DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Game Protection Ordinance, 1909."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Game Protection Ordinance, 1909" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"), in certain particulars: Be it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Game Protection (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1912."

Special provision for destruction of elephants and tuskers when number excessive.

2 The following shall be added as a proviso to section 6 of the principal Ordinance:

Provided that whenever it shall appear to the Governor in Executive Council that in any district or area elephants or tuskers are so numerous as to be a menace to the safety of the inhabitants or of crops, plantations, or other property therein, or that for any other reason it is expedient that the number of such elephants or tuskers should be reduced, the Government Agent may grant special licenses, free of stamp duty, or subject to such duty as the Governor in Executive Council may deem fit to impose, to shoot at, kill, or capture elephants or tuskers on such terms, during such periods, and at such places as shall be specified in such licenses.

Enhancement of penalties.

3 In paragraph (6) of section 12 of the principal Ordinance the expression "two hundred rupees" shall be substituted for the expression "one hundred rupees," and the expression "six months" shall be substituted for the expression "three months."

Unlawful possession of tuskers.

4 The following section shall be added to the principal Ordinance and numbered 12 A :

(1) Any person in unlawful possession of a tusker shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months.

(2) A person shall be deemed to be in unlawful possession of a tusker, unless—

(a) He is the captor of such tusker under a license issued under this Ordinance ; or

(b) He is the successor in title to such captor ; or

(c) He is in possession on behalf of such captor, or his successor in title.

(3) In any proceedings for an offence under this section the onus of proving the lawfulness of the possession shall lie on the person accused.

Unlawful
possession of game, &c.

5 Sub-section (3) of section 13 of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed, the following sub-section being re-numbered accordingly, and the following new section is hereby enacted in lieu thereof :

13 B Any person who is found in possession of any fresh meat of game, or any fresh hides or horns of game, or of any freshly taken skin, feathers, or eggs of any game bird, of which he shall not be able to give a satisfactory account, shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, or to simple or rigorous imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months, or to both.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, March 2, 1912.

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE first object of this Ordinance is to provide means for relaxing the restrictions on the shooting of wild elephants in cases where they have become so numerous as to be a menace to the safety of the inhabitants of any district or to their crops or produce (section 2).

2. Its second object is to enhance the penalties which may be imposed for, inter alia, the breach of a condition endorsed on a license (more especially with a view to checking the destruction of an excessive number of deer), the existing penalties not being regarded as sufficiently deterrent.

3. Its third object is to provide for cases in which there is good reason to believe that a person is in possession of a tusker that has been unlawfully captured. At present the capture of a tusker without a license is an offence, but a man may purchase a tusker from its unlawful captor with impunity.

4. Its fourth object is to strengthen the Ordinance with reference to the unlawful possession of game. At present under section 13 (3) the onus of proof of lawful possession of game and its accessories is thrown upon the possessor only during the close season. Possession during the open season, however, may be equally unlawful, unless it is derived through a license, or has some other legal justification. It has been found in practice that notorious poachers have escaped punishment, because of the difficulty of procuring formal proof of the unlawfulness of their possession. The provision below cited has accordingly been extended to the open season, and has been re-drafted as a separate clause, on the model of section 21 of the Butchers' Ordinance, No. 9 of 1893.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, February 26, 1912.

ANTON BERTRAM,
Attorney-General.

Kraaling prohibited without the sanction of the Governor.

3 From and after the coming into operation of this Ordinance elephant kraaling is prohibited, except with the sanction of the Governor issued under the hand of the Colonial Secretary, and any person acting in contravention of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, or to imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to six months, or to both.

Power to Governor to make rules for the regulation of kraaling.

4 (1) The Governor may, by notification in the "Government Gazette," make such rules as to him may appear necessary for the regulation of elephant kraaling.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the power in the preceding sub-section contained such rules may—

(a) Prescribe the conditions under which sanction to kraal elephants will be granted under section 3.

(b) Prescribe the fees payable by an applicant to whom sanction is issued to kraal elephants.

(c) Prescribe the radius from a kraal within which no person, except those designated in the rule, may enter or pass without a permit in writing from the Government Agent of the province or the Assistant Government Agent of the district within which the kraal is erected.

(d) Prescribe the conditions under which such permit shall be issued.

(e) Prohibit the putting up of huts, stands, or other buildings or erections within a prescribed radius without a permit in writing from the Government Agent or Assistant Government Agent aforesaid.

(f) Prescribe the conditions under which such permit shall be issued.

(3) Such rules as aforesaid may be made not only to apply to kraals and elephant kraaling generally, but also to the case of any particular kraal about to be erected, or any particular kraaling operations about to take place at any particular locality.

Penalty for infringement of rules.

5 Any person committing a breach of the said rules shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or to imprisonment of either description for a period which may extend to three months, or to both; and it shall be lawful for any police officer not below the rank of inspector or any person authorized in writing by the Government Agent or Assistant Government Agent, without a warrant, to arrest or cause to be arrested any person found within a prohibited area and refusing to quit the same when required to do so, and to take him into his custody to be taken before a Police Court to be dealt with according to law, or to remove or cause to be removed such person outside the prohibited area and to prevent him from re-entering the same, and also to prevent all other persons not legally entitled to do so from entering the prohibited area, and also to remove or cause to be removed all huts, stands, and other buildings unlawfully erected within the same.

Ordinance not to apply to kraaling by persons to whom right to kraal at particular localities has been conceded by Government.

6 The provisions of this Ordinance shall not apply to elephant kraaling by any person who by the production of documents or other evidence satisfies the Governor that the right to kraal elephants at any particular locality has been conceded to him by the Government, and obtains from the Governor a writing under the hand of the Colonial Secretary certifying to such concession and setting forth the nature and extent of the right conceded.
