DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Loan Board Ordinance, 1865."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Loan Board Ordinance, No. 4 of 1865" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"), in certain particulars: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Loan Board (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1912," and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance.

2 For section 16 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be substituted:

The Commissioners of the Loan Board shall pay to the Government of Ceylon as a contribution towards the expenses of the establishment of the Board one-fifth share of all interest accruing from the investments made by the Loan Board.

Provided that if in any year the said expenses amount to more than the said one-fifth share, the actual amount of such expenses shall be so deducted.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colombo, February 8, 1912. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE amount at present allotted from the interest accruing from investments made by the Loan Board to meet the expenses of the establishment of the Board is at present one-third of the total interest received. It is found in practice that this is more than is necessary for the purpose, and it is accordingly proposed to reduce that amount to one-fifth, with a proviso to meet the possibility of the expenses in any particular year exceeding that proportion.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, February 6, 1912.

ANTON BERTRAM,
Attorney-General.
