DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Loan Board Ordinance, 1865."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the auditing of the accounts of the Loan Board: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Loan Board (Amendment) Ordinance, 1910," and shall be read and construed as one with "The Loan Board Ordinance, 1865," hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance."

2 After section 14 of the principal Ordinance the following sections shall be inserted and numbered respectively 14 A and 14 B, namely:

Duty of Board to keep books of accounts.

14 A. The Commissioners of the Loan Board shall from time to time order and direct a book or books to be kept, in which shall be entered true and regular accounts of all sums of money received, paid, and expended by the Loan Board, and of the several articles, matters, and things in respect of which sums of money shall have been disbursed.

Power to Colonial Auditor to audit accounts.

14 B. All accounts kept by the Board under the last preceding section or otherwise shall be subject to audit by the Colonial Auditor, who shall have power at all times, by himself or by any person appointed by him in writing, to inspect all books and documents of account, and to call for the production of all documents or vouchers necessary for the verification of such accounts.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, H. L. CRAWFORD,
Colombo, October 26, 1910. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is simply to provide for a periodical audit by the Colonial Auditor of the accounts of the Loan Board. Such audit has been deemed desirable, not only to ensure accuracy in the accounts, but improvements in the system under which they are kept.
