1. All notices required to be given by these regulations shall be in the English, Sinhalese, or Tamil language, in the discretion of the Sanitary Board; and every notice addressed to any person may be served either personally upon such party, or by leaving it with some member of his household, or by affixing it to some conspicuous part of his residence.

2. The Sanitary Board shall appoint as many division officers as shall be necessary, and award to them such salary or remuneration as it deems fit, and may remove any division officer from his office and appoint another to succeed him.

3. Every person appointed a division officer shall, within ten days from the time of such appointment, give security to His Majesty, his heirs and successors, for the due and faithful execution of his office, in such amount as shall be determined by the Sanitary Board; and such security shall be given by way of mortgage of immovable property within this Island, or by deposit of money, in such manner as the said Sanitary Board shall appoint, and such mortgage bond shall be free of stamp duty.

4. Every householder shall, whenever thereunto required by the division officer of the town or village in which such householder resides, or by any person acting on behalf of such division officer, fill up a list containing the number of inmates, and the name, age, and occupation of every male person (including such householder himself, if a male), who usually resides in his house, so far as the same shall be known to him, and if any householder is unable to write, he shall furnish the required information to the division officer, or person acting on his behalf, who shall enter the same in such list; and any householder refusing or neglecting to comply with such requisition, or wilfully giving false information as to any matter or thing required to be inserted in such list, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50.

5. Every division officer shall carefully preserve and deal with the lists mentioned in the last preceding regulation as the Sanitary Board may from time to time direct, and such lists shall at all reasonable times be open to the inspection of any inhabitant of his town or village liable to perform labour.

6. Every division officer shall prepare every year, from the information contained in the lists before-mentioned, as well as from such other information as he may possess, a list of all persons resident within the limits of the town or village of which he is division officer and liable to perform labour, and shall send a copy of such list signed by him to the office of the Sanitary Board on or before December 21 in each year, and such list shall be published in the town or village to which it relates on or before January 31 in the following year by affixing a copy thereof to such conspicuous place in the town or village as the Chairman of the Sanitary Board shall appoint. Such publication shall constitute notice to every person named therein of his liability to perform labour.

7. Any division officer who shall commit any of the following offences shall be liable to the punishment hereinafter specified in each case:—

(a) If he shall make default in the paying of, or accounting for, any money received by him within the time and according to the directions appointed by the Sanitary Board, he shall be liable for every such offence to a fine not exceeding treble the amount of the money so due, in addition to any civil liability he may have incurred.

(b) If he shall by any wilful act, either of commission or omission, commit or attempt to commit any fraud in the execution of his office, or shall fraudulently alter, deface, destroy, or make away with any book, list, account, or document in his charge or custody, or which he was bound to preserve, he shall be liable for every such offence to such punishment as the court before which he shall be convicted may in its discretion award.

8. The Sanitary Board shall appoint such officers as it may deem necessary to have charge of the work on which labour is to be performed, and the officer in charge of any work shall give to the persons who have duly attended to perform, and have properly performed, the labour required of them for the year in which they have been so employed a certificate of the due performance of such labour, and any officer who shall wilfully neglect or delay to grant such certificate to any person justly entitled to the same shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50; and if any person shall deliver any such certificate to any other person, in order that such last-mentioned person may make use of the same in proof of his having performed the labour due by him, or for any other fraudulent purpose, both the person delivering such certificate to another for any such purpose, as well as the person deceitfully making use of the same as a certificate granted to him, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to such punishment as the court before which he is tried shall have power to impose.

9. Every officer in charge of any work shall inform the proper division officer in such manner as the Sanitary Board may direct what persons have duly attended to perform and have properly performed upon such work the labour due by them for the current year, and what persons have refused or neglected to do so.

10. It shall be lawful for the Chairman of the Sanitary Board, upon proof to his satisfaction that any person resident within any town or village and liable to perform labour is either from disease or bodily infirmity incapable of performing labour, to exempt such person from the performance thereof either for life or for such period as he, the Chairman, may think fit. Any person not already exempted for life or other specified period by such Chairman and desiring to be exempted from the performance of labour on any of the grounds in this regulation, or on the ground that he is above the age of 55 or under the age of 18 years, shall, on or before March 31 in the year for which exemption is claimed, apply to such Chairman for exemption. Such Chairman may in his discretion refuse in respect of the current year any application not presented within the time so limited.

11. Every person whose name is inscribed in the list mentioned in regulation 6, and which shall not have been struck off therefrom by the Chairman, shall be liable to labour on the roads, and the lists either before or after amendment, should any amendment to them be made, or any copy thereof certified to be a copy by the Chairman, shall be final and conclusive evidence of the liability to labour of any person whose name shall appear thereon, unless, in case of a copy, it shall be proved to the Sanitary Board that such list was not a true copy of the original.

12. A supplemental list, should such be found necessary, may be prepared in the same manner as the list mentioned in regulation 6. Provided that any such supplemental list shall be published not later than April 13 in any year, and provided that such supplemental list shall not include any person who was not an inhabitant on March 31 of that year.

13. Upon any supplemental list being so published, all the provisions of these regulations relating to lists shall apply, so far as may be practicable, to any such supplemental list in the same manner as if such list had been prepared and published under regulation 6.

14. No person liable to perform labour shall be required to attend for the performance thereof on a Sunday, nor except during the customary hours of labour.

15. Every division officer on being directed so to do by the Chairman of the Sanitary Board shall give notice to the inhabitants of his division liable to perform labour, who shall not in the manner hereinafter provided have commuted the same, to attend and perform such labour at the time and place appointed by the Chairman, and such notice shall be given by beat of tom-tom not less than seven days before the day appointed for the attendance of such inhabitants and in such other way as the Chairman shall direct. Provided that no such notice shall be given until the time during which a person is under regulation 22 allowed to commute shall have elapsed.

16. Any person liable to perform labour who has not commuted in the manner hereafter provided, and who shall without lawful excuse, the proof of which excuse shall be on such person, fail to attend to perform labour at the time and place appointed for that purpose, or who shall fail to pay the amount of commutation money due by him as hereinafter provided, shall be liable, on receiving notice so to do, to labour on the thoroughfares or public tanks of the town or village in which such person's liability to work arose for double the number of days for which such person was originally liable. Provided that any person who shall have become liable to the performance of the double labour under this regulation may commute such double labour in the manner hereinafter provided.

17. If any person attending to perform labour under any of the provisions of these regulations shall without lawful excuse, the proof of which excuse shall be on such person, neglect or refuse to remain in attendance during the working hours, or be guilty of any drunkenness, wilful neglect, or disobedience of the orders of the officer in charge, or of not taking due care of the tools and implements entrusted to him, or of any other misconduct in the performance of the labour, every such person shall after inquiry be liable to be condemned by the Chairman of the Sanitary Board to work for an extra number of days not exceeding three days for any one of the offences. Provided that the aggregate amount of punishment imposed upon any one person under this section shall not exceed six days' labour.

18. Whenever any person fails after receiving notice to attend, or neglects or refuses to perform or abandons the performance of double labour under regulation 16 or additional labour under regulation 17, he shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to the punishment provided by regulation 19, and the Chairman of the Sanitary Board of the district in which the town or village in which such person is bound to labour is situated is hereby empowered and required, unless such person be otherwise before him, to issue his warrant for the arrest of such person; every such warrant may be executed by the person or persons to whom it is addressed, or by any public officer, headman, Fiscal, or Fiscal's officer, and every such warrant shall be executable throughout the Island without any endorsement, anything in the Criminal Procedure Code to the contrary notwithstanding.

19. Any person arrested under the provisions of these regulations shall be taken without delay before the Chairman of the Sanitary Board, according to the terms of the warrant, and the Chairman upon being satisfied that the party arrested is the person against whom the warrant was issued, and that the offence mentioned in such warrant was committed by such person, shall by warrant commit such person to prison to be detained at hard labour for the period of one month. Provided that the Chairman may in his discretion, in lieu of committing such person to prison, adjudge him to pay a penalty of Rs. 10, and if such sum be paid forthwith, or within such time as the Chairman may allow, such person shall not be committed to prison, but otherwise he shall; and the Chairman may, if such person shall have been released prior to the payment of such fine when inflicted, issue, if necessary, a warrant for his arrest. Provided that if after the commitment of such person such penalty shall be paid, it shall be lawful for such Chairman to discharge such person out of prison. There shall be no appeal from any decision of the Chairman under this regulation. Any penalty so recovered shall be credited to Government.

20. A register shall be kept by the Chairman of the Sanitary Board in which shall be entered a list of all warrants issued under these regulations, the reasons for which such warrants were issued, and the punishment inflicted upon the offenders brought up in virtue of such warrants.

21. Any person sentenced to imprisonment under the provisions of these regulations may be imprisoned in the same way as if he had been condemned under the authority of a court.

22. It shall be lawful for any inhabitant to commute the performance of the labour due by him for any one year, except any double or increased labour to which he may have become liable under these regulations, by a money payment of such sum as the Sanitary Board may from time to time fix in respect of the town or village in which such inhabitant resides. And it shall be lawful for any person who shall have become liable to the performance of double labour to commute such double labour by the payment of double the amount of the rate of commutation leviable in that town or village at any time previous to the day on which such person shall have been notified to perform double labour.

23. Any person desiring to commute the performance of labour by a money payment shall pay the amount due by him on or before March 31 in each year, and up to such date a person shall not be liable to the penalties provided by regulation 16.

24. The amount due by any person as commutation money shall be paid to a division officer of the town or village to which the person liable to pay may belong, or to the Chairman of the Sanitary Board, who shall grant a receipt therefor, and any money paid as such commutation money shall be deemed and taken to be a payment to His Majesty.

25. If any person shall deliver any receipt given to him by the division officer or by the Chairman of the Sanitary Board to any other person, in order that such last-mentioned person may make use of the same in proof of his having paid any sum of money due by him, or for any other fraudulent purpose, or if any person shall deceitfully make use of any receipt given to any other person by a division officer or by a Chairman of a Sanitary Board as a receipt given to him, such persons, or either of them, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to such punishment as the court before which they or either of them may be tried shall impose.

26. Every offence against any of these regulations may be inquired into, tried, and determined by the Police Court within the jurisdiction of which the offence was committed.

27. The Sanitary Board shall have the application, direction, and control of the labour due under these regulations, and of the amount paid as commutation money; and it shall be lawful for such Board to apportion the amount paid as commutation money between the several towns and villages in the Mannar District brought under the operation of "The Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892," in such manner as it may think fit.
