Galle, April 25, 1893.

R. W. IEVERS,
Acting Government Agent.

HITHERTO samples of dutiable articles have been allowed to pass through the British Post Office, and have, as a favour, been delivered to the addressees without any claim being made for Customs dues.

This concession has, however, been so largely abused by the transmission of goods intended for actual consumption, that it is found necessary to prohibit altogether the importation of dutiable articles by Sample Post. Any packet containing any of the goods mentioned in the following list will not be delivered to the addressee, but will at once be handed over to the Customs authorities for disposal.

This will effect no change as regards the transmission of dutiable goods by the Parcel Post Service.

List of Dutiable Articles.

Cacao; Coffee; Chicory; certain fruits, namely, Currants, Figs and Figcake, Plums and Prunes, Raisins, and dried Apricots; Tea; Tobacco, manufactured and unmanufactured, including Cigars, Cigarettes, and Snuff;

Hydrate of Chloral; Transparent Soap in the manufacture of which alcohol is used; Confectionery in the manufacture of which alcohol is used; Playing cards.
