PASSED ORDINANCES.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 17 of 1911.

An Ordinance to amend "The Opium Ordinance, 1910."

HUGH CLIFFORD.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Opium Ordinance, 1910": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Opium Ordinance, 1911," and shall be read as one with "The Opium Ordinance, 1910," hereinafter referred to as the principal Ordinance.

Provincial surgeon may exempt particular prescription from restrictions.

2 The following shall be added as an additional proviso to sub-section 2 (c) of section 4 of the principal Ordinance:

Provided further that a provincial surgeon, or a Medical Officer belonging to Grade I. of the Medical Department, by endorsement under his hand on any prescription, may exempt the person in whose name the prescription is drawn from the restrictions of the last preceding proviso for the purpose of such prescription.

Planters under certain conditions may supply opium to their immigrant coolies.

3 The following shall be added as an additional paragraph to sub-section 2 of section 4 of the principal Ordinance:

(d) Any planter with an immigrant cooly force of fifty or more persons, whose residence is over half a mile from a Government dispensary, or who has no estate dispensary on his estate and is not served by any estate dispensary, from supplying opium in a medicinal form for medicinal purposes to any immigrant cooly employed upon his estate for any period not exceeding three days in succession in any one case :

Provided that (subject to an appeal to the Governor in Executive Council) any planter who wilfully or persistently acts in contravention of any rule or rules made for the regulation of such supply under this Ordinance may be interdicted by the Principal Civil Medical Officer from supplying opium as aforesaid.

Possession of opium by planters for purpose of last section not subject to penalty.

4 The following paragraph shall be added to section 5 of the principal Ordinance :

(h) When it is in the possession of a planter for the purpose of being supplied to immigrant coolies under section 4 (2) (d).

Rules regulating supply of opium by planters.

5 The following paragraph shall be added to sub-section 2 of section 14 of the principal Ordinance :

(m) Regulate the conditions under which opium shall be supplied by planters to immigrant coolies under section 4 (2) (d).

Power to cancel consumer's certificate.

6 To section 11 of the principal Ordinance the following sub-sections shall be added, namely :

(5) Where any person who has been registered as a consumer of opium (hereinafter referred to as a registered consumer) has been convicted of any offence under this Ordinance, or under any rules made hereunder, or of any other offence which in the opinion of the Government Agent renders a cancellation of his certificate of registration expedient, the Government Agent shall cause the name of such person to be removed from the register.

(6) Where the name of a registered consumer has been removed from the register for any cause whatsoever, the Government Agent shall give notice to the registered consumer that his name has been so removed, and thereupon the registered consumer shall forthwith return his certificate of registration to the Government Agent for cancellation.

(7) If any registered consumer whose name has been removed from the register fails to return his certificate to the Government Agent within fourteen days of the date when such removal was notified to him, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding three months, or to both.

Offences to be triable summarily.

7 All offences against the principal Ordinance or this Ordinance shall be cognizable by a Police Court; and such court shall have jurisdiction to inflict the full amount of fine to which the offender shall be liable, notwithstanding that such fine may exceed in amount the ordinary jurisdiction of such court. Provided that nothing in this section shall derogate from the jurisdiction of any other court to try any such offence.

Date of operation.

8 This Ordinance shall come into operation on such date as the Governor, by notification in the "Government Gazette," may appoint.

Passed in Council the Thirtieth day of August, One thousand Nine hundred and Eleven.

A. N. GALBRAITH,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Twenty-second day of September, One thousand Nine hundred and Eleven.

L. W. BOOTH,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898."

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the provisions of "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898," with reference to the commutation of sentences: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title. 1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Criminal Procedure Code (Amendment) Ordinance, 1911."

New section 329. 2 Section 329 of "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898," is hereby repealed, and the following is hereby substituted in lieu thereof:

The Governor may, without the consent of the person sentenced, commute any one of the following sentences for any other mentioned after it:

Death.

Rigorous imprisonment for life.

Rigorous imprisonment not exceeding twenty years.

Simple imprisonment for any term not exceeding that to which such person might have been sentenced.

Fine.

By His Excellency's command,

L. W. BOOTH,

Colonial Secretary's Office, Acting Colonial Secretary.
Colombo, September 28, 1911.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Ordinance is proposed on two grounds. In the first place, its object is to facilitate the application of the Prisoners Removal Ordinance. It is found that it is not in accordance with the rules of the Convict Prison in the Andaman Islands that any prisoners should be confined there except those sentenced to imprisonment for life. The maximum sentence of imprisonment which may be imposed under section 329 of the Criminal Procedure Code is rigorous imprisonment for twenty years. It is accordingly proposed to give the Governor power in such cases to commute the sentence to imprisonment for life—a sentence which in practice, according to the Rules of the Andaman Convict Prison, is reduced by good conduct to a term of twenty years.

2. It is also felt that it ought to be in the power of the Governor, in commuting a sentence of death, to impose as an alternative a sentence calculated to have the greatest possible deterrent effect. The sentence of twenty years at present allowed by the Code is in practice reducible to one slightly over fifteen years. It is considered that such a term of imprisonment, as a maximum in such cases, is not adequate to the seriousness of the offence, and that it should be in the power of the Governor, when the occasion requires, in commuting a death sentence, to impose a sentence of lifelong imprisonment.

Colombo, September 15, 1911.

ANTON BERTRAM,
Attorney-General.
