DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to make better provision for the prevention of damage caused by the removal of Sand, Stone, Coral, &c., from the Seashore and Sea.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is necessary to make better provision for the prevention of damage to land bordering the sea, and buildings thereon, caused by the removal of sand, stone, coral, and other substances from the sea and seashore: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Seashore Protection Ordinance, 1911."

Repeal.

2 Ordinance No. 20 of 1865, intituled "An Ordinance to provide against the removal of Stones and other Substances from certain parts of the Seashore," is hereby repealed.

Governor to proclaim area from which sand, &c., may not be removed.

3 The Governor may, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," proclaim any part of the seashore of this Island as an area from or over which no sand, stone, coral, or other substance shall be removed, and thereupon it shall not be lawful for any person to remove from such area or from the bed of the sea contiguous thereto to a distance of 1 mile from the shore any sand, stone, coral, or other substance without a license from the Government Agent of the Province within which such area or the larger part of it is situated, which license shall specify and define as far as practicable the spot or place from which sand, stone, coral, or other substance may be removed, and may set forth such terms and conditions as to the Government Agent may seem proper, subject to which sand, stone, coral, or other substance may be removed.

Terms of Proclamation.

4 Every such Proclamation as aforesaid shall specify and define as far as practicable the exact limits of the area aforesaid, and the date from which such Proclamation shall take effect, and the Governor may, at any time with the advice of the Executive Council, revoke such Proclamation.

Government Agent may prohibit removal of sand, &c., from any particular spot on seashore.

5 It shall be lawful for the Government Agent of any Province to prohibit the removal of sand, stone, coral, or other substance from any spot or place on the seashore within his Province adjoining or near any public road, thoroughfare, public work, or public building, or adjoining or near any part of the Ceylon Government Railway, if such removal be, in his judgment, calculated to injure such road, thoroughfare, public work, public building, or railway, and he shall cause notice of such prohibition to be given by such means as shall seem to him likely to give sufficient publicity thereto.

Penalty for contravention of Ordinance.

6 Any person who in contravention of the provision of section 3 of this Ordinance, or contrary to the terms of any license issued under the said section, or in contravention of a prohibition under section 5, removes any sand, stone, coral, or other substance, or causes, or assists in, such removal, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding three months.

Meaning of "removal of sand," &c.

7 The removal of sand, stone, coral, or other substance contemplated by sections 3, 5, and 6 of this Ordinance shall include the doing of any act upon any property whether belonging to any person or persons whomsoever or otherwise, which causes the disturbance or displacement of sand, stone, coral, or other substance on or from any place on the seashore or bed of the sea aforesaid.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, April 13, 1911.

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this draft Ordinance is to prevent the indiscriminate removal of sand, coral, and other substances from the sea and seashore to the detriment of lands bordering the sea and buildings thereon. Some years ago an area (with trees and houses on it) about a mile in length and a quarter of a mile in width in the Southern Province was swept away owing to the breaking up by lime burners of the coral reef along the south-west coast, and complaint was made to Government by hundreds of landowners in the locality; and similar depredations are still being committed. Nearer Colombo the railway line and private lands are similarly exposed to danger owing to the removal, at different places and at different times, of large quantities of sand from the seashore.

2. It is not intended to prevent such removal altogether, but the intention is to regulate it by means of the issue of licenses. Whenever a certain area of the seashore is proclaimed by the Governor, removal of sand, coral, stones, and other substances from it or from the bed of the sea contiguous to it will not be permitted, except on a license to be issued by the Government Agent, who, of course, in issuing such license, will select places from which the removal of sand, &c., will expose the public to the least injury.

3. In order chiefly to consolidate the law on the subject Ordinance No. 20 of 1865 is repealed, but its provisions are repeated in section 5 of the draft Ordinance, extending them so as to protect the Ceylon Government Railway from injury by the removal of sand from the seashore.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Ordinance amends "The Land Acquisition Ordinance, 1876," and its main object is to give the Chairman of the Municipal Council of Colombo powers similar to those conferred by the principal Ordinance on the Government Agent in respect of the acquisition of land situated within the limits of the Municipality. This is provided for by sections 2 and 3.

2. Section 4 provides that in the case of a reference to the District Court under section 11 solely for the decision of a question in which the claimants only have an interest, the Government Agent should ordinarily be entitled to the costs of the reference, which, of course, may eventually have to be borne by the unsuccessful claimant.
