The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Rubber Thefts Prevention Ordinance, 1908."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend in certain particulars "The Rubber Thefts Prevention Ordinance, 1908" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"): Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title and construction.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Rubber Thefts Prevention (Amendment) Ordinance, 1911" and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance.

Substitution of a new section for section 16 of the principal Ordinance.

2 For section 16 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be substituted, namely:

Possession of rubber or wet rubber reasonably suspected to have been stolen.

16 (1) Any person who is found in possession or charge of any rubber or wet rubber which is suspected to have been stolen may be charged with being in possession of rubber which is reasonably suspected of having been stolen; and if such person does not give an account to the satisfaction of the Police Magistrate as to how he came by such rubber or wet rubber, and the Police Magistrate is satisfied that, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, there are reasonable grounds for suspecting such rubber or wet rubber to have been stolen, such person may be convicted of an offence under this Ordinance.

(2) Where any police officer or peace officer finds any person in possession or charge of rubber or wet rubber which he suspects to have been stolen, such rubber or wet rubber may be seized, and such person may be brought before a Police Magistrate and charged as aforesaid.

(3) Upon a conviction under this section the Police Magistrate may direct the rubber or wet rubber in respect of which the accused was convicted, if the same has been seized, to be restored to any person who he is satisfied is the lawful owner thereof, otherwise he shall order the same to be forfeited.

(4) An appeal shall lie to the Supreme Court from every conviction or order under this section, the provisions of section 335 of "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898," notwithstanding.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, April 7, 1911.

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to place "rubber" as defined by the principal Ordinance on the same footing as "wet rubber" as regards the offence created by section 16 of that Ordinance.

2. "Rubber" and "wet rubber" are separately defined in the principal Ordinance, and, inasmuch as manufactured articles wholly or partly made of rubber are expressly excluded from the definition of "rubber," there is no reason why the penal provisions relating to the unlawful possession of "wet rubber" should not be extended to such possession of "rubber." In prosecutions for the unlawful possession of "rubber" miscarriages of justice have occurred owing to the difficulty of adducing positive proof of the fact that such rubber was stolen property.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to make better provision for the prevention of damage caused by the removal of Sand, Stone, Coral, &c., from the Seashore and Sea.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is necessary to make better provision for the prevention of damage to land bordering the sea, and buildings thereon, caused by the removal of sand, stone, coral, and other substances from the sea and seashore: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Seashore Protection Ordinance, 1911."

Repeal.

2 Ordinance No. 20 of 1865, intituled "An Ordinance to provide against the removal of Stones and other Substances from certain parts of the Seashore," is hereby repealed.

Governor to proclaim area from which sand, &c., may not be removed.

3 The Governor may, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," proclaim any part of the seashore of this Island as an area from or over which no sand, stone, coral, or other substance shall be removed, and thereupon it shall not be lawful for any person to remove from such area or from the bed of the sea contiguous thereto to a distance of 1 mile from the shore any sand, stone, coral, or other substance without a license from the Government Agent of the Province within which such area or the larger part of it is situated, which license shall specify and define as far as practicable the spot or place from which sand, stone, coral, or other substance may be removed, and may set forth such terms and conditions as to the Government Agent may seem proper, subject to which sand, stone, coral, or other substance may be removed.

Terms of Proclamation.

4 Every such Proclamation as aforesaid shall specify and define as far as practicable the exact limits of the area aforesaid, and the date from which such Proclamation shall take effect, and the Governor may, at any time with the advice of the Executive Council, revoke such Proclamation.

Government Agent may prohibit removal of sand, &c., from any particular spot on seashore.

5 It shall be lawful for the Government Agent of any Province to prohibit the removal of sand, stone, coral, or other substance from any spot or place on the seashore within his Province adjoining or near any public road, thoroughfare, public work, or public building, or adjoining or near any part of the Ceylon Government Railway, if such removal be, in his judgment, calculated to injure such road, thoroughfare, public work, public building, or railway, and he shall cause notice of such prohibition to be given by such means as shall seem to him likely to give sufficient publicity thereto.

Penalty for contravention of Ordinance.

6 Any person who in contravention of the provision of section 3 of this Ordinance, or contrary to the terms of any license issued under the said section, or in contravention of a prohibition under section 5, removes any sand, stone, coral, or other substance, or causes, or assists in, such removal, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding three months.

Meaning of "removal of sand," &c.

7 The removal of sand, stone, coral, or other substance contemplated by sections 3, 5, and 6 of this Ordinance shall include the doing of any act upon any property whether belonging to any person or persons whomsoever or otherwise, which causes the disturbance or displacement of sand, stone, coral, or other substance on or from any place on the seashore or bed of the sea aforesaid.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, April 13, 1911.

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this draft Ordinance is to prevent the indiscriminate removal of sand, coral, and other substances from the sea and seashore to the detriment of lands bordering the sea and buildings thereon. Some years ago an area (with trees and houses on it) about a mile in length and a quarter of a mile in width in the Southern Province was swept away owing to the breaking up by lime burners of the coral reef along the south-west coast, and complaint was made to Government by hundreds of landowners in the locality; and similar depredations are still being committed. Nearer Colombo the railway line and private lands are similarly exposed to danger owing to the removal, at different places and at different times, of large quantities of sand from the seashore.

2. It is not intended to prevent such removal altogether, but the intention is to regulate it by means of the issue of licenses. Whenever a certain area of the seashore is proclaimed by the Governor, removal of sand, coral, stones, and other substances from it or from the bed of the sea contiguous to it will not be permitted, except on a license to be issued by the Government Agent, who, of course, in issuing such license, will select places from which the removal of sand, &c., will expose the public to the least injury.

3. In order chiefly to consolidate the law on the subject Ordinance No. 20 of 1865 is repealed, but its provisions are repeated in section 5 of the draft Ordinance, extending them so as to protect the Ceylon Government Railway from injury by the removal of sand from the seashore.
