) Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall affect the right of the said trustees to sell any real estate and property vested in them as trustees in pursuance of, and in accordance with, the terms and conditions contained in the instrument or deed of trust.

Amendment of sections 5 and 19.

3 In sections 5 and 19 of the principal Ordinance the word "clergyman" shall be substituted for the words "Colonial Chaplain."

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, October 12, 1910.

H. L. CRAWFORD,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

The necessity for this Ordinance has arisen chiefly from the fact that by Ordinance No. 14 of 1881 the salaries and allowances payable to the Bishop and the Clergy of the Church of England were prospectively abolished.

The Ordinance gives power to the Trustees of St. Paul's, Kandy, to apply the revenues of the Church for the payment of the stipends of the Clergy, &c., for the purchase of property for the purposes of the trust, and for the maintenance of all religious institutions in connection with the Church. It also gives them the right to nominate a person to be appointed as clergyman in the event of a vacancy, and also, as occasion requires, to lease property vested in them as Trustees.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, October 7, 1910.

WALTER PEREIRA,
Acting Attorney-General.
