DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Volunteer Ordinance, 1910."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Volunteer Ordinance, 1910": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Volunteer Amendment Ordinance, No. of 1912," and shall be read as one with "The Volunteer Ordinance, 1910," hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance."

Verbal amendment of section 9.

2 In section 9 of the principal Ordinance the words "courses of instruction" shall be substituted for the words "course of instructions."

Amendment of powers of Governor with reference to decision of court of inquiry.

3 The following sub-section shall be substituted for sub-section (3) of section 11 of the principal Ordinance:

The Governor may call for a report of any court of inquiry, and may take such action thereon as he may deem fit.

Verbal amendment of section 18.

4 In section 18 (1) of the principal Ordinance the expression "such cause" shall be substituted for the expression "such causes respectively."

New section 19.

5 The following section shall be substituted for section 19 of the principal Ordinance :

Discipline of volunteers when undergoing drill, &c., with regular forces.

19. (1) With respect to the discipline of officers and volunteers when they are undergoing drill, exercise, training, or inspection, or voluntarily doing any other duty in conjunction with any part of His Majesty's Regular Forces, other than officers or non-commissioned officers permanently or temporarily attached to the staff of the Volunteer Force, the following provisions shall take effect :

The Army Act and any other Act for the time being amending the same shall, in so far as the same are applicable to officers and volunteers respectively and are consistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, apply to all officers and volunteers, with the following modifications only :

- (a) That no officer or volunteer shall for any offence against such Act or Acts be subjected to the penalty of death.
- (b) That no sentence of a court martial assembled in Ceylon for the trial of any officer or volunteer shall be carried into execution unless confirmed by the Governor.

Discipline of volunteers when on active service with regular forces.

(2) Where any force of volunteers or any other force raised in the Colony is on active service with part of His Majesty's Regular Forces, whether within or without the limits of the Colony, the Army Act and any Act for the time being amending the same shall apply to the officers and volunteers of such force in like manner as they apply to the officers and men of the Regular Forces.

Verbal amendment of section 26.

6 In sub-section (4) of section 26 of the principal Ordinance the word "ammunition" shall be substituted for the word "ammunitions."

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, April 20, 1912.

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE Ordinance is proposed for the purpose of giving effect to certain amendments to "The Volunteer Ordinance, 1910," suggested by the Army Council.

2. Section 3.—As section 11, sub-section (3), at present stands, it empowers the Governor to "amend, revise, and otherwise deal with the decisions" of a Court of Inquiry. It is pointed out that it is wrong in principle to empower the Governor to alter the findings of a Court. The amended formula contained in section 3 is accordingly to be substituted.

3. Section 5.—As section 19 stands at present, it establishes a distinction between the Volunteer Force and the Regular Forces when serving together on active service in regard to the law governing the decisions of courts martial, and the power of the General Officer Commanding His Majesty's Forces to give effect to those decisions. Such a distinction is held to be incompatible with the convenient conduct of military operations. Section 19 has accordingly been remodelled, and sub-section (2) puts the Volunteer Forces upon exactly the same footing for the purpose of discipline as Regular Forces with whom they may be engaged on active service. The remodelled section also contains certain verbal amendments, which it is not necessary to particularize.

4. Sections 2, 4, and 6.—These sections embody purely verbal amendments which explain themselves.

April 20, 1912.

ANTON BERTRAM,
Attorney-General.
