DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance, to amend "The Game Protection Ordinance, 1909."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Game Protection Ordinance, 1909" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"), in certain particulars: Be it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Game Protection (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1912."

Special provision for destruction of elephants and tuskers when number excessive.

2 The following shall be added as a proviso to section 6 of the principal Ordinance:

Provided that whenever it shall appear to the Governor in Executive Council that in any district or area elephants or tuskers are so numerous as to be a menace to the safety of the inhabitants or of crops, plantations, or other property therein, or that for any other reason it is expedient that the number of such elephants or tuskers should be reduced, the Government Agent may grant special licenses, free of stamp duty, or subject to such duty as the Governor in Executive Council may deem fit to impose, to shoot at, kill, or capture elephants or tuskers on such terms, during such periods, and at such places as shall be specified in such licenses.

Enhancement of penalties.

3 In paragraph (6) of section 12 of the principal Ordinance the expression "two hundred rupees" shall be substituted for the expression "one hundred rupees," and the expression "six months" shall be substituted for the expression "three months."

Unlawful
possession of tuskers.

4 The following section shall be added to the principal Ordinance and numbered 12 A :

(1) Any person in unlawful possession of a tusker shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months.

(2) A person shall be deemed to be in unlawful possession of a tusker, unless—

(a) He is the captor of such tusker under a license issued under this Ordinance ; or

(b) He is the successor in title to such captor ; or

(c) He is in possession on behalf of such captor, or his successor in title.

(3) In any proceedings for an offence under this section the onus of proving the lawfulness of the possession shall lie on the person accused.

Unlawful
possession of game, &c.

5 Sub-section (3) of section 13 of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed, the following sub-section being re-numbered accordingly, and the following new section is hereby enacted in lieu thereof :

13 B Any person who is found in possession of any fresh meat of game, or any fresh hides or horns of game, or of any freshly taken skin, feathers, or eggs of any game bird, of which he shall not be able to give a satisfactory account, shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, or to simple or rigorous imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months, or to both.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, March 2, 1912.

HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE first object of this Ordinance is to provide means for relaxing the restrictions on the shooting of wild elephants in cases where they have become so numerous as to be a menace to the safety of the inhabitants of any district or to their crops or produce (section 2).

2. Its second object is to enhance the penalties which may be imposed for, inter alia, the breach of a condition endorsed on a license (more especially with a view to checking the destruction of an excessive number of deer), the existing penalties not being regarded as sufficiently deterrent.

3. Its third object is to provide for cases in which there is good reason to believe that a person is in possession of a tusker that has been unlawfully captured. At present the capture of a tusker without a license is an offence, but a man may purchase a tusker from its unlawful captor with impunity.

4. Its fourth object is to strengthen the Ordinance with reference to the unlawful possession of game. At present under section 13 (3) the onus of proof of lawful possession of game and its accessories is thrown upon the possessor only during the close season. Possession during the open season, however, may be equally unlawful, unless it is derived through a license, or has some other legal justification. It has been found in practice that notorious poachers have escaped punishment, because of the difficulty of procuring formal proof of the unlawfulness of their possession. The provision below cited has accordingly been extended to the open season, and has been re-drafted as a separate clause, on the model of section 21 of the Butchers' Ordinance, No. 9 of 1893.

Attorney-General's Chambers,

Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

Preamble.	An Ordinance to amend "The Local Boards Ordinance, 1898." WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Local Boards Ordinance, 1898" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"): Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:
Short title and construction.	1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Local Boards (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1912," and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance.
Addition of certain words to section 28 of the principal Ordinance.	2 In section 28 of the principal Ordinance, after the words "or which may be made over at any time," there shall be added the words "by order of the Governor in Executive Council."

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colombo, May 13, 1912. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to elucidate a provision of "The Local Boards Ordinance, 1898," the effect of which is that moneys may from time to time be made over from the General Revenue to any Board for the purposes of the Ordinance. The method by which these moneys are to be made over is not particularized.

2. In reliance on a provision corresponding to this in the Ordinance of 1876, Governor Sir Arthur Havelock made over to Local Boards all fines imposed in cases brought by town constables under the Police Ordinance, No. 16 of 1865, and Local Boards have ever since enjoyed this source of revenue. The validity of the Governor's order having been doubted, this Ordinance has been introduced with a view to enable the present practice to be put upon an unimpeachable footing.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, May 1, 1912.

Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend Ordinance No. 28 of 1871, intituled "An Ordinance to provide for the Registration of Domestic Servants."
Preamble.	WHEREAS it is expedient to amend Ordinance No. 28 of 1871, hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:
Short title.	1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Domestic Servants Registration Ordinance, No. of 1912," and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance.
Addition of certain words to section 2 of principal Ordinance.	2 In the definition of "servant" in section 2 of the principal Ordinance after the word "horsekeepers" there shall be inserted the words "chauffeurs, private dhobies."

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colombo, May 14, 1912. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE main object of this Bill is to make it clear (in view of a recent decision of the Supreme Court that chauffeurs are "domestic servants" for the purpose of the law regulating the registration of such servants.

2. As the position of private dhobies under the Ordinance is obscure, advantage has been taken of the opportunity to define it.

An Ordinance to amend Ordinance No. 11 of 1865, intituled
 “An Ordinance to consolidate and amend the Law relating to Servants, Labourers, and Journeymen Artificers under Contracts for Hire and Service.”

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend Ordinance No. 11 of 1865, hereinafter referred to as “the principal Ordinance”: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as “The Master and Servant Ordinance, No. of 1912,” and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance.

Addition of certain words to section 1 of principal Ordinance.

2 The following words shall be added to section 1 of the principal Ordinance:
 and for the purpose of this definition the expression “domestic servant” shall include chauffeurs and private dhobies.

By His Excellency's command,
 Colonial Secretary's Office, HUGH CLIFFORD,
 Colombo, May 14, 1912. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE main object of this Bill is to make it clear (in view of a recent decision of the Supreme Court) that chauffeurs are “domestic servants” for the purpose of the law regulating contracts of hire and service.

2. As the position of private dhobies under the Ordinance is obscure, advantage has been taken of the opportunity to define it.
