DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Chamber of Commerce Ordinance, 1895."

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Chamber of Commerce Ordinance, 1895," hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title. 1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Chamber of Commerce (Amendment) Ordinance, 1912."

Construction. 2 The principal Ordinance and this Ordinance shall be read and construed as one Ordinance, and may be cited for all purposes as "The Chamber of Commerce Ordinances, 1895 and 1912."

Commencement of Ordinance. 3 This Ordinance shall come into force on such date as the Governor may, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.

Section 3 (1) repealed and section to be substituted in lieu thereof. 4 Section 3 (1) of the principal Ordinance shall be repealed and in lieu thereof the following section shall be substituted and numbered 3 (1):
 The affairs of the corporation shall be administered, subject to the rules for the time being of the corporation as hereinafter provided, by a Board of Directors consisting of the Chairman and Vice-Chairman respectively of the corporation and not less than five nor more than ten members of the corporation, to be elected respectively in accordance with the rules for the time being of the corporation.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, L. W. BOOTH,
Colombo, December 23, 1911. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE Directors of the Chamber of Commerce desire to have "The Chamber of Commerce Ordinance of 1895" amended in respect only of the number of Directors allowed, viz., five Directors, excluding the Chairman and Vice-Chairman.

2. The Chamber desires permission to appoint not less than five nor more than ten Directors (excluding Chairman and Vice-Chairman).

3. The reason for the proposed change is that the present number of five Directors does not permit of every section of trade and commerce being represented on the Committee or Board, which, in view of the increased trade of the port during the past sixteen years, has become highly desirable.

4. The Committee or Board do not propose electing more than two additional members in the meantime, viz., one representing the retail trade of the Colony and another the coaling business of the port, but they desire power to elect five additional members in all, so as to provide for further extension as the trade and commerce of the Island necessitate it.

Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance for the Validation of Proceedings by or before Registrars invalidated by Irregularities.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provisions for the validation of certain proceedings by or before registrars invalidated by irregularities: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Registrars' Proceedings Validation Ordinance, No. — of 1912."

Definition.

2 In this Ordinance "registrar" means any person discharging or purporting to discharge the function of registering in any public record any matter which is by law authorized or required to be registered.

Power of Governor in Council to validate certain invalid registration and proceeding.

3 Where whether before or after the passing of this Ordinance—

- (a) Any registration of a birth, death, marriage, document, or any other matter which is by law required or authorized to be registered; or
- (b) Any proceeding taken or purporting to be taken by or before a registrar by virtue of his office—is invalidated by reason of any informality, mistake, or accidental omission, whether relating to the appointment of the registrar, or the limits of his jurisdiction, or the manner in which the registration or proceeding was made or taken, or any other incidental circumstance, and no other means are by law provided by which the registration or proceeding may be validated, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Executive Council by Order in Council notified in the Government Gazette, to give directions for the correction of the mistake, informality, or omission, and to make any other order that may be necessary for the purpose of giving validity to the registration or proceeding.

Effect of validation.

4 Any registration or proceeding so validated shall have effect as if it was validly made or taken at its original date.

Savings as to the registration of documents.

5 Where the matter in question is the registration of a document, the provisions of this Ordinance shall be subject to the following savings :

- (a) No right, title, or interest that may have been acquired by a person not a party to the document between the date of its original registration and the date of its validation shall be prejudicially affected by such validation.
- (b) Nothing in this Ordinance shall be deemed to authorize the validation of a registration made after the interval prescribed by law for the making of such registration, where the validity of the registration depends upon its being made within the prescribed interval.

Saving as to marriages.

6 Where the proceeding in question is a marriage, nothing in this Ordinance shall be deemed to authorize the validation of a marriage otherwise invalid where any party to the marriage has subsequently contracted a valid marriage.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 6, 1912.

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

It has been time to time found that owing to accidental informalities registrations effected under various Ordinances (such as "The Marriage Registration Ordinance, 1907") or other proceedings taken by or before registrars are wholly invalid, and no means exists for their validation except a special Ordinance, such as Ordinance No. 12 of 1909.

2. It has accordingly been thought desirable to avoid the necessity of such special legislation by enacting a general Ordinance enabling the Governor in Executive Council to cure the informality by Order in Council.

3. Provision is made in clause 5 in the case of registration of documents for the protection of rights that have accrued in the interval between the registration and its validation, and for the exclusion of dilatory registrations from the benefit of the Ordinance.

4. In clause 6 provision is made for the protection of marriages celebrated in reliance on the invalidity of any proceeding sought to be validated under this Ordinance.

Attorney-General.
