DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Local Boards Ordinance, 1898."

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Local Boards Ordinance, 1898" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance"): Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon; by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title and construction. 1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Local Boards (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1912," and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance.

Addition of certain words to section 28 of the principal Ordinance. 2 In section 28 of the principal Ordinance, after the words "or which may be made over at any time," there shall be added the words "by order of the Governor in Executive Council."

By His Excellency's command,
 Colonial Secretary's Office,                      HUGH CLIFFORD,
 Colombo, May 13, 1912.                      Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to elucidate a provision of "The Local Boards Ordinance, 1898," the effect of which is that moneys may from time to time be made over from the General Revenue to any Board for the purposes of the Ordinance. The method by which these moneys are to be made over is not particularized.

2. In reliance on a provision corresponding to this in the Ordinance of 1876, Governor Sir Arthur Havelock made over to Local Boards all fines imposed in cases brought by town constables under the Police Ordinance, No. 16 of 1865, and Local Boards have ever since enjoyed this source of revenue. The validity of the Governor's order having been doubted, this Ordinance has been introduced with a view to enable the present practice to be put upon an unimpeachable footing.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, May 1, 1912.

ANTON BERTRAM,
Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend Ordinance No. 28 of 1871, intituled

Domestic Servants."

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Domestic Servants Registration Ordinance, No. of 1912," and shall be read and construed as one with the principal Ordinance.

Addition of certain words to section 2 of principal Ordinance.

2 In the definition of "servant" in section 2 of the principal Ordinance after the word "horsekeepers" there shall be inserted the words "chauffeurs, private dhobies."

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, HUGH CLIFFORD,
Colombo, May 14, 1912. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE main object of this Bill is to make it clear (in view of a recent decision of the Supreme Court that chauffeurs are "domestic servants" for the purpose of the law regulating the registration of such servants.

2. As the position of private dhobies under the Ordinance is obscure, advantage has been taken of the opportunity to define it.
