DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Rubber Thefts Prevention Ordinance, 1908."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend in certain particulars "The Rubber Thefts Prevention Ordinance, 1908" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"): Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title and construction.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Rubber Thefts Prevention (Amendment) Ordinance, 1911," and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance.

Substitution of a new section for section 16 of the principal Ordinance.

2 For section 16 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be substituted, namely:

Possession of rubber or wet rubber reasonably suspected to have been stolen.

16 (1) Any person who is found in possession or charge of any rubber or wet rubber which is suspected to have been stolen may be charged with being in possession of rubber which is reasonably suspected of having been stolen; and if such person does not give an account to the satisfaction of the Police Magistrate as to how he came by such rubber or wet rubber, and the Police Magistrate is satisfied that, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, there are reasonable grounds for suspecting such rubber or wet rubber to have been stolen, such person may be convicted of an offence under this Ordinance.

(2) Where any police officer or peace officer finds any person in possession or charge of rubber or wet rubber which he suspects to have been stolen, such rubber or wet rubber may be seized, and such person may be brought before a Police Magistrate and charged as aforesaid.

(3) Upon a conviction under this section the Police Magistrate may direct the rubber or wet rubber in respect of which the accused was convicted, if the same has been seized, to be restored to any person who he is satisfied is the lawful owner thereof, otherwise he shall order the same to be forfeited.

(4) An appeal shall lie to the Supreme Court from every conviction or order under this section, the provisions of section 335 of "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898," notwithstanding.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, April 7, 1911.

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

The object of this Ordinance is to place "rubber" as defined by the principal Ordinance on the same footing as "wet rubber" as regards the offence created by section 16 of that Ordinance.

2. "Rubber" and "wet rubber" are separately defined in the principal Ordinance, and, inasmuch as manufactured articles wholly or partly made of rubber are expressly excluded from the definition of "rubber," there is no reason why the penal provisions relating to the unlawful possession of "wet rubber" should not be extended to such possession of "rubber." In prosecutions for the unlawful possession of "rubber" miscarriages of justice have occurred owing to the difficulty of adducing positive proof of the fact that such rubber was stolen property.
