DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance for the Validation of Proceedings by or before Registrars invalidated by Irregularities.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provisions for the validation of certain proceedings by or before registrars invalidated by irregularities: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Registrars' Proceedings Validation Ordinance, No. — of 1912."

Definition.

2 In this Ordinance "registrar" means any person discharging or purporting to discharge the function of registering in any public record any matter which is by law authorized or required to be registered.

Power of Governor in Council to validate certain invalid registration and proceeding.

3 Where whether before or after the passing of this Ordinance—

(a) Any registration of a birth, death, marriage, document, or any other matter which is by law required or authorized to be registered; or

(b) Any proceeding taken or purporting to be taken by or before a registrar by virtue of his office—is invalidated by reason of any informality, mistake, or accidental omission, whether relating to the appointment of the registrar, or the limits of his jurisdiction, or the manner in which the registration or proceeding was made or taken, or any other incidental circumstance, and no other means are by law provided by which the registration or proceeding may be validated, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Executive Council by Order in Council notified in the Government Gazette, to give directions for the correction of the mistake, informality, or omission, and to make any other order that may be necessary for the purpose of giving validity to the registration or proceeding.

Effect of validation.

4 Any registration or proceeding so validated shall have effect as if it was validly made or taken at its original date.

Savings as to the registration of documents.

5 Where the matter in question is the registration of a document, the provisions of this Ordinance shall be subject to the following savings :

(a) No right, title, or interest that may have been acquired by a person not a party to the document between the date of its original registration and the date of its validation shall be prejudicially affected by such validation.

(b) Nothing in this Ordinance shall be deemed to authorize the validation of a registration made after the interval prescribed by law for the making of such registration, where the validity of the registration depends upon its being made within the prescribed interval.

Saving as to marriages.

6 Where the proceeding in question is a marriage, nothing in this Ordinance shall be deemed to authorize the validation of a marriage otherwise invalid where any party to the marriage has subsequently contracted a valid marriage.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 6, 1912.

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

It has been time to time found that owing to accidental informalities registrations effected under various Ordinances (such as "The Marriage Registration Ordinance, 1907") or other proceedings taken by or before registrars are wholly invalid, and no means exists for their validation except a special Ordinance, such as Ordinance No. 12 of 1909.

2. It has accordingly been thought desirable to avoid the necessity of such special legislation by enacting a general Ordinance enabling the Governor in Executive Council to cure the informality by Order in Council.

3. Provision is made in clause 5 in the case of registration of documents for the protection of rights that have accrued in the interval between the registration and its validation, and for the exclusion of dilatory registrations from the benefit of the Ordinance.

4. In clause 6 provision is made for the protection of marriages celebrated in reliance on the invalidity of any proceeding sought to be validated under this Ordinance.

Colombo, November 30, 1911.

ANTON BERTRAM,
Attorney-General.
